Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 22, 2017, Potlatch Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Potlatch ), Portland Merger LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Potlatch ( Merger Sub ), and Deltic Timber Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Deltic ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ). On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Deltic will merge with and into Merger Sub (the Merger ) with Merger Sub continuing as the surviving company in the Merger and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Potlatch. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of both Potlatch and Deltic, and by the sole member of Merger Sub.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the time the Merger becomes effective (the Effective Time ), each share of Deltic common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than shares of Deltic common stock owned by Deltic as treasury stock, will be converted into the right to receive 1.800 fully paid and nonassessable Potlatch common shares, par value $1.00 per share (the Merger Consideration ). No fractional Potlatch common shares will be issued in the Merger, and Deltic's stockholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares. It is expected that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. Federal income tax purposes.

The Merger Agreement provides that, at the Effective Time, outstanding Deltic stock options will vest and be converted into equivalent awards with respect to Potlatch common shares, after giving effect to appropriate adjustments to reflect the consummation of the Merger. Outstanding Deltic restricted stock awards will, with limited exceptions, vest in full, and the restrictions and forfeiture conditions with respect thereto will lapse and expire, and the shares of Deltic common stock underlying such restricted stock awards will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Outstanding Deltic performance-based restricted stock awards will be deemed to have been achieved at the maximum level and, accordingly, will vest in full at 200% of target, and will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, the Potlatch Board of Directors will be expanded from eight directors to twelve directors, consisting of eight directors from Potlatch and four directors from Deltic. Michael J. Covey, the current Chief Executive Officer of Potlatch and Chairman of its Board of Directors, will continue to serve as Chief Executive Officer of Potlatch and Chairman of its Board of Directors. John D. Enlow, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Deltic, will join Potlatch as Vice Chairman and lead the integration efforts. Consummation of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including adoption of the Merger Agreement by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Deltic common stock, approval of the issuance of Potlatch common shares constituting the Merger Consideration by a majority of the common shares voted at the Potlatch stockholder meeting, the listing of the Potlatch common shares constituting the Merger Consideration on the NASDAQ Stock Market, the effectiveness of Potlatch's registration statement on Form S-4, the absence of a legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the Merger and the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality qualifications), the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement, the other party not having suffered a material adverse effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement), the receipt by the party of a customary opinion from counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code ) and the receipt by the party of a customary opinion from counsel to the effect that Potlatch has been organized and operated in conformity with the requirements for qualification and taxation as a REIT under the Code, and that its actual method of operation has enabled it, and its proposed method of operation will continue to enable it, to meet the requirements for qualification and taxation as a REIT under the Code. In addition, Deltic's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to Potlatch not having made any special distributions or dividends since the date of the Merger Agreement in an aggregate amount, together with any permitted dividends, that would result in Potlatch indebtedness being rated below its current rating.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of both Potlatch and Deltic, including covenants to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, not to engage in certain types of transactions during this interim period and to use reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to consummate the merger as soon as reasonably possible.

Each of Potlatch and Deltic is subject to customary restrictions on their respective abilities to solicit alternative acquisition proposals and to provide information to, or engage in discussions with, third parties regarding such proposals, except under limited circumstances that allow the Board of Directors of each company to comply with their respective fiduciary duties.

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary termination rights for both Potlatch and Deltic, including (i) if the Merger is not consummated on or before a date which is nine months following the date of the Merger Agreement, or (ii) if the approval of Potlatch stockholders or Deltic stockholders is not obtained. The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including as a result of a change in the recommendation of a party's Board of Directors, such party may be required to pay to the other party a termination fee equal to $66,000,000 with respect to the fee payable by Potlatch and $33,000,000 with respect to the fee payable by Deltic.

The Merger Agreement and the above description of the Merger Agreement have been included to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Potlatch, Deltic or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made by each party to the other for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between them that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to investors and may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Potlatch or Deltic. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Potlatch, Deltic or any of their respective subsidiaries, affiliates or businesses.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
