Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 20, 2019, Nexstar Media Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Nexstar), issued a press release announcing that Nexstar has entered into definitive asset purchase agreements to sell a total of nineteen stations in fifteen markets following Nexstar s proposed acquisition of Tribune pursuant to a definitive merger agreement under which Nexstar agreed to acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Tribune. Under the terms of the agreements, TEGNA Inc. will acquire eleven stations in eight markets and The E.W. Scripps Company will acquire eight stations in seven markets. A copy of the press release is attached here to as Exhibit 99.1.

The information in this Item 7.01, including Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto, (i) is furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 and shall not be deemed filed for any purpose; and (ii) shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K includes forward-looking statements. Nexstar has based these forward-looking statements on its current expectations and projections about future events. Forward-looking statements include information preceded by, followed by, or that includes the words guidance, believes, expects, anticipates, could, similar expressions. For these statements, Nexstar claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward-looking statements contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K, concerning, among other things, the ultimate outcome, benefits and cost savings of any possible transaction between Nexstar and Tribune Media Company (Tribune) and timing thereof, and future financial performance, including changes in net revenue, cash flow and operating expenses, involve risks and uncertainties, and are subject to change based on various important factors, including the timing of and any potential delay in consummating the proposed transaction; the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied and the transaction may not close; the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed transaction is delayed, is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated, the risk of the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement between Nexstar and Tribune; the risk that Nexstar fails to obtain the necessary financing arrangements set forth in the debt commitment letters delivered pursuant to the merger agreement, the impact of changes in national and regional economies, the ability to service and refinance our outstanding debt, successful integration of Tribune (including achievement of synergies and cost reductions), pricing fluctuations in local and national advertising, future regulatory actions and conditions in the television stations operating areas, competition from others in the broadcast television markets, volatility in programming costs, the effects of governmental regulation of broadcasting, industry consolidation, technological developments and major world news events. Unless required by law, Nexstar undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K might not occur. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this release. For more details on factors that could affect these expectations, please see Nexstar s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
