Portfolio management review

Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc.

Dec. 11, 2007

The managers of Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc. provided the answers to the questions below as a review of the Fund's activities for the fiscal year that ended Nov. 30, 2007.

How would you describe the investment environment during the year ended Nov. 30, 2007?

Stocks turned in only moderate gains during the past year, in the face of a slowing economy, declining corporate earnings growth, and a weaker housing market. Equity markets rose steadily early in the period. The sanguine conditions were interrupted, however, by a brief but sharp correction in late February and early March, as investors around the globe came to terms with weaker-than-expected economic data in the U.S.

Stocks recovered throughout the spring, but conditions deteriorated during summer months as investors, already nervous about rising energy prices and other pressures on consumer spending, began to focus more intently on the difficult conditions for homeowners and homebuilders. Falling home prices and rising interest rates triggered an increase in mortgage defaults and substantial losses for banks and home lenders. Financial institutions that had invested in securities backed by the riskiest loans faced some of the steepest losses overall. Lenders responded by dramatically tightening their borrowing requirements.

In this environment, nervous investors fled the stock market between mid-July and mid-August, while the bond market also went through a severe period of stagnation over several weeks in the summer.

Equity markets staged a temporary recovery in September after the Federal Reserve cut interest rates several times. The Fed's interest rate cuts weren't enough to satisfy investor anxiety, however. Markets fell sharply again during the fiscal period's final month, overcome by losses associated with the subprime mortgage crisis, as well as potentially meager consumer spending.

After several years of strong performance, REITs underperformed other stocks for the period. The FTSE NAREIT Equity REITs Index (which tracks the performance of U.S. REITs) returned -12.62% for one year ended Nov. 30, 2007.

Noninvestment grade, high yield bonds managed a positive performance of 2.69% for the same one-year period, despite the severe market conditions in August and a focus by investors on higher-quality investments as the year progressed (source: Lehman Brothers).

How did the Fund perform during the 12 months ended Nov. 30, 2007?

For its fiscal year ended Nov. 30, 2007, Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc. returned -0.94% at net asset value (NAV) and -5.99% at market value (MV) (both figures reflect reinvestment of all distributions). For the complete, annualized performance of Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc., please see the table on page 4. By comparison, the Fund's all-equity benchmark — the S&P 500 Index — advanced 7.72% for the same period (the index does not have a market value). The Fund's peer group, as measured by the Lipper Closed-end Income and Preferred Stock Funds Average, returned -6.26% at NAV and -11.25% at MV over that period.

What factors influenced the Fund's fiscal year performance?

As a whole, the Fund underperformed its benchmark. One noteworthy reason for the underperformance was the Fund's allocation to REITs. One of the primary strategies employed by this income-oriented fund is to invest in REITs for both their relatively high income potential and low correlation with other Fund assets. REITs as an asset class significantly underperformed the broad U.S. stock market during the period. REITs are not well represented in the S&P 500 Index; consequently, underperformance by REITs tends to serve as a drag on fund performance versus the benchmark. Further contributing to underperformance were the Fund's domestic large-cap value equity holdings, where performance trailed the broad stock market as represented by the S&P 500 Index.

The Fund did pick up a measure of performance versus the S&P 500 Index from various individual holdings and sectors across the portfolio. Listed below are some positive and negative influences on performance, including individual holdings, within significant areas of the Fund's investment portfolio.

Domestic equity

In the equity portion of the Fund, an underweight allocation in the energy sector had a negative impact on performance as rising commodity prices propelled energy sector shares during the period. Likewise, an underweight position versus the S&P 500 Index (which we use as our benchmark index for equity sector weightings) in the cyclically-oriented industrials sector detracted from Fund returns. Disappointing stock selection in the consumer discretionary sector also hurt Fund returns relative to the performance benchmark.

Our decision to underweight companies within the financial sector helped the Fund's performance, since financial companies as a whole were negatively impacted by the subprime mortgage crisis. Yet, several of our individual financial services holdings still hurt performance.

We generally sought to reduce risk within the Fund. We believed a more defensive posture was best in light of slowing economic and corporate earnings growth. In general, we favored stocks with higher dividend yields, lower valuations, and potential for more predictable earnings over time.

Edgar Filing: DELAWARE INVESTMENTS DIVIDEND & INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR

We were overweight versus the S&P 500 Index in healthcare, telecommunication services and, for part of the period, consumer staples stocks because we believe company earnings within these sectors have tended to be relatively stable when the economy has experienced a slowdown. We were underweight in cyclical (economically sensitive) sectors such as energy and industrials. Finally, we continued to focus on undervalued companies with stronger balance sheets, whose increased financial flexibility can be valuable to investors during difficult economic times.

With respect to specific securities, our investment in Washington Mutual, whose business is heavily tied to mortgage lending, detracted from performance. Midwest-based bank Huntington Bancshares was another disappointment. We believe the combination of challenging interest rate conditions in recent years, along with its exposure to the slower mid-west economy and troubled U.S. auto industry conspired to hurt Huntington's stock price.

The Fund's healthcare investments, including Merck and Baxter International, contributed to performance. Pharmaceutical maker Merck has benefited from a strong pipeline of promising new products and exceeded analysts' relatively low earnings expectations. We exited our position in Merck during the fiscal year. Baxter International performed well thanks to growing sales and earnings.

REITs

As part of its strategy aimed at generating income from multiple asset types, Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc. held a significant allocation in equity REITs, an asset class that struggled this year, detracting from Fund performance compared to the S&P 500 Index.

REITs were relatively stable at the outset, but their stock prices fell sharply through most of 2007. During the five years leading up to this slowdown, domestic REITs enjoyed annual compound returns exceeding 20%, outperforming all major domestic stock indices.* REIT returns in these prior periods were fueled by historically low interest rates and massive injections of liquidity engineered by the Federal Reserve as it sought to stimulate the economy. The actions created a boom in residential real estate markets. In REIT markets, this led to a major inflow of capital, fueling acquisitions and privatizations and pushing valuations ever higher. By February 2007, the REIT market had peaked, with valuations hitting all-time highs.

*Instances of high double-digit returns are unusual, cannot be sustained, and were achieved primarily during favorable market conditions.

The downturn that followed was spurred by surging default rates on subprime mortgages. These defaults were accompanied by softening home sales, failing mortgage companies, and dramatic write-downs by major investment and money-center banks. The result was a tightening of credit standards and a drying up of the liquidity that had fueled acquisition and buyout activity earlier in the period.

Office REITs, such as Alexandria Real Estate Equities, helped us post positive results in a sector that experienced a setback during the period. Our outperformance was greatly enhanced by the takeover of Hilton Hotels.

Our weakest contributors included: Apartment Investment and Management Company, Starwood Hotels and Resorts, Brandywine Realty Trust, Mack-Cali Realty, and Duke Realty. We sold Brandywine, Mack-Cali and Duke because we anticipated declines in suburban office fundamentals such as increased supply, weaker job growth, and slowing rent growth. Sectors in which our stock picks detracted included specialty and diversified.

High yield fixed income

With regard to the Fund's high yield fixed income investments, the higher credit quality sectors (e.g., BB-rated bonds in particular) outperformed lower credit quality sectors (CCC-rated bonds) during the fiscal period. The high yield sectors that contributed to performance were integrated energy, health insurance, and life insurance. The worst-performing areas of the market were home builders, brokerage, and financials. We believe the subprime crisis contributed to a deterioration in liquidity in the high yield market and a negative trend in technicals. This caused an almost complete cessation of new-deal issuance in July and a pronounced deterioration in secondary market trading. This situation was exacerbated by the $350 billion backlog of leverage buyout (LBO) financing that has yet to be issued. Furthermore, issuance of collateralized loan obligations all but dried up, making it more difficult to issue the bank-loan portion of the LBO calendar. During September, liquidity improved and there was a resurgence in the new-issue market for existing high yield companies, as some seasoned issuers brought to market bond deals that were well received.

We generally favored B-rated credits over higher-quality credits, given the additional yield compensation for the risk accepted. The utility, energy, and capital goods sectors were the strongest relative contributors to performance.

High yielding noninvestment grade bonds (["junk bonds"]) involve higher risk than investment grade bonds. Adverse conditions may affect the issuer's ability to pay interest and principal on these securities.

Funds that invest in REITs are subject to many of the risks associated with direct real estate ownership and, as such, may be adversely affected by declines in real-estate values and general and local economic conditions.

Diversification does not assure a profit or protect against loss in a declining market.

Returns reflect reinvestment of all distributions. Dividends and distributions, if any, are assumed, for the purpose of this calculation, to be reinvested at prices obtained under the Fund's dividend reinvestment policy. Shares of the Fund were initially offered with a sales charge of 6%. Performance since inception does not include the sales charge or any brokerage commissions for purchases made since inception. ² Total investment return is calculated assuming a purchase of common stock on the opening of the first day and a sale on the closing of the last day of each period reported. Dividends and distributions, if any, are assumed for the purposes of this calculation, to be reinvested at prices obtained under the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan. Generally, total investment return based on net asset value will be higher than total investment return based on market value in periods where there is an increase in the discount or decrease in the premium of the market value to the net asset value from the beginning to the end of such periods. Conversely, total investment return based on net asset value will be lower than total investment return based on market value in periods where there is a decrease in the discount or an increase in the premium of the market value to the net asset value from the beginning to the end of such periods.

Notes to financial statements

Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc.

November 30, 2007

Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc. (Fund) is organized as a Maryland corporation and is a diversified closed-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The Fund's shares trade on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the symbol DDF.

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek high current income. Capital appreciation is a secondary objective.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The following accounting policies are in accordance with U.S generally accepted accounting principles and are consistently followed by the Fund.

Security Valuation □ Equity securities, except those traded on the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (Nasdaq), are valued at the last quoted sales price as of the time of the regular close of the NYSE on the valuation date. Securities traded on the Nasdaq are valued in accordance with the Nasdaq Official Closing Price, which may not be the last sales price. If on a particular day an equity security does not trade, then the mean between the bid and asked prices will be used. U.S. Government and agency securities are valued at the mean between the bid and asked prices. Other long-term debt securities, credit default swap (CDS) contracts and interest rate swap contracts are valued by an independent pricing service or broker and such prices are believed to reflect the fair value of such securities. Short-term debt securities having less than 60 days to maturity are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Securities lending collateral, which is invested in a collective investment vehicle, is valued at unit value per share. Generally, index swap contracts, spread swap contracts and other securities and assets for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined in good faith under the direction of the Fund's Board of Directors. In determining whether market quotations are readily available or fair valuation will be used, various factors will be taken into consideration, such as market closures, or with respect to foreign securities, aftermarket trading or significant events after local market trading (e.g., government actions or pronouncements, trading volume or volatility on markets, exchanges among dealers, or news events).

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Statement No. 157 □Fair Value Measurements□ (Statement 157). Statement 157 establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, clarifies the definition of fair value within that framework, and expands disclosures about the use of fair value measurements. Statement 157 is intended to increase consistency and comparability among fair value estimates used in financial reporting. Statement 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. Management does not expect the adoption of Statement 157 to have a material impact on the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Federal Income Taxes □ The Fund intends to continue to qualify for federal income tax purposes as a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and make the requisite distributions to shareholders. Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes has been made in the financial statements.

On July 13, 2006, the FASB released FASB Interpretation No. 48 □Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes□ (FIN 48). FIN 48 provides guidance for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented, and disclosed in the financial statements. FIN 48 requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Fund's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are □more-likely-than-not□ of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions not deemed to meet a more-likely-than-not threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Adoption of FIN 48 is required for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006 and is to be applied to all open tax years as of the effective date. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) guidance allows implementing FIN 48 in the Fund's net asset value calculations as late as the Fund's last net asset value calculation in the first required financial statement reporting period. As a result, the Fund will incorporate FIN 48 in its semiannual report on May 31, 2008. Although the Fund's tax positions are currently being evaluated, management does not expect the adoption of FIN 48 to have a material impact on the Fund's financial statements.

Distributions □ The Fund has a managed distribution policy. Under the policy, the Fund declares and pays monthly distributions and is managed with a goal of generating as much of the distribution as possible from ordinary income (net investment income and short-term capital gains). The balance of the distribution then comes from long-term capital gains to the extent permitted and, if necessary, a return of capital. The current annualized rate is $0.96 per share ($0.08 monthly). The Fund continues to evaluate its monthly distribution in light of ongoing economic and market conditions and may change the amount of the monthly distributions in the future.

Borrowings □ During the year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund issued short-term commercial paper at a discount from par. The discount was amortized as interest expense over the life of the commercial paper using the straight-line method (See Note 7).

Repurchase Agreements □ The Fund may invest in a pooled cash account along with other members of the Delaware Investments® Family of Funds pursuant to an exemptive order issued by the SEC. The aggregate daily balance of the pooled cash account is invested in repurchase agreements secured by obligations of the U.S. government. The respective collateral is held by the Fund's custodian bank until the maturity of the respective repurchase agreements. Each repurchase agreement is at least 102% collateralized. However, in the event of default or bankruptcy by the counterparty to the agreement, realization of the collateral may be subject to legal proceedings.

Use of Estimates □ The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Other □ Expenses directly attributable to the Fund are charged directly to the Fund. Other expenses common to various funds within the Delaware Investments® Family of Funds are generally allocated amongst such funds on the basis of average net assets. Management fees and some other expenses are paid monthly. Security transactions are recorded on the date the securities are purchased or sold (trade date) for financial reporting purposes. Costs used in calculating realized gains and losses on the sale of investment securities are those of the specific securities sold. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Discounts and premiums on non-convertible bonds are amortized to interest income over the lives of the respective securities. Distributions received from investments in Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) are recorded as dividend income on the ex-dividend date as an estimate, subject to reclassification upon notice of the character of such distribution by the issuer.

Subject to seeking best execution, the Fund may direct certain security trades to brokers who have agreed to rebate a portion of the related brokerage commission to the Fund in cash. Such commission rebates are included in realized gain on investments in the accompanying financial statements and totaled $555 for the year ended November 30, 2007. In general, best execution refers to many factors, including the price paid or received for a security, the commission charged, the promptness and reliability of execution, the confidentiality and placement accorded the order, and other factors affecting the overall benefit obtained by the Fund on the transaction. DMC, as defined below, and its affiliates have previously and may in the future act as an investment advisor to mutual funds or separate accounts affiliated with the administrator of the commission recapture program described above. In addition, affiliates of the administrator act as consultants in helping institutional clients choose investment advisors and may also participate in other types of business and provide other services in the investment management industry.

The Fund receives earnings credits from its custodian when positive cash balances are maintained, which are used to offset custody fees. The expense paid under this arrangement is included in custodian fees on the Statement of operations with the corresponding expense offset shown as expense paid indirectly.

2. Investment Management, Administration Agreements and Other Transactions with Affiliates

In accordance with the terms of its investment management agreement, the Fund pays Delaware Management Company (DMC), a series of Delaware Management Business Trust and the investment manager, an annual fee of 0.55%, which is calculated daily based on the adjusted average weekly net assets.

Effective October 1, 2007, Delaware Service Company, Inc. (DSC), an affiliate of DMC, provides fund accounting and financial administration oversight services to the Fund. For these services, the Fund pays DSC fees based on the aggregate daily net assets of the Delaware Investments[®] Family of Funds at the following annual rate: 0.0050% of the first $30 billion; 0.0045% of the next $10 billion; 0.0040% of the next $10 billion; and 0.0025% of aggregate average daily net assets in excess of $50 billion. The fees payable to DSC under the service agreement described above are allocated among all funds in the Delaware Investments Family of Funds on a relative net asset value basis. Prior to October 1, 2007, DSC provided fund accounting and administrative services to the Fund and received a fee at an annual rate of 0.04% of adjusted average weekly net assets. For the year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund was charged $66,023 for these services.

For purposes of the calculation of investment management fees and administration fees, adjusted average weekly net assets does not include the commercial paper or line of credit liability.

At November 30, 2007, the Fund had liabilities payable to affiliates as follows:

Investment management fee payable to DMC	$79,413
Fees and expenses payable to DSC	10,899
Other expenses payable to DMC and affiliates*	58,587

*DMC, as part of its administrative services, pays operating expenses on behalf of the Fund and is reimbursed on a periodic basis. Such expenses include items such as printing of shareholder reports, fees for audit, legal and tax services, stock exchange fees, custodian fees and Directors[¶] fees.

As provided in the investment management agreement, the Fund bears the cost of certain legal and tax services, including internal legal and tax services provided to the Fund by DMC and/or its affiliates[¶] employees. For the year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund was charged $7,681 for internal legal and tax services provided by DMC and/or its affiliates[¶] employees.

Certain officers of DMC and DSC are officers and/or directors of the Fund. These officers and directors are paid no compensation by the Fund.

3. Investments

For the year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund made purchases of $91,517,341 and sales of $112,007,994 of investment securities other than short-term investments.

Edgar Filing: DELAWARE INVESTMENTS DIVIDEND & INCOME FUND INC - Form N-CSR

At November 30, 2007, the cost of investments for federal income tax purposes was $172,913,324. At November 30, 2007, net unrealized appreciation was $11,681,570, of which $21,028,772 related to unrealized appreciation of investments and $9,347,202 related to unrealized depreciation of investments.

4. Dividend and Distribution Information

Income and long-term capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Additionally, net short-term gains on sales of investment securities are treated as ordinary income for federal income tax purposes. The tax character of dividends and distributions paid during the years ended November 30, 2007 and 2006 was as follows:

	Year Ended
	2007	2006
Ordinary income	$ 6,457,314	$ 6,915,192
Long-term capital gains	9,173,698	5,252,912
Return of capital	6,965,444	□
Total	$ 22,596,456	$ 12,168,104

5. Components of Net Assets on a Tax Basis

As of November 30, 2007, the components of net assets on a tax basis were as follows:

Shares of beneficial interest	$ 112,392,634
Other temporary differences	(146,091)
Unrealized appreciation of investments	11,681,570
Net assets	$ 123,928,113

The differences between book basis and tax basis components of net assets are primarily attributable to tax deferral of losses on wash sales, contingent payment debt instruments, interest accrued on bonds in default, tax treatment of CDS contracts, and market discount and premium on debt instruments.

For financial reporting purposes, capital accounts are adjusted to reflect the tax character of permanent book/tax differences. Reclassifications are primarily due to tax treatment of market discount and premium on certain debt instruments, passive foreign investment companies, gain (loss) on contingent payment debt instruments, REITs and CDS contracts. Results of operations and net assets were not affected by these reclassifications. For the year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund recorded the following reclassifications:

Distributions in excess of net investment income	$1,442,605
Accumulated net realized gain	(1,442,605)

6. Capital Stock

Shares obtained under the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan are purchased by the Fund's transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services, LLC, in the open market. There were no shares issued under the Fund's dividend reinvestment plan for the years ended November 30, 2007 and 2006.

On May 21, 2007, the Fund's Board of Directors approved a tender offer for shares of the Fund's common stock. The tender offer authorized the Fund to purchase up to 5% of its issued and outstanding shares at a price equal to the Fund's net asset value at the close of business on the NYSE on July 2, 2007, the first business day following the expiration of the offer. The tender offer commenced on June 1, 2007 and expired on June 29, 2007. In connection with the tender offer, the Fund purchased 550,462 shares of capital stock at a total cost of $7,943,167. The tender offer was oversubscribed, and all tenders of the shares were subject to pro-rata (at a ratio of approximately 0.529105872) in accordance with the terms of the tender offer.

The tender offer commenced on June 2, 2006 and expired on June 30, 2006. In connection with the tender offer, the Fund purchased 579,434 shares of capital stock at a total cost of $7,463,110. The tender offer was oversubscribed, and all tenders of the shares were subject to pro-ration (at a ratio of approximately 0.775731221) in accordance with the terms of the tender offer.

7. Commercial Paper

As of November 30, 2007, $24,000,000 (par value) of commercial paper was outstanding with an amortized cost of $23,939,400. The weighted discount rate of commercial paper outstanding at November 30, 2007 was 5.05%. The average daily balance of commercial paper outstanding during the year ended November 30, 2007 was $43,057,292 at a weighted discount rate of 5.35%. The maximum amount of commercial paper outstanding at any time during the year was $44,000,000. On November 19, 2007, the Fund reduced the commercial paper outstanding to $24,000,000 from $44,000,000.

In conjunction with the issuance of the commercial paper, the Fund entered into a Liquidity Agreement with JPMorgan Chase for $30,000,000. Interest on borrowings is based on market rates in effect at the time of borrowing. The commitment fee is computed at the rate of 0.10% per annum on the unused balance. During the year ended November 30, 2007, there were no borrowings under this arrangement.

8. Line of Credit

On November 19, 2007, the Fund entered into a Credit Agreement with The Bank of New York for $44,000,000 that expires on November 18, 2008. At November 30, 2007, outstanding borrowings were $20,000,000 at the Fed Funds rate of 4.50% plus 0.25%. During the period November 19, 2007 to November 30, 2007, the average daily balance of loans outstanding was $20,000,000 at a weighted average interest rate of approximately 4.50% plus 0.25%. The maximum amount of borrowings outstanding at any time during the period was $20,000,000. Interest on borrowings is based on market rates in effect at the time of borrowing. The commitment fee is computed at a rate of 0.10% per annum on the unused balance. The loan is collateralized by the Fund's portfolio.

9. Swap Contracts

The Fund may enter into interest rate swap contracts, index swap contracts and CDS contracts in accordance with its investment objectives. The Fund may use interest rate swaps to adjust the Fund's sensitivity to interest rates or to hedge against changes in interest rates. Index swaps may be used to gain exposure to markets that the Fund invests in, such as the corporate bond market. The Fund may also use index swaps as a substitute for futures or options contracts if such contracts are not directly available to the Fund on favorable terms. The Fund may enter into CDS contracts in order to hedge against a credit event, to enhance total return or to gain exposure to certain securities or markets.

An interest rate swap involves payments received by the Fund from another party based on a variable or floating interest rate, in return for making payments based on a fixed interest rate. An interest rate swap can also work in reverse with the Fund receiving payments based on a fixed interest rate and making payments based on a variable or floating interest rate. Interest rate swaps may be used to adjust the Fund's sensitivity to interest rates or to hedge against changes in interest rates. Periodic payments on such contracts are accrued daily and recorded as unrealized appreciation/depreciation on swap contracts. Upon periodic payment/ receipt or termination of the contract, such amounts are recorded as realized gains or losses on swap contracts.

Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc.

9. Swap Contracts (continued)

Index swaps involve commitments to pay interest in exchange for a market-linked return based on a notional amount. To the extent the total return of the security, instrument or basket of instruments underlying the transaction exceeds the offsetting interest obligation, the Fund will receive a payment from the counterparty. To the extent the total return of the security, instrument or basket of instruments underlying the transaction falls short of the offsetting interest obligation, the Fund will make a payment to the counterparty. The change in value of swap contracts outstanding, if any, is recorded as unrealized appreciation or depreciation daily. A realized gain or loss is recorded on maturity or termination of the swap contract.

A CDS contract is a risk-transfer instrument through which one party (purchaser of protection) transfers to another party (seller of protection) the financial risk of a credit event (as defined in the CDS agreement), as it relates to a particular reference security or basket of securities (such as an index). In exchange for the protection offered by the seller of protection, the purchaser of protection agrees to pay the seller of protection a periodic amount at a stated rate that is applied to the notional amount of the CDS contract. In addition, an upfront payment may be made or received by the Fund in connection with an unwinding or assignment of a CDS contract. Upon the occurrence of a credit event, the seller of protection would pay the par (or other agreed-upon) value of the referenced security (or basket of securities) to the counterparty.

During the year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund entered into CDS contracts as a purchaser and seller of protection. Periodic payments on such contracts are accrued daily and recorded as unrealized gains or losses on swap contracts. Upon payment, such amounts are recorded as realized losses on swap contracts. Upfront payments made or received in connection with CDS contracts are amortized over the expected life of the CDS contracts as realized losses (gains) on swap contracts. The change in value of CDS contracts is recorded as unrealized appreciation or depreciation daily. A realized gain or loss is recorded upon a credit event (as defined in the CDS agreement) or the maturity or termination of the agreement.

Credit default swaps may involve greater risks than if the Fund had invested in the referenced obligation directly. Credit default swaps are subject to general market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and credit risk. If the Fund enters into a CDS contract as a purchaser of protection and no credit event occurs, its exposure is limited to the periodic payments previously made to the counterparty.

Because there is no organized market for swap contracts, the value of open swaps may differ from that which would be realized in the event the Fund terminated its position in the agreement. Risks of entering into these contracts include the potential inability of the counterparty to meet the terms of the contracts. This type of risk is generally limited to the amount of favorable movements in the value of the underlying security, instrument, or basket of instruments, if any, at the day of default. Risks also arise from potential losses from adverse market movements and such losses could exceed the unrealized amounts shown on the Statement of net assets.

10. Securities Lending

The Fund, along with other funds in the Delaware Investments® Family of Funds, may lend its securities pursuant to a security lending agreement (Lending Agreement) with Mellon Bank, N.A. (Mellon). With respect to each loan, if the aggregate market value of the collateral held on any business day is less than the aggregate market value of the securities which are the subject of such loan, the borrower will be notified to provide additional collateral not less than the applicable collateral requirements. Cash collateral received is invested in a collective investment vehicle (Collective Trust) established by Mellon for the purpose of investment on behalf of clients participating in its securities lending programs. The Collective Trust invests in fixed income securities with a weighted average maturity not to exceed 90 days, rated in one of the top two tiers by Standard & Poor's Ratings Group or Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or repurchase agreements collateralized by such securities. However, in the event of default or bankruptcy by the lending agent, realization and/or retention of the collateral may be subject to legal proceedings. In the event the borrower fails to return loaned securities and the collateral received is insufficient to cover the value of the loaned securities and provided such collateral shortfall is not the result of investment losses, the lending agent has agreed to pay the amount of the shortfall to the Fund, or at the discretion of the lending agent, replace the loaned securities. The Fund continues to record dividends or interest, as applicable, on the securities loaned and is subject to change in value of the securities loaned that may occur during the term of the loan. The Fund has the right under the Lending Agreement to recover the securities from the borrower on demand. The security lending agent and the borrower retain a portion of the earnings from the collateral investments. The Fund records security lending income net of such allocation.

At November 30, 2007, the market value of securities on loan was $17,161,513, for which cash collateral was received and invested in accordance with the Lending Agreement. Such investments are presented on the Statement of net assets under the caption □Securities Lending Collateral.□

11. Credit and Market Risk

The Fund invests a portion of its assets in high yield fixed income securities, which carry ratings of BB or lower by Standard & Poor's Ratings Group and/or Ba or lower by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. Investments in these higher yielding securities are generally accompanied by a greater degree of credit risk than higher rated securities. Additionally, lower rated securities may be more susceptible to adverse economic and competitive industry conditions than investment grade securities.

The Fund invests in REITs and is subject to some of the risks associated with that industry. If the Fund holds real estate directly as a result of defaults or receives rental income directly from real estate holdings, its tax status as a regulated investment company may be jeopardized. There were no direct real estate holdings during the year ended November 30, 2007. The Fund's REIT holdings are also affected by interest rate changes, particularly if the REITs it holds use floating rate debt to finance their ongoing operations.

The Fund may invest up to 10% of its net assets in illiquid securities, which may include securities with contractual restrictions on resale, securities exempt from registration under Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and other securities which may not be readily marketable. The relative illiquidity of these securities may impair the Fund from disposing of them in a timely manner and at a fair price when it is necessary or desirable to do so. While maintaining oversight, the Fund's Board of Directors has delegated to DMC the day-to-day functions of determining whether individual securities are liquid for purposes of each Fund's limitation on investments in illiquid assets. Rule 144A and illiquid securities have been identified on the Statement of net assets.

12. Contractual Obligations

The Fund enters into contracts in the normal course of business that contain a variety of indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. However, the Fund has not had prior claims or losses pursuant to these contracts. Management has reviewed the Fund's existing contracts and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

13. Change in Custodian

On August 9, 2007, Mellon Bank, N.A., One Mellon Center, Pittsburgh, PA, 15285, became the Fund's custodian. Prior to August 9, 2007, JPMorgan Chase Bank served as the Fund's custodian.

14. Subsequent Events

On December 20, 2007, the commercial paper program and related Liquidity Agreement with JPMorgan Chase were terminated. On December 19, 2007, the Fund increased its borrowing under its Line of Credit Agreement with The Bank of New York to $44,000,000 from $20,000,000.

15. Tax Information (Unaudited)

The information set forth below is for the Fund's fiscal year as required by federal income tax laws. Shareholders, however, must report distributions on a calendar year basis for income tax purposes, which may include distributions for portions of two fiscal years of a fund. Accordingly, the information needed by shareholders for income tax purposes will be sent to them in January of each year. Please consult your tax advisor for proper treatment of this information.

For the fiscal year ended November 30, 2007, the Fund designates distributions paid during the year as follows:

(A)	(B)	(C)	Total	(D)
Long-Term Capital Gain Distributions (Tax Basis)	Ordinary Income Distributions* (Tax Basis)	Return of Capital (Tax Basis)	Distributions (Tax Basis)	Qualifying Dividends ¹
40%	29%	31%	100%	41%

* For the fiscal year ended November 30, 2007, certain dividends paid by the Fund may be subject to a maximum tax rate of 15%, as provided for by the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003. The Fund intends to designate up a maximum amount $2,749,126 to be taxed at maximum rate of 15%. Complete information will be computed and reported in conjunction with your 2007 Form 1099-DIV.

Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial highlights, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of November 30, 2007, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from brokers were not received. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Delaware Investments Dividend and Income Fund, Inc. at November 30, 2007, the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and its financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Termination of Commercial Paper Program

On October 25, 2007, the Fund's Board of Directors approved an agreement that allowed the Fund to enter into a $44,000,000 revolving credit facility with The Bank of New York. The credit facility replaced the Fund's commercial paper program that permitted the Fund to issue up to $60 million in commercial paper. The conversion to the credit facility occurred in two steps, in conjunction with the expiration of a $20 million tranche of commercial paper on November 19, 2007 and a $24 million tranche of commercial paper on December 19, 2007. Accordingly, the commercial paper program and the related liquidity agreement expired on December 20, 2007.

Changes to Fund's Investment Strategies and Policies

In August 2007, the Fund's Board of Directors approved the following changes in investment strategies. The changes became effective on October 23, 2007, after a 60 day notice period.

A loan participation is an interest in a loan or other direct indebtedness, such as an assignment, that entitles the acquiring of such interest payments, and/or other amounts due under the structure of the loan or other direct indebtedness. In addition to being structured as secured or unsecured loans, such investments could be structured as novations or assignments or represent trade or other claims owed by a company to a supplier. The Fund may invest without restriction in loan participations that meet the credit standards established by the portfolio managers. The portfolio managers perform their own independent credit analysis on each borrower and on the collateral securing each loan. The portfolio managers consider the nature of the industry in which the borrower operates, the nature of the borrower's assets and the general quality and creditworthiness of the borrower. The Fund may invest without limitation in loan participations in order to enhance total return, to affect diversification or to earn additional income. The Fund will not use loan participations for reasons inconsistent with its investment objective.

These loans are made generally to finance internal growth, mergers, acquisitions, stock repurchases, leveraged buy-outs and other corporate activities. Such loans are typically made by a syndicate of lending institutions, represented by an agent lending institution that has negotiated and structured the loan and is responsible for collecting interest, principal and other amounts due on its own behalf and on behalf of the others in the syndicate, and for enforcing its and their other rights against the borrower. Alternatively, such loans may be structured as novations, pursuant to which the Fund would assume all of the rights of the lending institution in a loan or as an assignment, pursuant to which the Fund would purchase an assignment of a portion of a lender's interest in a loan either directly from the lender or through an intermediary.

The Fund may also purchase trade or other claims against companies, which generally represent money owed by the company to a supplier of goods or services. These claims may also be purchased at a time when the company is in default.

Loans and other direct indebtedness involve the risk that the Fund will not receive payment of principal, interest and other amounts due in connection with these investments and will depend primarily on the financial condition of the borrower. Loans that are fully secured offer the Fund more protection than unsecured loans in the event of non-payment of scheduled interest or principal, although there is no assurance that the liquidation of collateral from a secured loan would satisfy the corporate borrower's obligation, or that the collateral can be liquidated. Some loans or claims may be in default at the time of purchase. Certain of the loans and the other direct indebtedness acquired by the Fund may involve revolving credit facilities or other standby financing commitments which obligate the Fund to pay additional cash on a certain date or on demand. These commitments may require the Fund to increase its investment in a company at a time when the Fund might not otherwise decide to do so (including at a time when the company's financial condition makes it unlikely that such amounts will be repaid). To the extent that the Fund is committed to advance additional funds, it will, at all times, hold and maintain in a segregated account cash or other high-grade debt obligations in an amount sufficient to meet such commitments. The Fund's ability to receive payment of principal, interest and other amounts due in connection with these investments will depend primarily on the financial condition of the borrower.

As the Fund may be required to rely upon another lending institution to collect and pass on to the Fund amounts payable with respect to the loan and to enforce the Fund's rights under the loan and other direct indebtedness, an insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of the lending institution may delay or prevent the Fund from receiving such amounts. In such cases, the Fund will evaluate the creditworthiness of the borrower and the lending institution and will treat both the borrower and the lending institution as an "issuer" of the loan for purposes of compliance with applicable law pertaining to the diversification of the Fund's portfolio investments. The highly leveraged nature of many such loans and other direct indebtedness may make such loans and other direct indebtedness especially vulnerable to adverse changes in economic or market conditions. Investments in such loans and other direct indebtedness may involve additional risk to the Fund.

Tender Offer

As described in Note 6 to the Financial Statements, the Fund conducted a tender offer in 2007. There can be no assurance that a tender offer will reduce or eliminate any spread between market price and the net asset value of the Fund's shares. The market price of the shares will, among other things, be determined by the relative demand for and supply of shares in the market, the Fund's investment performance, the Fund's dividends and yields, and investor perception of the Fund's overall attractiveness as an investment as compared with other investment alternatives. Nevertheless, the fact that a tender offer may be conducted may result in more of a reduction in the spread between market price and net asset value than might otherwise be the case. The Fund's Board of Directors, consistent with its fiduciary obligations, may explore alternatives to a tender offer to reduce or eliminate the Fund's potential market value discount from net asset value. Therefore, the Fund cannot provide assurance that it will make tender offers in the future.

The tender offer plan described in the Fund's prospectus contemplates that a shareholder wishing to accept a tender offer must tender all (but not less than all) of the Fund shares owned by the shareholder or attributed to it under Section 318 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the Fund has received a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") that a tender of less than all of a shareholder's shares will not cause non-tendering shareholders to realize constructive distributions on their shares under Section 305 of the Internal Revenue Code. In connection with the 2005 tender offer and the favorable private letter ruling received by the Fund on May 5, 2005, the Fund, through its counsel, was informed by the Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Corporate) that the IRS would not issue to the Fund a similar ruling in future years. The IRS's informal policy is to issue no more than two such rulings to any one taxpayer on the premise that multiple tender offers may constitute such a "plan" that has the result of increasing the proprietary interests of some shareholders in the assets and income of the funds and the receipt of money by other shareholders. Since the Fund's organization in 1993, the Fund has consummated four tender offers, including tender offers in 2000, 2005, 2006, and 2007.

In light of this communication from the IRS, it was determined that the Fund had no affirmative obligation to obtain a ruling from the IRS as a precondition to accepting partial tenders. The Fund has previously stated that it would not seek a private letter ruling from the IRS in connection with accepting partial tenders for any future Fund tender offers.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

The Fund offers an automatic dividend reinvestment program ("Plan"). Shareholders who have shares registered in their own names are automatically considered participants in the Plan, unless they elect to withdraw from the Plan. Shareholders who hold their shares through a bank, broker or other nominee should request the bank, broker or nominee to participate in the Plan on their behalf. This can be done as long as the bank, broker or nominee provides a dividend reinvestment service for the

Fund. If the bank, broker or nominee does not provide this service, such shareholders must have their shares taken out of [street] or nominee name and re-registered in their own name in order to participate in the Plan.

Mellon Investor Services, LLC ([Mellon]) will apply all cash dividends, capital gains and other distributions (collectively, [Distributions]) on the Fund's shares of common stock which become payable to each Plan participant to the purchase of outstanding shares of the Fund's common stock for such participant. These purchases may be made on a securities exchange or in the over-the-counter market, and may be subject to such terms of price, delivery and related matters to which Mellon may agree. The Fund will not issue new shares in connection with the Plan.

Distributions reinvested for participants are subject to income taxes just as if they had been paid directly to the shareholder in cash. Participants will receive a year-end statement showing distributions reinvested, and any brokerage commissions paid on such participant's behalf.

Shareholders holding shares of the Fund in their own names who wish to terminate their participation in the Plan may do so by sending written instruction to Mellon so that Mellon receives such instructions at least 10 days prior to the Distribution record date. Shareholders with shares held in account by a bank, broker or other nominee should contact such bank, broker or other nominee to determine the procedure for withdrawal from the Plan.

If written instructions are not received by Mellon at least 10 days prior to the record date for a particular Distribution, that Distribution may be reinvested at the sole discretion of Mellon. After a shareholder's instructions to terminate participation in the Plan become effective, Distributions will be paid to shareholders in cash. Upon termination, a shareholder may elect to receive either stock or cash for all the full shares in the account. If cash is elected, Mellon will sell such shares at the then current market value and then send the net proceeds to the shareholder, after deducting brokerage commissions and related expenses. Any fractional shares at the time of termination will be paid in cash at the current market price, less brokerage commissions and related expenses, if any. Shareholders may at any time request a full or partial withdrawal of shares from the Plan, without terminating participation in the Plan. When shares outside of the Plan are liquidated, Distributions on shares held under the Plan will continue to be reinvested unless Mellon is notified of the shareholder's withdrawal from the Plan.

An investor holding shares that participate in the Plan in a brokerage account may not be able to transfer the shares to another broker and continue to participate in the Plan. Please contact your broker/dealer for additional details.

Mellon will charge participants their proportional share of brokerage commissions on market purchases. Participants may obtain a certificate or certificates for all or part of the full shares credited to their accounts at any time by making a request in writing to Mellon. A fee may be charged to the participant for each certificate issuance.

If you have any questions and shares are registered in your name, contact Mellon at 800 851-9677. If you have any questions and shares are registered in [street] name, contact the broker/dealer holding the shares or your financial advisor.

Item 5. Audit Committee of Listed Registrants

The registrant has a separately-designated standing Audit Committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The members of the registrant's Audit Committee are Thomas L. Bennett, Thomas F. Madison, Janet L. Yeomans and J. Richard Zecher.

Item 6. Schedule of Investments

Included as part of report to shareholders filed under Item 1 of this Form N-CSR.

Item 7. Disclosure of Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures for Closed-End Management Investment Companies

The registrant has formally delegated to its investment adviser (the "Adviser") the ability to make all proxy voting decisions in relation to portfolio securities held by the registrant. If and when proxies need to be voted on behalf of the registrant, the Adviser will vote such proxies pursuant to its Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures (the "Procedures"). The Adviser has established a Proxy Voting Committee (the "Committee") which is responsible for overseeing the Adviser's proxy voting process for the registrant. One of the main responsibilities of the Committee is to review and approve the Procedures to ensure that the Procedures are designed to allow the Adviser to vote proxies in a manner consistent with the goal of voting in the best interests of the registrant.

In order to facilitate the actual process of voting proxies, the Adviser has contracted with Institutional Shareholder Services ("ISS") to analyze proxy statements on behalf of the registrant and other Adviser clients and vote proxies generally in accordance with the Procedures. The Committee is responsible for overseeing ISS's proxy voting activities. If a proxy has been voted for the registrant, ISS will create a record of the vote. By no later than August 31 of each year, information (if any) regarding how the registrant voted proxies relating to portfolio securities during the most recently disclosed 12-month period ended June 30 is available without charge (i) through the registrant's website at <http://www.delawareinvestments.com>; and (ii) on the Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

The Procedures contain a general guideline that recommendations of company management on an issue (particularly routine issues) should be given a fair amount of weight in determining how proxy issues should be voted. However, the Adviser will normally vote against management's position when it runs counter to its specific Proxy Voting Guidelines (the "Guidelines"), and the Adviser will also vote against management's recommendation when it believes that such position is not in the best interests of the registrant.

As stated above, the Procedures also list specific Guidelines on how to vote proxies on behalf of the registrant. Some examples of the Guidelines are as follows: (i) generally vote for shareholder proposals asking that a majority or more of directors be independent; (ii) generally vote against proposals to require a supermajority shareholder vote; (iii) votes on mergers and acquisitions should be considered on a case-by-case basis, determining whether the transaction enhances shareholder value; (iv) generally vote against proposals to create a new class of common stock with superior voting rights; (v) generally vote re-incorporation proposals on a case-by-case basis; (vi) votes with respect to equity-based compensation plans are generally determined on a case-by-case basis; and (vii) generally vote for proposals requesting reports on the level of greenhouse gas emissions from a company's operations and products.

Because the registrant has delegated proxy voting to the Adviser, the registrant is not expected to encounter any conflict of interest issues regarding proxy voting and therefore does not have procedures regarding this matter. However, the Adviser does have a section in its Procedures that addresses the possibility of conflicts of interest. Most proxies which the Adviser receives on behalf of the registrant are voted by ISS in accordance with the Procedures. Because almost all registrant proxies are voted by ISS pursuant to the pre-determined Procedures, it normally will not be necessary for the Adviser to make an actual determination of how to vote a particular proxy, thereby largely eliminating conflicts of interest for the Adviser during the proxy voting process. In the very limited instances where the Adviser is considering voting a proxy contrary to ISS's recommendation, the Committee will first assess the issue to see if there is any possible conflict of interest involving the Adviser or affiliated persons of the Adviser. If a member of the Committee has actual knowledge of a conflict of interest, the Committee will normally use another independent third party to do additional research on the particular proxy issue in order to make a recommendation to the Committee on how to vote the proxy in the best interests of the registrant. The Committee will then review the proxy voting materials and recommendation provided by ISS and the independent third party to determine how to vote the issue in a manner which the Committee believes is consistent with the Procedures and in the best interests of the registrant.

Description of Material Conflicts of Interest

Individual portfolio managers may perform investment management services for other accounts similar to those provided to the Funds and the investment action for each account and Fund may differ. For example, an account or Fund may be selling a security, while another account or Fund may be purchasing or holding the same security. As a result, transactions executed for one account may adversely affect the value of securities held by another account. Additionally, the management of multiple accounts and Funds may give rise to potential conflicts of interest, as a portfolio manager must allocate time and effort to multiple accounts and Funds. A portfolio manager may discover an investment opportunity that may be suitable for more than one account or Fund. The investment opportunity may be limited, however, so that all accounts for which the investment would be suitable may not be able to participate. The Manager has adopted procedures designed to allocate investments fairly across multiple accounts.

A portfolio manager's management of personal accounts also may present certain conflicts of interest. While the Manager's Code of Ethics is designed to address these potential conflicts, there is no guarantee that it will do so.

Compensation Structure

Each portfolio manager's compensation consists of the following:

Base Salary. Each named portfolio manager receives a fixed base salary. Salaries are determined by a comparison to industry data prepared by third parties to ensure that portfolio manager salaries are in line with salaries paid at peer investment advisory firms.

Bonus. Each portfolio manager is eligible to receive an annual cash bonus which is based on quantitative and qualitative factors. The amount of the pool for bonus payments is first determined by mathematical equation based on assets, management fees and expenses, including fund waiver expenses, for registered investment companies, pooled vehicles, and managed separate accounts. Generally, approximately 80% of the bonus is quantitatively determined. For investment companies, each manager is compensated according the Fund's Lipper peer group percentile ranking on a one-year and three-year basis. For managed separate accounts the portfolio managers are compensated according to the composite percentile ranking in consultant databases. There is no objective award for a fund that falls below the 50th percentile for a given time period. There is a sliding scale for investment companies that are ranked above the 50th percentile. The managed separate accounts are compared to Callan and other databases. The remaining 20% portion of the bonus is discretionary as determined by Delaware and takes into account subjective factors.

Due to the transitioning of responsibilities of Mr. Early and Mr. Loomer, their bonus for the past year was guaranteed. It is anticipated that going forward an objective component will be added that is reflective of account performance relative to an appropriate peer group or database.

Deferred Compensation. Each named portfolio manager is eligible to participate in the Lincoln National Corporation Executive Deferred Compensation Plan, which is available to all employees whose income exceeds a designated threshold. The Plan is a non-qualified unfunded deferred compensation plan that permits participating employees to defer the receipt of a portion of their cash compensation.

Stock Option Incentive Plan/Equity Compensation Plan: Portfolio managers may be awarded options to purchase common shares of Delaware Investments U.S., Inc. pursuant to the terms the Delaware Investments U.S., Inc. Stock Option Plan (non-statutory or [non-qualified] stock options). In addition, certain managers may be awarded restricted stock units, or [performance shares], in Lincoln. Delaware Investments U.S., Inc., is an indirect subsidiary of DMH and, therefore, of Lincoln.

The Delaware Investments U.S., Inc. Stock Option Plan was established in 2001 in order to provide certain investment personnel of the Manager with a more direct means of participating in the growth of the investment manager. Under the terms of the plan, stock options typically vest in 25% increments on a four-year schedule and expire ten years after issuance. Options are awarded from time to time by the investment manager in its full discretion. Option awards may be based in part on seniority.

Portfolio managers who do not participate in the Delaware Investments U.S., Inc. Stock Option Plan are eligible to participate in Lincoln's Long-Term Incentive Plan, which is designed to provide a long-term incentive to officers of Lincoln. Under the plan, a specified number of performance shares are allocated to each unit and are awarded to participants in the discretion of their managers in accordance with recommended targets related to the number of employees in a unit that may receive an award and the number of shares to be awarded. The performance shares have a three year vesting schedule and, at the end of the three years, the actual number of shares distributed to those who received awards may be equal to, greater than or less than the amount of the award based on Lincoln's achievement of certain performance goals relative to a pre-determined peer group.

Other Compensation: Portfolio managers may also participate in benefit plans and programs available generally to all employees.

Ownership of Securities

As of November 30, 2007, none of the Fund's portfolio managers owned shares of the Fund.
