Notice Regarding Settlement with U.S. Department of Justice

Tokyo, October 17, 2018 Nomura Holdings, Inc. (the Company) announces today that its subsidiaries Nomura Holding America, Inc., Nomura America Mortgage Finance, LLC, Nomura Asset Acceptance Corporation, Inc., Nomura Asset Capital Corporation, Nomura Credit & Capital, Inc., Nomura Home Equity Loan, Inc. and Nomura Securities International, Inc. (collectively, the U.S. Subsidiaries) have agreed to settle a U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) investigation of residential mortgage-backed securities (RMBS) securitized by the U.S. Subsidiaries prior to 2009. The U.S. Subsidiaries will pay USD 480 million to resolve the matter.

The Company estimates that the settlement will incur approximately JPY20 billion negative impact on its Q2 results. The Company will recognize the impact in the financial statement for that period.

The U.S. Subsidiaries cooperated with the DOJ and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York, which conducted the investigation under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989. The U.S. Subsidiaries do not admit any facts, liability or wrongdoing in connection with the settlement and they dispute the allegations made by the DOJ.

The Company and the U.S. Subsidiaries consider it to be in their best interests to conclude this matter and avoid protracted and expensive litigation concerning transactions and practices that occurred ten or more years ago.
