Explanation of Responses:

* If the form is filed by more than one reporting person, see Instruction 5(b)(v).

 Intentional misstatements or omissions of facts constitute Federal Criminal Violations. See 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 15 U.S.C. 78ff(a).

One fourth (1/4) of the shares subject to the Option shall vest on the first anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date (i.e. April 13, 2015), and one forty-eighth (1/48) of the shares subject to the Option shall vest each month thereafter on the same day of the month as the Vesting Commencement Date (and if there is no corresponding day, on the last day of the month), such that all of the shares subject to the

- (1) Option will have vested as of the fourth anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, subject to Participant continuing to be a Service Provider (as defined in the Plan) through each such date; provided, however, that if Participant is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason occurs within three (3) months prior to, or six (6) months following, a Change in Control of the Company, then one hundred percent (100%) of the Option shall immediately vest and become fully exercisable.

"Cause" means: (i) Participant's act of personal dishonesty in connection with his responsibilities as an employee that is intended to result in Participant's substantial personal enrichment; (ii) Participant being convicted of, or pleading no contest or guilty to, (x) a misdemeanor that the Company reasonably believes has had or will have a material detrimental effect on the Company, or (y) any felony; (iii)

- (2) Participant's gross misconduct; (iv) Participant's willful and continued failure to perform the duties and responsibilities of Participant's position after there has been delivered to Participant a written demand for performance from the Company that describes the basis for the Company's belief that Participant has not substantially performed Participant's duties and Participant has not corrected such failure within thirty (30) days of such written demand;
- (3) (Continued from footnote 2) or (v) Participant's material violation of any written Company employment policy or standard of conduct, including a material breach of the Participant's confidential information agreement.

"Good Reason" means Participant's resignation within thirty (30) days following the expiration of any Company cure period (discussed below) following the occurrence of one or more of the following, without Participant's consent: (i) a material reduction in Participant's Base Salary, excluding the substitution of substantially equivalent compensation and benefits, that is not generally applicable to all

- (4) Company senior management or employees of the Company generally; (ii) a material reduction of Participant's authority, duties or responsibilities, unless Participant is provided with a comparable position; provided, however, that a reduction in authority, duties, or responsibilities solely by virtue of the Company being acquired and made part of a larger entity whether as a subsidiary, business unit or otherwise (as, for example, when the Chief Executive Officer of the Company remains as such following an acquisition where the Company becomes a wholly owned subsidiary of the acquirer,
- (5) (Continued from footnote 4) but is not made the Chief Executive Officer of the acquiring corporation) will not constitute "Good Reason"; or (iii) a material change in the geographic location of Participant's primary work facility or location; provided, that a relocation of fifty (50) miles or less from Participant's then present location or to Participant's home as Participant's primary work location will not be considered a material change in geographic location. In order for an event to qualify as Good Reason, Participant must not terminate employment with the Company without first providing the Company with written notice of the acts or omissions constituting the grounds for "Good Reason" within ninety (90) days of the initial existence of the grounds for "Good Reason" and a reasonable cure period of not less than thirty (30) days following the date of such notice, and such grounds must not have been cured during such time.
