Our company, Nexia Holdings, Inc., is a Nevada corporation engaged in the business of real estate investment. We currently own and operate several buildings in the greater Salt Lake City, Utah area.

We plan to buy more investment properties which we believe are undervalued, compared to their cash flows and estimated resale value. Our acquisition strategy is to identify properties with favorable financing arrangements already in place, assume that financing, and satisfy any new down-payments with nominal cash payments or some combination of cash and our own common stock. We plan to sell our properties from time to time as favorable circumstances may permit.

SUMMARY

The following summary highlights the more detailed information and financial statements appearing elsewhere in this prospectus. It is only a summary, it is not complete and does not convey all of the information you should consider prior to investing in the common stock. We urge you to read the entire prospectus carefully, especially the risks of investing in our common stock as discussed in the "Risk Factors" section beginning on page 7.

Table of ContentsOUR BUSINESS

Nexia's current operations consist of the acquisition, leasing and selling of real estate. Nexia currently owns and operates a 38,000 square foot retail/office building, a 15,000 square foot office building, an 11,000 square foot office building and a 7,000 square foot retail building. All of these buildings are located in the greater Salt Lake City, Utah area.

THE OFFERING

Securities Offered.	5,000,000,000 shares of common stock.
Selling Shareholders.	Dutchess Private Equities Fund, L.P.
Shares of Common Stock Outstanding.	Before Offering	3,539,945,834
	After Offering	8,539,945,834

Nexia has entered into a series of investment agreements with Dutchess Private Equities Fund (the "Investment Agreement"); this agreement is also referred to as an equity line of credit. The Investment Agreement provides that, following notice to Dutchess, Nexia may put to Dutchess up to $10 million in shares of our common stock for a purchase price equal to 95% of the lowest closing best bid price on the Over-the-Counter ("OTC") Bulletin Board of our common stock during the five day period following that notice. The number of shares that we will be permitted to put pursuant to the Investment Agreement will be either: (a) 200% of the average daily volume of our common stock for the ten trading days prior to the applicable put notice, multiplied by the average of the three daily closing best bid prices immediately preceding the day we issue the put, or (b) $100,000; provided that in no event will the put amount be more than $1,000,000 with respect to any single put. In turn, Dutchess has indicated that it will resell the shares of common stock in the open market, resell our shares to other investors through negotiated transactions or hold our shares in its portfolio. This prospectus covers the resale of our shares of common stock by Dutchess either in the open market or to other investors through negotiated transactions.

Any investor purchasing Nexia's common stock during this registered offering is likely to suffer a dilution of his or her investment depending on how many of these securities are re-sold by Dutchess prior to the purchase by the investor. For more information on the dilutive effect of this offering, please see the discussions in this Prospectus at pages thirteen and fifteen.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the common stock the selling shareholders are offering to resell is risky. The stock offered in this prospectus inherently involves a high degree of risk, and you should carefully consider the possibility that you may lose your entire investment. Given this possibility, we encourage you to evaluate the following risk factors and all other information contained in this prospectus before buying the common stock of Nexia. Any of the following risks, alone or together, could adversely affect our business, our financial condition, or the results of our operations, and therefore the value of your Nexia common stock.

Table of Contents

Risks Related to Nexia's Business

Nexia's real estate investments are inherently risky and dependent on rental income.

Real estate investments are inherently risky. The value of a real estate investment company's stock depends largely on the rental income and the capital appreciation generated by the properties which the investment company owns. If our properties do not generate enough cash flow from rental income to meet operating expenses (such as debt service, capital expenditures and tenant improvements), our ability to develop our business and become profitable will be adversely affected.

Income from real estate investments may be adversely affected by a number of factors, including:

- $ the general economic climate and local real estate conditions (such as too much supply or too little demand for rental space, as well as changes in market rental rates);
- $ prospective tenants' perceptions of a building's safety, convenience and attractiveness, or the overall appeal of a particular building;
  - $ the property owner's ability to provide adequate management, maintenance and insurance;
    - $ expenses for periodically renovating, repairing and re-letting spaces;
- $ rising operating costs for our properties (including real estate taxes and utilities), which we may not be able to pass through to tenants because of their leases;
  - $ falling operating costs for competing properties, which would allow them to undercut our rental rates;
    - $ rising unemployment rates in the area, which may reduce the demand for rental space;
  - $ adverse changes in zoning laws, tax laws, or other laws affecting real estate or businesses in the area;
    - $ damage from earthquakes or other natural disasters;
    - $ mortgage interest rates and the availability of financing.

Some significant expenses associated with real estate investment (such as mortgage payments, real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance costs) are fixed and generally can not be reduced if circumstances cause lower rental incomes from a building. For example, if we can not meet the mortgage payments, we could lose some or all of our investment in a building due to foreclosure by the holder of the lien on the property.

Our real estate investments have limited liquidity and no certainty of capital appreciation.

Our real estate investments have limited liquidity. Real estate investments in general are relatively illiquid. Our ability to vary our portfolio in response to changes in economic and other conditions will be limited. We cannot ascertain whether we will be able to sell an investment when a sale would be advantageous or necessary. The sale price may not be enough to recoup the amount of our investment. Accordingly, Nexia can provide no assurance that the value of its properties will appreciate.

There are numerous uncertainties in estimating real estate values and prospective appreciation value. The estimated values set forth in appraisals are based on various comparisons to other property sales; predictions about market conditions such as demand, vacancy rates, prospective vacancy rates, renewal terms and other factors; assumptions about the property's condition, conformance with laws and regulations, absence of material defects; estimates of lease revenues and operating expenses; and other factors. Any significant change in these comparisons, predictions, assumptions, and estimates, most of which are beyond our control, could materially and adversely affect the market values and appreciation potential of our properties.

We compete with substantially larger companies to acquire suitable buildings.

The commercial real estate market is highly competitive. We compete with substantially larger companies for the acquisition, development and operation of properties that fit within the parameters of our business plan. Some of these companies are national or regional companies with far greater resources than ours. The presence of these competitors may significantly impede our business growth or survival.

Nexia 's ability to generate enough revenue to operate our business is dependent on the ability to attract tenants and ensure that tenants meet their lease obligations.

Our business would be severely affected if our current tenants fail to meet lease obligations or, if upon failure to meet lease obligations, we were unable to enter into new viable leases for the resulting vacant space. Further, if a tenant defaulted on a lease, we might experience a delay before the courts enforced our rights against the tenant. Our ability to lease the space during any court enforced action would be seriously impaired. Failure of a tenant's business through bankruptcy would also reduce or eliminate our revenue flow. We can provide no assurance that tenants will faithfully meet their lease obligations or that tenants will not be impaired through some form of business failure or otherwise.

Fixed costs cannot be reduced if circumstances lower rental incomes from a building.

Our ability to fund the fixed costs related to a building, such as mortgage payments, insurance costs, maintenance, security, landscaping and costs normally paid by a tenant occupying space in a building could not be paid by Nexia in the event that rental income from a building was lowered due to vacancy, bankruptcy of tenants or if competition for tenants depressed rental rates in the market for any building owned by Nexia.

Our ability to satisfy fixed operating costs that may rise over time cannot be reduced in response to any decrease in our rental income, or passed through to our tenants.

Our ability to satisfy fixed operating costs associated with our property could be seriously affected by any rise in expenses such as: mortgage payments, insurance, utilities, cleaning, ventilation, air-conditioning, security, landscaping, building repairs and maintenance. While our tenants must often pay a portion of these escalating costs, there can be no assurance that they will agree to any increase in current fixed costs or that any increase in tenant payments would cover increased operating costs. Our current fixed costs for any future time period cannot be reduced in response to any decrease in rental income, and our ability to operate would be severely affected by any increase in the costs associated with leasing our property.

The majority of Nexia's current real estate holdings are located in the Salt Lake City, Utah market making the Company vulnerable to changes in economic conditions in that market.

The majority of Nexia's current real estate holdings are located in the Salt Lake City, Utah market which creates a greater risk of harm from a downturn in that single market as compared to wider more diversified holdings in several geographic areas. Any significant change in the office or retail space in the Salt Lake City market will directly affect Nexia's real estate operations.

Nexia may invest in properties in other real estate markets outside of the Salt Lake City, Utah area where the Company may have no experience.

Nexia may make selected acquisitions or develop properties outside the area of its current focus of Salt Lake City, Utah as appropriate opportunities are located or as they may arise. The historical experience of Nexia is in the Salt Lake City market area, and management may not be able to operate successfully in other market areas. Some of the risks in operating in new market areas would include: a lack of market knowledge and understanding of the local economies, an inability to identify promising acquisition or development opportunities, an inability to obtain qualified development and maintenance personnel, and a lack of familiarity with local government and permitting procedures. Any of these factors could cause Nexia to incur costs greater than anticipated and limit the success of any acquisition and development that may be undertaken, which would reduce the Company's profitability and limit its growth.

Nexia expects to experience significant growth in the future and may not be able to adapt its management and operational systems to adequately integrate the additional properties and operations without unanticipated significant disruption or expense.

Nexia intends to make a significant number of investments in real estate over the next 36 months. As a result of the anticipated future growth, we cannot assure you that the Company will be able to adapt its management, administrative, accounting and operational systems or hire and retain sufficient operational staff to integrate the new properties into the Company and manage any future acquisitions of additional properties without operating disruptions or unanticipated costs. Any future acquisition will generate additional operating expenses that the Company will be required to pay. As Nexia acquires additional properties it will be subject to risks associated with managing new properties, including tenant retention and mortgage defaults. Acquisitions may additionally cause disruptions of operations and divert management's attention away from day-to-day operations, which could impair relationships with our current tenants and employees. Any failure to successfully integrate future property acquisitions into our portfolio could cause significant disruption or costs, which in turn could reduce the Company's cash flow and potential for profitability.

We are dependent on key personnel, specifically Richard Surber, and have no employment agreement with him.

We are dependent on the services of Richard Surber, our President. We do not have an employment agreement with Mr. Surber, and losing his services would likely have an adverse effect on our ability to conduct business. Mr. Surber serves as an Officer and Director of Nexia. Mr. Surber is currently employed by other businesses, and he will only allocate a portion of his time (estimated at an average of 35 hours per week) to the business of Nexia. Therefore, there is a risk that he might not devote enough time to Nexia in fulfilling our business plan. Further, Nexia has a limited number of full time employees.

Our ability to provide adequate management, maintenance and insurance.

To provide for adequate management, maintenance and insurance for the properties owned by Nexia, rental income will need to exceed the normal operating costs. Vacancies, falling rents, bankruptcy of tenants, unexpectedly higher maintenance costs or a loss not covered by insurance could adversely affect the ability of Nexia to provide adequate management, maintenance and insurance for its properties. If these services are not provided on an adequate basis, deterioration of the property would have a severely negative impact on Nexia.

Risks related to Nexia's and its predecessors' operating histories

The current focus of Nexia's business plan is to take advantage of the current boom in the United States' real estate market. In the current market, Nexia has not relied upon the sellers of real property to finance its real estate investments. Nexia has obtained the necessary funding on its own. However, Nexia and its predecessors have attempted in recent years to compete in other market trends which were not successful. For example, Nexia signed an agreement to acquire Creative Marketing Group, Inc. which holds a license to market coffee maker filters and ground coffee beans under the "Mr. Coffee" name. In another example, Nexia attempted to close on a manufacturing and repair company. In each of these situations, the executive management of Nexia and its predecessors was the same. In each of these failed attempts, Nexia attempted to acquire an existing business based on the incorrect information that the selling shareholder group would obtain the necessary financing to support the ongoing business of the franchise. Based upon past performance, there is the possibility that Nexia's executive management may in the future commit resources to an acquisition that ultimately proves to be unsound and damages the Company financially.

We will need new funding, which may not be available, in order to fully execute our real estate business plan.

Our real estate business planBbuying undervalued buildingsBwill depend on our ability to raise more money. Management and shareholders have not committed to provide new funding. Except for that funding we hope to obtain as a result of selling our common stock to Dutchess, as detailed in this prospectus, we have not investigated other sources, availability, or terms for new funding. There is no assurance that funding will be available from any source or, if available, that it can be obtained on acceptable terms. If we can not obtain new funding, our operations could be severely limited.

We cannot predict our future capital needs and may not be able to secure additional funding.

Nexia's management estimates that the Company's current "burn rate," the current rate at which expenses exceed revenue, is approximately $80,000 per month, or $960,000 per year. We will need to raise additional funds within the next six months in order to fund the current level of operations of the Company. We expect that the majority of these funds will come from the sale of our common shares to Dutchess or the sale or transfer of some of our preferred shares to private investors. Either method of funding could result in a significant dilution of ownership interests by the holders of our common stock.

Environmental liability could affect our real estate investments.

Various federal, state and local environmental laws make a real estate owner liable for the costs of removal or remediation of certain hazardous or toxic substances on a property. These laws often impose environmental liability regardless of whether the owner was responsible or knew of the presence of hazardous substances. The presence of hazardous substances, or the failure to properly remediate them, may adversely affect our ability to sell or rent a property or to borrow using the property as collateral. No assurance can be given that the environmental assessments of our properties revealed all environmental liabilities, or that a material, adverse environmental condition does not exist on our properties.

We may face an uninsured loss.

Owners of real estate are subject to certain types of losses such as civil disturbance or pollution, which are either uninsurable or too expensive to insure. If an uninsured loss or a loss in excess of insured limits occurs, Nexia's investment in our real properties, as well as anticipated future revenues could be lost. Meanwhile, obligations on any mortgage debt for the properties would continue. Accordingly, any uninsured loss could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operation.

Table of Contents

The Americans With Disabilities Act and similar legislation may increase our costs.

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1980 (ADA) requires that commercial facilities and places of public accommodation be accessible to disabled people. A number of additional federal, state and local laws impose other requirements on owners concerning access by disabled people. We may need to make both structural and non-structural changes to our property in order to comply with the ADA and similar laws. Noncompliance could result in government fines or an award of damages to a private litigant. We have not been informed that any of our properties fail to comply with such laws. However, we may incur costs, which we cannot fully ascertain now, to ensure compliance in the future. While we do not expect the prospective costs of compliance to have a material effect on our operations, a potential for substantial costs exists. If changes are required, our financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

We do not expect to pay dividends for some time, if at all.

No dividends have been paid on the common stock in the past three years. We expect that any income received from operations will be devoted to costs of operations and growth. We do not expect to pay cash dividends in the near future. Payment of dividends would depend upon the company's profitability at the time, cash available for those dividends and other factors.

The Series B Preferred Stock held by Richard Surber creates an anti-takeover or change of control limitation.

The eight million shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by Richard Surber provide him with voting control over any proposal requiring a vote of the shareholders. Such an event would include a vote by the board of directors to conduct a reverse split of the common stock. This effectively gives him a veto over any attempt to take over or change control of the Company. The shares held by Mr. Surber thus have a strong anti-takeover effect. Their issuance was to compensate Mr. Surber for serving as the personal guarantor of the loans used to acquire the majority of the real estate holdings currently under the Company's control.

Risks Related to Investment

Richard Surber currently holds voting control of Nexia through his ownership of voting preferred stock.

Through Mr. Surber's ownership of 8,000,000 shares of the Series B Preferred Stock of the Company, he holds voting rights equal to 4,000,000,000 shares of common stock. Currently, 3,539,945,834 shares of common stock are issued and outstanding. Mr. Surber holds voting control of any issue presented to the shareholders for a vote of the common stock. His interests may not always conform to the interests of the common stockholders, in general, and thus his voting rights may not always be exercised in the best interests of the common stockholders of the Company.

Nexia expects the price of its common stock to be volatile. As a result, investors could suffer greater market losses in a down market than they might experience with a more stable stock. Volatility in our stock may also increase the risk of having to defend a securities class action suit, which could be expensive and divert management's attention from managing Nexia's business.

The market price of Nexia's common shares has been subject to wide fluctuations in response to several factors, such as:

Table of Contents

- Significant dilution
- Actual or anticipated variation in the results of operations
  - Announcements of acquisitions
  - Changes in the areas of operations of the company
- Conditions and trends in the real estate market in Salt Lake City, Utah and nationally

The stock markets generally, and the OTC Bulletin Board in particular, have experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that are often unrelated and disproportionate to the operating performance of a particular company. These market fluctuations, as well as general economic, political and market conditions such as recessions or interest rate or international currency fluctuations, may adversely affect the market for the common stock of the company. In the past, class action litigation has often been brought against companies after periods of volatility in the market price of their securities. If such a class action suit is brought against the company it could result in substantial costs and a diversion of management's attention and resources, which would hurt business operations.

Dutchess will pay less than the then-prevailing market price of our common stock, which may cause our stock price to decline.

The common stock to be issued under our agreement with Dutchess will be purchased at a 5% discount to the lowest closing bid price for the five days immediately following our notice to Dutchess of our election to exercise our put right. These discounted sales could cause the price of our Common Stock to decline, and you may not be able to sell our stock for more than you paid for it.

Our stock value is dependent on our ability to generate net cash flows.

A large portion of any potential return on our common stock will be dependent on our ability to generate net cash flows.

If we can not operate our commercial property at a net profit, there will be no return on shareholders' equity, and this could result in a loss of share value. No assurance can be given that we will be able to operate at a net profit now or in the future.

Our common stock value may decline after the offering.

Sales of our common stock in the public market following this offering could lower the market price of our common stock. The sales may also make it more difficult for the company or its investors to sell current securities in the future at a time and price that the company or its current investors deem acceptable or even to sell such securities at all. The risk factors discussed in this "Risk Factors" section may significantly affect the market price of our stock. The low price of our stock may result in many brokerage firms declining to deal in our stock. Even if a buyer finds a broker willing to effect a transaction in our common stock, the combination of brokerage commissions, state transfer taxes, if any, and other selling costs may exceed the selling price. Further, many lending institutions will not permit the use of this stock as collateral for loans. Thus, you may be unable to sell or otherwise realize the value of your investment in our stock.

The number of shares to be made available through this registration statement could encourage short sales by third parties, which could contribute to a future decline in the price of our stock.

In our circumstances, the provision of a large number of common shares to be sold to Dutchess has the potential to cause a significant downward pressure on the price of common stock, such as ours, that is traded on the OTC Bulletin Board. This would be especially true if the shares being placed into the market exceeds the market's ability to take up the increased number of shares or if the Company has not performed in such a manner to encourage additional investment in the market place. Such events could place further downward pressure on the price of the common stock. As a result of the number of shares that could be placed with Dutchess, an opportunity exists for short sellers and others to contribute to the future decline of Nexia's stock price. Persons engaged in short-sales first sell shares that they do not own and, thereafter, purchase shares to cover their previous sales. To the extent the stock price declines between the time the person sells the shares and subsequently purchases the shares, the person engaging in short-sales will profit from the transaction, and the greater the decline in the stock price the greater the profit to the person engaging in such short-sales. If there are significant short-sales of our stock, the price decline that would result from this activity will cause our share price to decline even further, which could cause any existing shareholders of our stock to sell their shares creating additional downward pressure on the price of the shares. It is not possible to predict how much the share price may decline should a short sale occur. In the case of some companies that have been subjected to short-sales the stock price has dropped to near zero. This could happen to Nexia.

Our shareholders may face significant restrictions on the resale of our stock due to state "blue Sky" laws.

Each state has its own securities laws, often called "blue sky laws," which (1) limit sales of stock to a state's residents unless the stock is registered in that state or qualifies for an exemption from registration and (2) govern the reporting requirements for broker-dealers and stock brokers doing business directly or indirectly in the state. Before a security is sold in a state, there must be a registration in place to cover the transaction, or it must be exempt from registration. Also, the broker must be registered in that state. We do not know whether our stock will be registered, or exempt, under the laws of any states. A determination regarding registration will be made by the broker-dealers, if any, who agree to serve as the market-makers for our stock. There may be significant state blue sky law restrictions on the ability of investors to sell, and on purchasers to buy, our stock.

You should consider the resale market for our securities to be limited. Shareholders may be unable to resell their stock, or they may be unable to resell it without the significant expense of state registration or qualification.

Our stock may be subject to significant restrictions on resale due to federal penny stock regulations.

Our stock differs from many stocks because it is a "penny stock." The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") has adopted a number of rules to regulate penny stocks. These rules require that a broker or dealer, prior to entering into a transaction with a customer, must furnish certain information related to the penny stock. The information that must be disclosed includes quotes on the bid and offer, any form of compensation to be received by the broker in connection with the transaction and information related to any cash compensation paid to any person associated with the broker or dealer.

These rules may affect your ability to sell our shares in any market that may develop for Nexia stock. Should a market for our stock develop among dealers, it may be inactive. Investors in penny stocks are often unable to sell stock back to the dealer that sold it to them. The mark-ups or commissions charged by broker-dealers may be greater than any profit a seller can make. Because of large dealer spreads, investors may be unable to sell the stock immediately back to the dealer at the same price the dealer sold it to them. In some cases, the stock value may fall quickly. Investors may be unable to gain any profit from any sale of the stock, if they can sell it at all.

Potential investors should be aware that, according to the SEC Release No. 34-29093, the market for penny stocks has suffered in recent years from patterns of fraud and abuse. These patterns include:

Table of Contents

- control of the market for the security by one or a few broker-dealers that are often related to the promoter or issuer;
- manipulation of prices through prearranged matching of purchases and sales and false and misleading press releases;
- "boiler room" practices involving high pressure sales tactics and unrealistic price projections by inexperienced sales persons;
  - excessive and undisclosed bid-ask differentials and markups by selling broker-dealers; and
- the wholesale dumping of the same securities by promoters and broker-dealers after prices have been manipulated to a desired level, along with the inevitable collapse of those prices with consequent investor losses.

Investors must contact a broker-dealer to trade over-the-counter bulletin board securities. As a result, you may not be able to buy or sell our securities at the times you may wish.

Even though our securities are quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board, they may not permit our investors to sell securities when and in the manner that they wish. Because there are no automated systems for negotiating trades on the OTC Bulletin Board, they are conducted via telephone. In times of heavy market volume, the limitations of this process may result in a significant increase in the time it takes to execute investor orders. When investors place market orders to buy or sell a specific number of shares at the current market price it is possible for the price of a stock to go up or down significantly during the lapse of time between placing a market order and its execution.

If we fail to remain current on the reporting requirements that apply to Nexia, we could be removed from the OTC Bulletin Board which would limit the ability of broker-dealers to sell our securities and the ability of stockholders to sell their securities.

Companies trading on the OTC Bulletin Board, such as Nexia, must be reporting issuers under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and must be current in their reports under Section 13, in order to maintain price quotation privileges on the OTC Bulletin Board. If we fail to remain current on our reporting requirements, shares of our common stock could be removed from the OTC Bulletin Board. As a result of that removal, the market liquidity for our securities could be severely adversely affected by limiting the ability of broker-dealers to sell our securities and the ability of stockholders to sell their securities in the secondary market.

Investors may experience an immediate and significant dilution of their interest if any securities registered hereunder are sold.

"Dilution" represents the difference between the offering price and the net tangible book value per share immediately after completing this offering. "Net tangible book value" is the amount that results from subtracting total liabilities and intangible assets from total assets. Dilution is caused primarily by our arbitrary determination of the offering price for the shares detailed in this prospectus. Dilution also occurs because of the lower book value of the shares held by our existing shareholders.

As of September 30, 2005, the net tangible book value of our shares of common stock was $545,354 or approximately $0.0002 per share, based on 3,539,945,834 shares outstanding.

Table of Contents

Upon completion of this offering, if 100% of the offered shares are sold, the net tangible book value of the 8,539,945,834 shares to be outstanding will be $5,555,354 or approximately $0.0007 per share. The net tangible book value of the shares held by our existing stockholders will increase by $0.0005 per share without any additional investment on their part. You would experience an immediate dilution from $0.0010 per share to $0.0007 per share.

Dutchess may not buy all or any of our common stock.

The possibility exists that we will not sell any of the securities to Dutchess detailed in this offering; or that we will sell only a limited number of securities. Nexia has incurred expenses related to this offering. The offering expenses are to be paid from the proceeds of the offering or the sales to Dutchess. Should Nexia fail to sell, or should Dutchess fail to buy any securities or only a limited number of securities as offered, then offering costs would be paid from our operating budget. The addition of this financial obligation to the operating budget of Nexia would have a negative impact on our ability to continue our operations.

DETERMINATION OF OFFERING PRICE

The shares of Nexia common stock are being offered for sale by the selling stockholder at prices established on the OTC Bulletin Board or in negotiated transactions during the term of this offering. These prices will fluctuate based on the demand for the shares.

DILUTION

"Dilution" represents the difference between the offering price and the net tangible book value per share immediately after completing this offering. "Net tangible book value" is the amount that results from subtracting total liabilities and intangible assets from total assets. Dilution arises mainly because we have arbitrarily determined the offering price for the shares offered in this prospectus. Dilution also occurs because of the lower book value of the shares held by our existing stockholders.

These calculations are assumptions based upon an estimate of prices and sales that may never be realized. Actual prices to be paid by Dutchess to the Company will not be determined until the time of sale. All of the following information is premised upon those assumptions and estimated prices. Actual results may vary materially from those presented in the following information as a result of the sale and transfer of the shares registered hereunder.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Selling Shareholder has told us they intend to sell the common stock covered by this prospectus from time to time in the OTC Bulletin Board market or in any other market where our shares of common stock are quoted. The Selling Shareholder, or brokers, dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the common stock, may be deemed to be underwriters, and any discounts on the sale of common stock by them and any discounts, concessions, or commissions they receive may be deemed to be underwriter discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares of common stock may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. We will inform the Selling Shareholder that any underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents effecting transactions on behalf of the selling shareholder must be registered to sell securities in all 50 states. In addition, in some states the shares of common stock may not be sold unless the shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and there is compliance with those exemptions.

Nexia will pay all the expenses of the registration, offering, and sale of the shares of common stock to the public under this prospectus other than commissions, fees, and discounts of underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents. We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Shareholder and their controlling persons against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act. We estimate the expenses of the offering, to be borne by Nexia, will be approximately $80,000. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock by the Selling Shareholder. We will, however, receive proceeds from the sale of common stock to Dutchess pursuant to the Investment Agreement.

The Selling Shareholder should be aware that the anti-manipulation provisions of Regulation M under the Exchange Act will affect purchases and sales of common stock by the selling shareholder and that there are restrictions on market-making activities by persons engaged in the distribution of the shares. Under Regulation M, the Selling Shareholder or its agents may not bid for or purchase, or attempt to induce any person to bid for or purchase, shares of our common stock while they are distributing shares covered by this prospectus. Accordingly, except as noted below, the selling shareholder is not permitted to cover short sales or purchasing shares while the distribution is taking place. We will advise the Selling Shareholder that if a particular offer of common stock is to be made on terms materially different from the information set forth in the above Plan of Distribution, that a post-effective amendment to the accompanying registration statement must be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The following civil actions may have a material impact on Nexia:

Richard D. Surber, Individually and Hudson Consulting Group, Inc., a Nevada Corporation vs. Richard A. Bailey and Florian R. Ternes, Individually, Gateway Distributors, Inc., a Nevada Corporation and Worldwide Holdings Delaware Corp., a Delaware corporation, f/k/a TRSG Corporation. Suit was filed on October 8, 2004 in the Third Judicial District Court of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, Civil Case No. 040921072. The complaint was filed on behalf of Mr. Surber and Hudson Consulting Group, Inc. seeking recovery for unpaid obligations owed to Hudson by the named defendants, some of which are represented by a promissory note in the face amount of $175,000 and for damages alleged to have been caused by the fraudulent actions of the named defendants which have caused injury to both Hudson and to Mr. Surber personally. Defendants have been served and all but one has filed an appearance with the court in which they have denied liability. Worldwide Holdings Delaware Corp. has failed to make an appearance and a default has been requested from the court against that corporation. The Company has prepared a Motion for Summary Judgment and filed it with the Court.

Nexia Holdings, Inc., a Nevada Corporation vs. Richard Bailey, Individually and Creative Marketing Group, Inc., a Nevada Corporation. This action was filed on September 28, 2004, in the Third Judicial District Court of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, Civil Case No. 040920424. Nexia filed this cause of action to recover its damages that resulted from the failure of the named defendants to perform the terms and conditions of a Stock Purchase Agreement and Plan of Reorganization signed on or about November 10, 2003. This agreement provided for Nexia to acquire a controlling interest in the defendant corporation which the Defendants have subsequently failed and refused to perform, despite Nexia having tendered full performance on its part. Both defendants were served with process in the case and failed to make an appearance before the Court; entry of default against each defendant has been signed by the court. Development of information to establish the amount of damages suffered by Nexia is currently being gathered and after presentation to the court, a final judgment is expected for Nexia in an amount yet to be determined.

Hallmark Construction & Development, L.L.C. v. Wasatch Capital Corporation, Community First National Bank, CUBCO, Inc. and John Does 1-10. Action was filed on or about August 18, 2005, in the Third Judicial District Court of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, Civil Case No. 050914860. Hallmark Construction & Development LLC has filed suit against Wasatch Capital Corporation seeking collection of $92,000 in alleged unpaid construction costs for the improvements and work provided on the Wallace/Bennett buildings owned by Wasatch Capital. Wasatch has responded with a demand that, as provided in the underlying contract, the matters in dispute between the parties be submitted to arbitration. Wasatch denies that it is currently indebted to Hallmark for any services or work provided for the improvement of the said buildings and believes that it has actions for damages against Hallmark.

Richard Surber has at various times been appointed to serve as an officer or director for some clients of Nexia. These appointments have been disclosed to the disinterested members of the board and the approval of the board of directors has been granted in each of these cases. As payment for services provided to these corporations, Surber has received securities of those corporations, and these transactions have been disclosed to the board of directors in each case.

Mr. Surber is licensed to practice law in the State of California and occasionally represents corporate clients on various corporate matters. Mr. Surber has disclosed the fact that he, on occasion, does act as counsel to several companies for which he receives fees for the legal services provided.

On January 29, 2004 the Company, and/or its subsidiaries entered the following agreements to settle debts and obligations with Axia Group, Inc., a related party of which Richard Surber, President of the Company, also served as an officer and director:

- Diversified Holdings I, Inc. accepted the assignment of certain rights to securities with a stated value of $50,000 due in the settlement of Axia's litigation claim against America West Securities and Robert Kay.
- Diversified Holdings, I, Inc. also accepted an assignment of Axia's rights (presently being litigated) against Kevin Sheff for the recovery of 10,000 post-split shares of Axia Group, Inc.'s common stock.
- As settlement of compensation due under a May 2, 2003 Consultant Agreement with Hudson Consulting Group, Inc., Axia Group Inc. transferred 9,100,012 shares of Nexia common stock to Hudson.
- Signed a full release and settlement of all claims against Axia Group, Inc. held by, Nexia Holdings, Inc., Wasatch Capital, Inc., Hudson Consulting Group, Inc. and West Jordan Real Estate Holdings, Inc.

The end result of the agreements was to resolve and settle all claims against Axia Group, Inc. held by the named entities, all subsidiaries of Nexia Holdings, Inc. Richard Surber, President of the Company, was formerly an officer and director of Axia Group, Inc. The purpose of the above described transaction was to settle the various claims and resolve the debts and obligations that existed between Axia and the Company and its subsidiaries.

On September 28, 2004 the Company authorized the issuance of 8,000,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to the president of the Company, Richard Surber. The shares were issued as compensation for both his service as president of the Company and for acting as a guarantor on real estate mortgages for subsidiaries of the Company. The shares were issued in a private transfer exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933. This issuance was reported on a Form 8-K filing made on September 28, 2004.

During 2002, the CEO and president of the Company, received 1,570,513 shares of Axia, a related party, as additional collateral for the loans he personally guaranteed for the Company's subsidiary. Later in 2002, the Company refinanced the loan and he kept the shares issued to him. The shares have been expensed as loan fees and were valued at $0.26 per share which was the trading price for Axia for a total value of $408,333 and is considered a payable to Axia. The shares were later returned for cancellation.

In the first quarter of 2002, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement ("Agreement") with Axia Group, Inc. ("Axia"), pursuant to which the Company issued to Axia 255,100,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock in exchange for essentially all of the assets and liabilities of Axia including a portfolio of securities, real estate holdings and publicly reporting shell-companies. The shares issued to Axia equaled approximately 82% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company after the close of the transaction. Axia on December 10, 2002 spun-off those 255,100,000 shares of the Company's common stock to Axia's shareholders on a pro rata basis. This transaction was first reported in the Company's Form 8-K filed on February 26, 2002.

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

This prospectus contains forward-looking statements which involve risks and uncertainties, including trends in the real estate investment market, projected leasing and sales and future prospects. Actual results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, those discussed in "Risk Factors."

General

Nexia's general area of business at the current time is the acquisition, management and selling of commercial real estate properties in the greater Salt Lake City, Utah area.

Discontinued Operations

The Company, through its subsidiary, Hudson Consulting Group, Inc., formerly provided a variety of financial consulting services to a wide range of clients. The Company in 2004 elected to discontinue those services by Hudson and concentrate its efforts on the execution of the core of its business plan.

Overview of the Salt Lake City Real Estate Market

Our decision to invest in Salt Lake area properties was influenced by several factors, including the following: the significant growth of retail sales in the city; increased interest in Salt Lake from specialty retailers; relatively low vacancy rates for retail space in the area; estimated slowdowns in the rate of new retail space construction; and Utah economic indicators pointing to above-average retail sales.

Significant Growth. According to the Mid-Year 2005 Market Review of Commerce CRG published by national real estate broker Cushman & Wakefield, the Salt Lake City office market "posted particularly dramatic gains, with a ten percent drop in overall vacancy since the end of last year and the highest levels of absorption seen since 2001." The overall vacancy rate declined to 13.72% in July of 2005, a 10% drop from year-end figures. The likely closing of a major office center in the central business district is expected to reduce available space by 33% and could provide additional impetus for the construction of new projects. Salt Lake City has, during the recent past, attracted new attention from national tenants seeking space in the area.

These reported trends have not, however, lead to increased occupancy in Class C office buildings or retail space which would cover the holdings of Nexia at the present time, excluding a portion of the Wallace building that we own which is Class A office space. Vacancies in such buildings have remained much higher as the higher class buildings have completed tenant improvements to their space to attract new tenants, Class C vacancy rates were reported at 27.05% for the first six months of 2005 compared to an overall vacancy rate of 15.04% for the central business district. However, for retail space, lease rates for Class A space have reached record highs and may encourage new retailers to move into Class B and C spaces with their lower lease rates.

All of the retail space in the Wallace/Bennett buildings owned by our subsidiary Wasatch Capital is currently leased. A 2,500 square foot portion of a total of 7,000 square feet of the retail space in the buildings located at 1374 South State Street is leased and the balance is unoccupied at this time. The balance of the Company's holdings in the Salt Lake City market are of office or studio space. Plans have been made to improve the vacant spaces and ready them for more aggressive marketing.

Our Plan to Acquire and to Sell Commercial Properties

Our business plan is to buy more properties that we believe are undervalued compared to their cash flows and estimated resale value. We plan to acquire sufficient inventory of commercial rental properties that revenues will increase to provide for operating costs of all property held by the Company and allow for future sales and acquisitions as opportunities are found or developed.

Our strategy is to identify properties with a favorable financing arrangement already in place, assume that financing, and satisfy any new down-payment with a relatively nominal cash payment. We plan to lease primarily to commercial tenants. We are prepared to make limited improvements to our properties so that we can increase occupancy, improve cash flows, and enhance potential resale value. We do not plan to limit the geographical area in which we buy properties; however, given our current financial condition, we will most likely seek properties in the Salt Lake City area.

From time to time, we will sell our commercial properties when favorable market conditions enable us to do so. While we are actively seeking tenants for all our properties, our real estate agents are also seeking buyers for those properties. Our goal ultimately is to maximize profits and not necessarily to be landlords.

Employees

Nexia currently employees six people on a full time basis and from time to time hires outside contractors to perform various services as required by the operations of the Company.

Reports to Security Holders

We are not required to deliver an annual report to security holders and do not plan to send a copy of the annual report to them. If we choose to create an annual report, it will contain audited financial statements. We intend to file all required information with the SEC. We plan to file with the SEC our Forms 10KSB, 10QSB and all other forms that are or may become applicable to us.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the Financial Statements and accompanying notes and the other financial information appearing elsewhere in this prospectus. Our fiscal year end is December 31.

General

Our business plan for the next twelve months involves the continued operation of our office buildings in Salt Lake City, Utah coupled with our ongoing attempts to locate and acquire additional commercial space in the greater Salt Lake area and elsewhere and to locate suitable buyers for the properties as the circumstances may permit.

Results of Operations

Revenues

Year ended December 31, 2004. Gross revenues for the fiscal year December 31, 2004 and 2003 were $634,089 and $787,585 respectively. The decrease in revenues is due in part to a decrease in rental revenues as a result of the divestiture of Wichita Development Corporation and Salt Lake Development Corporation in July of 2003 which were two of our operating real estate subsidiaries, and a decrease in financial consulting revenues.

Nine months ended September 30, 2005. Gross revenues for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2005, were $46,880 and $254,702 as compared to $185,647 and $489,091 for the same three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2004. The reduction in three and nine month revenues of $138,767 and $234,389 respectively is due to the reduction in revenue realized from the sale of real estate holdings and the ending of consulting revenue.

Expenses

Year ended December 31, 2004. General and administrative expenses for December 31, 2004 and 2003 were $1,808,456 and $710,304, respectively. The increase in expenses is partially a result of the expenses incurred by the Company from its use of stock and stock options as a form of compensation for its employees, consultants and contractors and increases in the number of employees during the year, which have subsequently been reduced.

Nine months ended September 30, 2005. General and administrative expenses for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2005, were $165,860 and $717,314 compared to $192,955 and $1,052,374 for the same periods in 2004. The decreases in three and nine month expenses of $27,095, or 14%, and $335,060, or 31.8%, respectively are due primarily to the continued reductions in staff and operating expenses for the Company during 2005 compared to the comparable period in 2004.

Depreciation and amortization expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2005, was $93,145 compared to $99,574 for same period in 2004. The decrease in the nine month expense of $6,429, or 6.5%, were the result of the sale of the Glendale Plaza property in April of 2005.

Nexia expects expenses as a percent of revenues to remain constant or decrease through 2005 as Nexia steps up its effort to streamline operations and eliminate non-performing assets as well as acquire additional properties and decrease expenses through the elimination of its financial consulting operations.

Income / Losses

Year ended December 31, 2004. Nexia recorded an operating loss of $3,493,029 at December 31, 2004, as compared to an operating loss of $1,107,042 at December 31, 2003. Nexia recorded a net loss of $3,004,155 for December 31, 2004, compared to a net loss of $901,825 for December 31, 2003. Nexia's losses increased as a result of the reduced level of financial consulting operations and losses incurred from the use of stock and stock options as compensation for the majority of its employees.

Nine months ended September 30, 2005. Nexia recorded operating losses of $208,494 and $839,306 for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2005, compared to losses of $390,041 and $1,798,694 for the comparable periods in the year 2004. The decreases in three and nine month operating losses of $181,547, or 46.5%, and $959,388, or 53.3%, respectively were the result of the reduction of general and administrative costs, reduction of costs from discontinued consulting activities and limited losses resulting from worthless marketable securities in 2005 compared to 2004.

Nexia recorded net losses of $242,941 and $3,802 for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2005, as compared to net losses of $301,576 and $1,450,812 for the comparable periods in 2004. The reduction in the amount of net losses, reported above, is attributable primarily to the gain recognized on the sale of the Glendale shopping center in the amount of $756,471 and income from settlement of litigation totaling $181,500. The Company also recorded a decrease in expenses as a result of issuing fewer shares of common stock for services rendered by employees and contractors during the first nine months of 2005.

Nexia may not operate at a profit through fiscal 2005. Since Nexia's activities are tied to its ability to operate its real estate properties at a profit, future profitability or its revenue growth tends to follow changes in the real estate market. There can be no guarantee that profitability or revenue growth can be realized in the future.

Impact of Inflation

The Company believes that inflation may have a negligible effect on future operations. The Company believes that it may be able to offset inflationary increases in the cost of revenue by increasing revenue and improving operating efficiencies.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

On September 30, 2005, Nexia had current assets of $651,660 and $4,087,985 in total assets compared to current assets of $565,834 and total assets of $4,006,060 as of December 31, 2004. Nexia had net working capital deficit of $598,345 at September 30, 2005 as compared to a net working capital deficit of $51,335 at December 31, 2004. The decrease in working capital is due primarily to the classification as a current liability of the loan on the Wallace and Bennett building held by Wasatch Capital Corporation due to a short term construction loan in the amount of approximately $280,000 of the total mortgage balance of $827,913 maturing in May of 2006.

Nine months ended September 30, 2005. Net cash provided by operating activities was $366,056 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005, compared to net cash used by operating activities of $63,665 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004. The increase of cash provided in the sum of $429,721 resulted primarily from reduced expenses and profit from the Glendale Plaza sale during the nine month period ended September 30, 2005.

Cash used in investing activities was $269,284 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005, compared to cash used by investing activities of $303,951 for the comparable nine month period in 2004. The decrease of $34,667 was primarily the result of the Glendale Plaza sale during the nine month period ended September 30, 2005.

Cash provided by financing activities was $14,224 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005, compared to cash provided of $367,058 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004. The decrease of $352,834 was due primarily to the pay off of the mortgage note payable on the Glendale Plaza during the nine months ended September 30, 2005.

Due to Nexia's debt service on real estate holdings and willingness to acquire properties with negative cash flow shortages, Nexia may experience occasional cash flow shortages. To cover these shortages we may need to issue shares of common stock in payment for services rendered. The Company is currently experiencing challenges with regard to cash flows. We are looking at several options to improve this situation, including having negotiated for an equity line of credit with Dutchess, as set forth herein.

The following is a summary schedule of stockholders' equity and changes, for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and 2004. The numbers show the effect of the November 1, 2004 reverse split.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

Location and Description

Wasatch Capital Corporation ("Wasatch")

Wasatch, a 99% owned subsidiary of Nexia, owns the Wallace-Bennett Building, located at 55-65 West 100 South, Salt Lake City, Utah. The building is a 36,797 square foot, turn-of-the-century multi-story office building. At the beginning of the year 2004 only the ground level was suitable for rent as retail space. The ground level comprises 7,816 square feet or 21% of the Building. A portion of this space is currently leased to Richard Wirick, the owner of the Oxford Shoe Shop, a retail outlet for men's shoes, for a monthly rental of $1,245 for 1350 square feet. A lounge occupies 1,900 square feet of the ground floor retail space at a monthly rental of $ 2,533.34 for the first year of a five year term ending February 28, 2010. A restaurant and an art gallery occupy the balance of the ground floor space. The average annual effective rental for the rentable ground level space is $15.00 per square foot or $117,240 in gross rental income.

In late 2004, the Company occupied a portion of the second floor as its main offices for which remodeling work was mostly completed during the year ended 2004. The Company occupies a total of 3,600 square feet and has space that includes a conference room and office space for the legal, accounting and executive employees of the Company. The renovations of the second floor incurred expenses totaling approximately $500,000 as of September 30, 2005.

In early 2003, Wasatch refinanced the main loan on the Wallace-Bennett Building. The terms of this loan package provided for a loan in the total amount of $850,000, an interest rate on the loan of 7.5%, with monthly payments of $8,800. The loan has a term of three years, resulting in a due date of May 10, 2006. The loan was personally guaranteed by Richard D. Surber, Nexia's President and C.E.O. Of the loan proceeds $202,920 has been set aside for construction or capital improvements to the buildings securing the loan, all of which have been utilized during the second floor renovation and other upgrades to the building. Wasatch intends to improve the remaining upper floor space as office space, studio locations and production space for low impact business. The balance due on the existing note on June 30, 2005 was $848,485.

Table of ContentsDowntown Development, Corp. ("DDC")

DDC, a 99.08% owned subsidiary of Nexia, owns a one story retail building located at 1374 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, which it purchased on December 1, 1999 for $535,000. The balance on the financing owing at December 15, 2005 was $366,032. The building was appraised at $600,000 in November of 2002. In December of 2002, DDC obtained permanent financing with Community First National Bank; the loan bears interest at the rate of 7.16% per annum, with monthly payments of $3,061. The loan was personally guaranteed by Richard D. Surber, Nexia's President and C.E.O. The building is 7,000 square feet, one story tall and constructed in the late 1960's. A bakery currently occupies 2,500 square feet of retail space under a lease in the building. DDC expended $34,100 through March 31, 2004 in renovations to the space occupied by the bakery in the property. This figure does not include substantial improvements made by the tenant to the same portion of the property. The balance of the space in the building is currently not occupied and the search for a tenant is ongoing. DDC believes the property is adequately insured. The retail space in the building competes for tenants with other retail space on State Street which is a commercial zone for over one mile in each direction from the property. On December 23, 2004 a Second Deed of Trust was granted against this property in favor of Joseph Corso, Jr. as security for a debenture granted to Mr. Corso in the sum of $200,000.

Kearns Development Corporation. ("Kearns")

Kearns, a 90.7% owned subsidiary of Nexia, owns one office building located on West Sams Boulevard in Kearns, Utah (a suburb of the Greater Salt Lake area). The building contains approximately 11,709 square feet of total floor space in a single story. The building was purchased on November 29, 2000 for a total price of $750,000. The purchase was financed with a $625,000 first mortgage from Brighton Bank with an initial variable rate of 10.97% amortized over 25 years and monthly payments of $5,632. The loan was personally guaranteed by Richard D. Surber, Nexia's President and C.E.O. This property was refinanced on January 10, 2003, $660,000 by Community First Bank, at an interest rate of 7.16%. Monthly payments are $5,223 based upon a 20 year amortization with a balloon payment of the remaining balance due on January 10, 2013. The balance owing on this loan as of December 15, 2005 was $621,363. At the time of the refinancing, the building was appraised at $980,000.

The building is leased to two major tenants occupying 67% of the office space and generating monthly rentals of $7,873 at an average rate of $12.10 per square foot, the gross annual rental income from the building is $94,476. Kearns has no present plans to renovate or improve the building. Management believes that the building is adequately insured. The building competes for tenants with other office space in the Kearns area.

Salt Lake Development, Inc. ("SLD")

SLD, a 98% owned subsidiary of Diversified Holdings I, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexia, owns an office building located at 268 West 400 South in Salt Lake City, Utah. Diversified Holdings I, Inc. acquired a controlling interest in SLD through the release and settlement of debt owed by SLD's former parent corporation, Diversified Financial Resources Corporation and a cash payment of $20,000. The building is two stories with 15,000 (14,347 net rentable) square feet of office space. SLD originally purchased the property on March 6, 1998, by exercising its option to purchase the property through the payment of $418,762. SLD financed the purchase price and borrowed an additional sum of $222,489, which is secured by the property. At December 15, 2005, the outstanding debt on the property was $547,012. The building is currently vacant and competes with other office space in the central business district of Salt Lake City. SLD is of the opinion that this property is adequately covered by insurance. Agreements have been entered into to market the property for sale and sales efforts are being currently conducted. The building was appraised in August of 1998 for $910,000.

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT POLICIES

A. Organization

Nexia Holdings, Inc. (Nexia or The Company) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Colorado on April 20, 1987 as Metropolitan Acquisition Corporation. The name of the Company has changed several times, most recently, to Kelly's Coffee Group, Inc. (Kelly's) on April 22, 1994, and finally to Nexia Holdings, Inc. on March 15, 2002. Nexia became a development stage company on March 1, 1998.

On October 5, 2000, Nexia merged with a Nevada corporation with the same name, effectively changing its state of domicile from Colorado to Nevada and its authorized common stock from 100,000,000 shares with $.001 par value to 1,000,000,000 shares with $.001 par value.

On February 15, 2002, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (Agreement) with Axia Group, Inc. (Axia), a related party, pursuant to which the Company issued to Axia 255,100,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock in exchange for essentially all of the assets and liabilities of Axia. Axia's assets included a portfolio of securities, real estate holdings and publicly reporting shell-companies. The shares issued to Axia equaled approximately 82% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company after the close of the transaction. Immediately prior to the Agreement, the Company had 55,252,760 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

The acquisition was accounted for as a recapitalization. The subsidiaries consisted of Diversified Holdings I, Inc., Wichita Development Corporation, Golden Opportunity Development Corporation, Downtown Development Corporation, Wasatch Capital Corporation, Hudson Consulting Group, Inc., Oasis International Hotel and Casino, Inc., Canton Industrial Corporation of Salt Lake City Inc., Canton's Wild Horse Ranch II, Inc., West Jordan Real Estate Holdings, Inc., Salt Lake Development, Inc., Kearns Development Corporation and Canton Tire Recycling of West Virginia, Inc. (together "The Accounting Acquirer").

The subsidiaries of Axia which were transferred to the Company have been treated as the acquiring entities for accounting purposes and the Company is the surviving entity for legal purposes. The transaction is deemed to be an exchange of assets between entities under common control. The President of the Company was also the President of Axia.

As noted by Interpretation 39, the transfer of net assets or an exchange of shares between entities under common control is excluded from Opinion 16 and should be accounted for at historical cost. There was no adjustment to the carrying value of the assets or liabilities of the transferred subsidiaries, nor was there any adjustment to the carrying value of the net assets or liabilities of the Company. The combined statements of operations and other comprehensive income and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2001 include only the activity of the accounting acquirer and through February 5, 2002 (date of agreement) after which the statement of operations reflect the operations of the accounting acquirer and Nexia. The statement of stockholders equity for the year ended December 31, 2001 has been presented to give proportionate effect to the number of shares issued by the Company as applied to the equity transactions of the accounting acquirer.

On June 19, 2003, in an inter-company tax free transaction, Wichita Development Corporation exchanged its shareholdings in Kearns Development Corporation for the Diversified Holdings 1, Inc. shareholdings in Salt Lake Development Corporation. At the time of the exchange all parties were subsidiaries of Nexia.

NOTE 1 a. ORGANIZATION

On December 31, 2004, Diversified Holdings I, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company, sold the stock of four of its subsidiaries to an unrelated party for $100. The four entities sold were Oasis International Hotel & Casino, Inc., Golden Opportunity Development Corporation, Canton's Wild Horse Ranch II, Inc. and Canton Tire Recycling of West Virginia.

b. Basis of Consolidation

Diversified Holdings I, Inc. (DHI), a Nevada corporation and 99% owned subsidiary of the Company, was formed on March 22, 1996. DHI is a holding company which has majority ownership of the following subsidiaries:

Hudson Consulting Group, Inc. (Hudson) was incorporated in Nevada on April 16, 1996, as Diversified Holdings XIII, Inc. for the purpose of providing business consulting services. On March 5, 1997, its name was changed to Hudson Consulting Group, Inc. Hudson is 100% owned by DHI.

Canton Industrial Corporation of Salt Lake City (CICSLC), a Utah corporation, was incorporated on September 29, 1993 for the purpose of acquiring, owning and managing a specific property. CICSLC sold the property in December 1998, and currently holds a promissory note from the purchaser, secured by a deed of trust on the property, in the amount of $255,000, bearing interest at 8%, principal and interest due August 10, 2002. CICSLC is 80% owned by DHI and 10% owned by Nexia.

West Jordan Real Estate Holdings, Inc. (WJREH), was formed on June 7, 1994 in Utah for the purpose of acquiring, owning and managing a specific property. WJREH sold its real estate holdings on April 20, 2005. Its only assets are cash and receivables of $677,539 at May 1, 2005.

Kearns Development Corporation (Kearns), a Nevada corporation, was incorporated February 16, 1996 as Cyber Studio, Inc. On April 4, 2001, its name was changed to Kearns Development Corporation. During 2000, Kearns purchased a commercially rented building in Kearns, Utah. Prior to October 17, 2001, Kearns was owned 90.7% by DHI and on June 19, 2003 was sold back to DH1 by WHDV.

Wasatch Capital Corporation (WCC), a Utah corporation, was incorporated on June 10, 1991. WCC owns a commercially rented building in downtown Salt Lake City. DH1 owned 98% and 77% of Wasatch common stock as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 respectively. On September 16, 2004 Wasatch issued one million shares of its common stock to DH1 in total satisfaction of its outstanding debt to DH1.

Downtown Development Corporation (Downtown) was incorporated by the Company on November 30, 1999 in Utah as A-Z South State Corporation. On August 22, 2001, its name was changed to Downtown Development Corporation.

Downtown owns a commercially rented building in Salt Lake City, Utah, and is 99.8% owned by DH1. In addition to DHI, the Company has majority ownership in the following subsidiaries:

NOTE 1 b. BASIS OF CONSOLIDATION, continued

At December 31, 2004, the Company had a majority ownership in 14 other companies including CyberCosmetics, Inc., CyberBoy, Inc., CyberEye, Inc., CyberFishing, Inc., CyberLead, Inc., CyberLife, Inc., CyberOil, Inc., CyberSkiing, Inc., CyberSoccer, Inc., CyberTennis, Inc., CyberTyme, Inc., CyberWholesale, Inc., CSI Holdings, Inc. (formerly CyberWrestling, Inc.), CyberWrite, Inc. Each of these companies is inactive with little or no assets, liabilities or operating activities.

The financial statements of four subsidiaries of Diversified Holdings I, Inc., referred to in Note 1 a. Organization as having been sold on December 31, 2004, are not included in the consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2004 and for the year then ended.

c. Accounting Method

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and the liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business.

d. Compensating Cash Balances

The Company's subsidiary, West Jordan Real Estate Holdings, Inc. has signed a note payable. As part of the note, WJREH has agreed to deposit $3,750 monthly into a bank account to be used for capital improvements, tenant improvements and leasing commissions. The account balance was $79,631 at December 31, 2004.

e. Provision for Taxes

Deferred taxes are provided on a liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Table of ContentsNEXIA HOLDINGS, INC, AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2004 and 2003

Net deferred tax assets consist of the following components as of December 31, 2004 and 2003:

	2004		2003
Deferred tax assets
NOL Carryover	$ 4,697,711	$	2,594,290
Capital loss	661,050		661,050

Deferred tax liabilities:	-		-
Valuation allowance	(5,395,581)		(3,289,040)
Net deferred tax asset	-		-

The income tax provision differs from the amount of income tax determined by applying the U.S. federal and state income tax rates of 39% to pretax income from continuing operations for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 due to the following:

	2004		2003
Book loss	$ (3,004,155)	$	(351,710)
Bad debt	-		124,495
Asset impairments	194,194		97,165
Other (Charitable contribution)	3,120		2,345
Stock for services/option expense	1,685,573		150,160

At December 31, 2004, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $8,558,175 that may be offset against future taxable income from the year 2004 through 2024. No tax benefit has been reported in the December 31, 2004 consolidated financial statements since the potential tax benefit is offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount.

Due to the change in ownership provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, net operating loss carryforwards for Federal income tax reporting purposes are subject to annual limitations. Should a change in ownership occur, net operating loss carryforwards may be limited as to use in future years.

f. Depreciation

g. Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from its two main sources of revenue as follows:

Rental Revenue

Rental revenues are recorded in the period in which they are earned in accordance with rental agreements and lease contracts. Rent payments are typically due by the 1st of each month. Occasionally, the Company will receive rent payments at the end of preceding months for the following months rent. The Company will record these as deferred revenue until such time as the rent has been earned. Unearned rental revenue at the December 31, 2004 was $23,094.

Consulting Revenue

The Company, through its subsidiaries, performs consulting services which consist of financial reporting, business acquisitions, and other public company reporting and support functions. The Company can receive payment for these services in a variety of ways. (1) the Company can be paid in cash; (2) the Company can be paid in restricted securities of the client; (3) the Company can be paid in a combination of cash and restricted securities of the client. The Company follows the revenue recognition provisions of SAB 101 >Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements and 5 >Recognition and Measurement in Financial Statements of Business Enterprises.

These statements require that revenue not be recognized unless collectibility is reasonably assured with recognition of revenue acceptable only when realizable or when assets received or held are readily convertible into known amounts of cash or claims to cash.

Accordingly, when the Company is to be paid in cash, the Company will record the revenue on an accrual basis when the services have been performed, the amounts are readily determinable and collection is reasonably assured. In the cases where the Company receives restricted securities from the client as payment, revenue is deferred until such time as the securities are sold, thereby meeting the requirements that the assets received are readily convertible into known amounts of cash. In the cases where the Company receives a combination of cash and restricted securities, the Company will record that cash as revenue as noted previously and will defer the recognition of the revenue from the securities until the securities are sold.

The Company records the securities received from consulting services in accordance with SFAS 115 >Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities. This standard requires that the Company classify its investments as either trading, available for sale, or held to maturity securities. The Company typically classifies the securities received as payment for the consulting services as available for sale. Any unrealized gains and losses on these securities for which the revenue has been deferred are recorded as adjustments to the deferred revenue account until such time as the security is sold and the Company is able to recognize the revenue from the consulting services. The amount of deferred revenue related to consulting services performed for which the Company received restricted securities at December 31, 2004 was $358. This represents the fair value of the portion of the available for sale securities for which revenue had been deferred at December 31, 2004.

The Company will discontinue these services in 2005.

h. Marketable Securities

The Company follows the provisions of SFAS 115 regarding marketable securities. The Company's securities investments that are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term are classified as trading securities. Trading securities are recorded at fair value on the balance sheet in current assets, with the change in fair value during the period included in earnings.

Securities investments that the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as held-to-maturity securities and recorded at amortized cost in investments and other assets. Securities investments not classified as either held-to-maturity or trading securities are classified as available-for-sale securities. Available-for-sale securities are recorded at fair value in investments and other assets on the balance sheet, with the change in fair value during the period excluded from earnings and recorded net of tax as a separate component of equity. All marketable securities held by the Company have been classified as available-for-sale securities.

i. Issuance of Common Stock

The Company frequently issues shares of its common stock to acquire assets, retire debt and pay for services. When stock is issued for assets, debt or services, the value of the stock, related assets, debt or services is determined by the most readily determinable value, i.e. the value of the common stock issued or the value of the assets, debt or services.

j. Environmental Compliance and Remediation

The Company determines potential liability on a site by site basis and records a liability when its existence is probable and reasonably estimable. Expenditures that do not have a future economic benefit are expensed as incurred. Expenditures that extend the life of the related property or mitigate or prevent future environmental contamination are capitalized.

k. Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company evaluates its long-lived assets in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long Lived Assets". The Company recognizes impairment losses as the difference between historical cost and fair value of the asset, less costs to sell, when management determines that events and circumstances indicate a need to assess impairment, and when that assessment indicates that historical cost materially exceeds fair value, less costs to sell. Impairment expense totaled $0 and $173,966 for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively.

l. Advertising Expense

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expense was $2,232 and $0 for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

n. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

o. Newly Issued Accounting Pronouncements

During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company adopted the following accounting pronouncements:

SFAS No. 143 -- In August 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 143, Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations, which established a uniform methodology for accounting for estimated reclamation and abandonment costs. The statement was effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002. The adoption of SFAS No. 143 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 145 -- On April 30, 2002, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 145 (SFAS 145), "Rescission of FASB Statements No. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FASB Statement No. 13, and Technical Corrections." SFAS 145 rescinds both FASB Statement No. 4 (SFAS 4), "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt," and the amendment to SFAS 4, FASB Statement No. 64 (SFAS 64), "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements." Through this rescission, SFAS 145 eliminates the requirement (in both SFAS 4 and SFAS 64) that gains and losses from the extinguishment of debt be aggregated and, if material, classified as an extraordinary item, net of the related income tax effect. However, an entity is not prohibited from classifying such gains and losses as extraordinary items, so long as it meets the criteria in paragraph 20 of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30, Reporting the Results of Operations Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions. Further, SFAS 145 amends paragraph 14(a) of FASB Statement No. 13, "Accounting for Leases", to eliminate an inconsistency between the accounting for sale-leaseback transactions and certain lease modifications that have economic effects that are similar to sale-leaseback transactions. The amendment requires that a lease modification (1) results in recognition of the gain or loss in the 9 financial statements, (2) is subject to FASB Statement No. 66, "Accounting for Sales of Real Estate," if the leased asset is real estate (including integral equipment), and (3) is subject (in its entirety) to the sale-leaseback rules of FASB Statement No. 98, "Accounting for Leases: Sale-Leaseback Transactions Involving Real Estate, Sales-Type Leases of Real Estate, Definition of the Lease Term, and Initial Direct Costs of Direct Financing Leases." Generally, FAS 145 is effective for transactions occurring after May 15, 2002. The adoption of SFAS 145 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 146 -- In June 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, "Accounting for Exit or Disposal Activities" (SFAS 146). SFAS 146 addresses significant issues regarding the recognition, measurement, and reporting of costs that are associated with exit and disposal activities, including restructuring activities that are currently accounted for under EITF No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring)." The scope of SFAS 146 also includes costs related to terminating a contract that is not a capital lease and termination benefits that employees who are involuntarily terminated receive under the terms of a one-time benefit arrangement that is not an ongoing benefit arrangement or an individual deferred-compensation contract. SFAS 146 will be effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002 and early application is encouraged. The provisions of EITF No. 94-3 shall continue to apply for an exit activity initiated under an exit plan that met the criteria of EITF No. 94-3 prior to the adoption of SFAS 146. The effect on adoption of SFAS 146 will change on a prospective basis the timing of when the restructuring charges are recorded from a commitment date approach to when the liability is incurred. The adoption of SFAS 146 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 147 -- In October 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 147, "Acquisitions of Certain Financial Institutions" which is effective for acquisitions on or after October 1, 2002. This statement provides interpretive guidance on the application of the purchase method to acquisitions of financial institutions. Except for transactions between two or more mutual enterprises, this Statement removes acquisitions of financial institutions from the scope of both SFAS 72 and Interpretation 9 and requires that those transactions be accounted for in accordance with SFAS No. 141, "Business Combinations" and No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets". The adoption of SFAS No. 147 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 148 -- In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure-an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123" which is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002. This Statement amends SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this Statement amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. The adoption of SFAS No. 148 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 149 -- In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149, "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" which is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003 and for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. This statement amends and clarifies financial accounting for derivative instruments embedded in other contracts (collectively referred to as derivatives) and hedging activities under SFAS 133. The adoption of SFAS No. 149 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 150 -- In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity" which is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and is otherwise effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. This Statement establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures in its statement of financial position certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. It requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances) because that financial instrument embodies an obligation of the issuer. The adoption of SFAS No. 150 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

SFAS No. 132 (revised 2003) - In December 2003 the FASB issued SFAS No. 132 (revised 2003) “Employers’ Disclosures about Pensions and Other Postretirement Benefits—an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, and 106” which is effective for financial statements with fiscal years ending after December 15, 2003. The interim-period disclosures required by this Statement are effective for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2003. This Statement does not change the requirements in measurement or recognition of those plans. Instead it retains the disclosure requirements and additionally requires disclosures to those in the original Statement 132 about the assets, obligations, cash flows, and net periodic benefit cost of defined benefit pension plans and other defined benefit postretirement plans. The required information should be provided separately for pension plans and for other postretirement benefit plans. The adoption of SFAS No. 132 (revised 2003) did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the company.

SFAS No. 151 - In November 2004 the FASB issued SFAS No. 151 “Inventory Costs—an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4” which is effective November 2004. This Statement amends the guidance in ARB No. 43, Chapter 4, "Inventory Pricing," to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted material (spoilage). It requires current-period recognition regardless of whether or not those items meet the criterion of “so abnormal”. Additionally, this Statement requires that allocation of fixed production overheads to the costs of conversion be based on the normal capacity of the production facilities. The adoption of SFAS No. 151 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the company.

SFAS No. 152 - In June 2004 the FASB issued SFAS No. 152 “Accounting for Real Estate Time-Sharing Transactions - an amendment of FASB Statements No 66 and 67.” It amends FASB Statement No. 66 and AICPA Statement of Position 04-2 and states that the guidance for (a) incidental operations and (b) costs incurred to sell real estate projects does not apply to real estate time-sharing transactions. The accounting for those operations and costs is subject to the guidance in SOP 04-2. The adoption of SFAS No. 152 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the company.

SFAS No. 153 - In December 2004 the FASB issued SFAS No. 153 “Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets - an amendment of APB Opinion No. 29” which provides standards for the measurement of nonmonetary exchanges. It amends Opinion 29 to eliminate the exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replaces it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. The adoption of SFAS No. 153 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the company.

SFAS No. 123 - In December 2004 the FASB issued SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004) “Share-Based Payment” which is effective for public entities that do not file as small business issuers—as of the beginning of the first interim or annual reporting period that begins after June 15, 2005. This Statement establishes standards for the accounting for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. It also addresses transactions in which an entity incurs liabilities in exchange for goods or services that are based on the fair value of the entity’s equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of those equity instruments. This Statement focuses primarily on accounting for transactions in which an entity obtains employee services in share-based payment transactions. This Statement does not change the accounting guidance for share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees provided in Statement 123 as originally issued and EITF Issue No. 96-18, "Accounting for Equity Instruments That Are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling, Goods or Services." This Statement does not address the accounting for employee share ownership plans, which are subject to AICPA Statement of Position 93-6, Employers' Accounting for Employee Stock Ownership Plans. The implementation of this SFAS will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

FASB Interpretation No. 45 -- "Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others B an Interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57 and 107". The initial recognition and initial measurement provisions of this Interpretation are to be applied prospectively to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. The disclosure requirements in the Interpretation were effective for financial statements of interim or annual periods ending after December 15, 2002. The adoption of FASB Interpretation No. 45 did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Company.

FASB Interpretation No. 46 -- In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities." FIN 46 provides guidance on the identification of entities for which control is achieved through means other than through voting rights, variable interest entities, and how to determine when and which business enterprises should consolidate variable interest entities. This interpretation applies immediately to variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. It applies in the first fiscal year or interim period beginning after June 15, 2003, to variable interest entities in which an enterprise holds a variable interest that it acquired before February 1, 2003. The adoption of FIN 46 did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

During the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company adopted the following Emerging Issues Task Force Consensuses: EITF Issue No. 00-21 "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables", EITF Issue No. 01 B8 "Determining Whether an Arrangement Contains a Lease", EITF Issue No. 02-3 A Issues Related to Accounting for Contracts Involved in Energy Trading and Risk Management Activities", EITF Issue No. 02-9 "Accounting by a Reseller for Certain Consideration Received from a Vendor", EITF Issue No. 02-17, "Recognition of Customer Relationship Intangible Assets Acquired in a Business Combination", EITF Issue No. 02-18 "Accounting for Subsequent Investments in an Investee after Suspension of Equity Method Loss Recognition", EITF Issue No. 03-1, "The Meaning of Other Than Temporary and its Application to Certain Instruments", EITF Issue No. 03-5, "Applicability of AICPA Statement of Position 9702, >Software Revenue Recognition to Non-Software Deliverables in an Arrangement Containing More Than Incidental Software", EITF Issue No. 03-7, "Accounting for the Settlement of the Equity Settled Portion of a Convertible Debt Instrument That Permits or Requires the Conversion Spread to be Settled in Stock", EITF Issue No. 03-10, A Application of EITF Issue No. 02-16 by Resellers to Sales Incentives Offered to Consumers by Manufacturers.

FASB Interpretation No. 46 (revised) "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities - an interpretation of ARB No. 51" - In December 2003 FASB issued this revision in which this Interpretation explains how to identify variable interest entities and how an enterprise assesses its interests in a variable interest entity to decide whether to consolidate that entity. FASB believes that the accounting for variable interest entities has become "fragmented and incomplete". Its purpose is not to restrict the use of variable interest entities. Instead it seeks to improve financial reporting by those enterprises that are involved with variable interest entities. The adoption of FIN 46R did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

FASB Interpretation No. 47 "Accounting for Conditional Asset Retirement Obligations - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 143" - In March 2005 FASB issued this interpretation to clarify timing issues with liability recognition for legal obligations associated with the retirement of a tangible long-lived asset when the timing and (or) method of settlement of the obligation are conditional on a future event. It also clarifies when an entity would have sufficient information to reasonably estimate the fair value of an asset retirement obligation.

p. Stock Based Compensation

As permitted by FASB Statement 148 "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure" (SFAS No. 148), the Company elected to measure and record compensation cost relative to employee stock option costs in accordance with Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees", and related interpretations and make pro forma disclosures of net income and earning per share as if the fair value method of valuing stock options had been applied. Under APB opinion 25, compensation cost is recognized for stock options granted to employees when the option price is less than the market price of the underlying common stock on the date of grant.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's consolidated financial statements are prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has incurred cumulative operating losses through December 31, 2004 of $12,815,682, and has a working capital deficit of $51,336 at December 31, 2004 all of which raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Primarily, revenues have not been sufficient to cover the Company's operating costs. Management's plans to enable the Company to continue as a going concern include the following:

- Increasing revenues from rental properties by implementing new marketing programs
- Making certain improvements to certain rental properties in order to make them more marketable
- Reducing expenses through consolidating or disposing of certain subsidiary companies
- Raising additional capital through private placements of the Company's common stock
  - Purchasing revenue producing real estate
  - Decreasing payroll expenses and options
- Using stock and option-based compensation to cover payroll and other permissible labor costs

There can be no assurance that the Company can or will be successful in implementing any of its plans or that they will be successful in enabling the company to continue as a going concern. The Company's consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Subsequently, it was determined that the receivable from WHDV was impaired, with the full allowance applied against the gain on sale. The Company recognized a net gain on sale of $129,268.

In May 2004, Hudson Consulting, a subsidiary of the Company, sold its stock investment in Caye Chapel for $90,573. There was a net gain on the sale of $36,918 after payments of Caye Chapel creditors from the sale proceeds, as agreed to in the contract of sale.

In September 2004 the Company's subsidiary, Diversified Holdings I, Inc., recorded rental expense of $105,000 for rent on the 400 South office building for 2004 until the date of move in November 2004, in accordance with an agreement with Diversified Financial Resources Corporation. The contra entry was to Gain on Sale of Subsidiary, Wichita Development Co., to recognize part of the gain from the sale.

On December 31, 2004, the stock of four subsidiary companies was sold to We are Electric, LLC, an unrelated company, for $100. The four subsidiaries were Golden Opportunity Development Corporation, Canton Tire Recycling of West Virginia, Inc., Canton's Wild Horse Ranch-II and Oasis International Hotel and Casino, Inc.

On the basis of a written agreement, the intercompany accounts balances of the retained Nexia companies with the four companies sold were forgiven. This resulted in a net forgiveness of debt income to the retained Nexia companies of $1,470,541. The sale of the four subsidiaries resulted in a net gain on sale of subsidiaries of $242,352.

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF FINANCIAL STATEMENT PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements for Nexia Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the Company) have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted in accordance with such rules and regulations. The information furnished in the interim consolidated financial statements includes normal recurring adjustments and reflects all adjustments, which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of such financial statements. Although management believes the disclosures and information presented are adequate to make the information not misleading, it is suggested that these interim consolidated financial statements be read in conjunction with the Company's most recent audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in its December 31, 2004 Annual report on Form 10-KSB. Operating results for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 are not indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2005.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's consolidated financial statements are prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applicable to a going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The company has incurred cumulative operating losses through September 30, 2005 of $13,232,424 which raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. This represents an increase in the cumulative operating losses of $242,941 for the quarter ended September 30, 2005. The Company had a negative working capital balance at September 30, 2005 of $598,345.

Revenue has not been sufficient to cover the Company's operating costs. Management's plans to enable the company to continue as a going concern include the following:

- Increase revenue from rental properties by implementing new marketing programs.
- Make improvements to certain rental properties in order to make them more marketable.
- Reduce expenses through consolidating or disposing of certain subsidiary companies.
- Purchase revenue producing real estate.
- Decrease payroll expenses.

CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURES

On December 1, 2005, HJ & Associates, LLC (the “Former Accountant”) resigned as the auditors for the Company.

The reports of the Former Accountant on the financial statements of the Company for each of the two most recent fiscal years, did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles for the two most recent fiscal years and the first two subsequent interim periods of 2005, except that the Former Accountant’s opinion in its report on the Company’s financial statements expressed substantial doubt with respect to the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for the last two fiscal years.

During the Company’s two recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim periods through the date of resignation, there were no reportable events as the term described in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B except for the following:

The Former Accountant advised management that the most recent interim report, the 10-QSB for the period ended September 30, 2005 was filed prior to the Former Accountant completing its review and that they were requesting corrections be made to the consolidation and the accounting for the acquisition by the Company of Salt Lake Development Corporation. This report has been amended and a 10-QSB/A was filed on December 14, 2005, with the Company’s new accountant Bongiovanni & Associates, P.A. conducting the review, including changes to the consolidation and accountings related to the acquisition of Salt Lake Development Corporation.

During the Company’s two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through the date of resignation, there were no disagreements with the Former Accountant on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of the Former Accountant, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on these financial statements for those periods.

On December 8, 2005, Bongiovanni & Associates, P.A. (the “New Accountant”) of 17111 Kenton Drive, Suite 204-B, Cornelius, North Carolina 28031 was retained as the auditors for the Company.

In making the selection of the New Accountant the Company’s management and board of directors reviewed auditor independence issues and the absence of any pre-existing business or commercial relationship with the new accountant and concluded that there are no such relationships that would impair the independence of the New Accountant.

During the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004 and through December 8, 2005, the Company did not consult with Bongiovanni & Associates regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) or Regulation S-B.

PART II

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Sections 78.7502 and 78.751 of the Nevada Business Corporation Act, as amended, provide for the indemnification of the Company's officers, directors, employees and agents under certain circumstances as follows:

NRS 78.7502 DISCRETIONARY AND MANDATORY INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS: GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

3. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation shall indemnify him against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense.

NRS 78.751 AUTHORIZATION REQUIRED FOR DISCRETIONARY INDEMNIFICATION; ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES; LIMITATION ON INDEMNIFICATION AND ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES.

1. Any discretionary indemnification under NRS 78.7502 unless ordered by a court or advanced pursuant to subsection 2, may be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances. The determination must be made: (a) By the stockholders; (b) By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding; (c) If a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding so orders, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (d) If a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding cannot be obtained, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

2. The articles of incorporation, the bylaws or an agreement made by the corporation may provide that the expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding must be paid by the corporation as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The provisions of this subsection do not affect any rights to advancement of expenses to which corporate personnel other than directors or officers may be entitled under any contract or otherwise by law.

3. The indemnification and advancement of expenses authorized in or ordered by a court pursuant to this section: (a) Does not exclude any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the articles of incorporation or any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, for either an action in his official capacity or an action in another capacity while holding his office, except that indemnification, unless ordered by a court pursuant to NRS 78.7502 or for the advancement of expenses made pursuant to subsection 2, may not be made to or on behalf of any director or officer if a final adjudication establishes that his acts or omissions involved intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law and was material to the cause of action. (b) Continues for a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and inures to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Articles of Incorporation.

The Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that the personal liability of a director or officer of the Company to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, for any action taken or for any failure to take any action, as a director or officer, shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under Nevada law, except for (a) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud, infliction of harm on the Company or its stockholders or a knowing violation of criminal law, (b) the payment of distributions in violation of Section 78.300 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, or (c) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he is not entitled.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities ( other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceedings) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with any securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issues.

The Company issued 100,000,000 shares of its restricted common stock to Equitilink, LLC as compensation for public relations and communication services performed by Equitilink for the benefit of the Company. The shares were issued pursuant to a written contract for services as more fully set forth in the January 7, 2005 Form 8-K filed by the Company. The services contracted for with Equitilink included the development, implementation and maintenance of an ongoing program to increase the investment community's awareness of the Company's activities and to stimulate the investment community's interest in the Company. The transaction was handled as a private sale exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1993.

UNDERTAKINGS

A. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the small business issuer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the small business issuer has been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the small business issuer of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the small business issuer in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the small business issuer will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

B. Nexia will:

(1) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, treat the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the small business issuer under Rule 424(b) (1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act as part of this registration statement at the time the Commission declared it effective.

(2) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, treat each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus as a new registration statement for the securities offered in the registration statement, and that offering of the securities at that time as the initial bona fide offering of those securities.

C. Nexia will file, during any period in which it offers or sells securities, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to:

(1) Include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended;

(2) Reflect in the prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) (17 C.F.R. § 230.424(b)) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(3) Include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution.
