GOL Announces Dividend Payment and Capital Increase

Gol shareholders will receive R$185.8 million (R$0.70/share) in dividends and will have preemptive rights to subscribe new shares if they opt to reinvest in the Company.

São Paulo, March 11, 2010 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and BM&FBovespa: GOLL4), the largest low cost airline in Latin America, announces that its board of directors approved today the payment of dividends followed by a capital increase in the same amount as the dividends declared.

Dividends in the amount of R$185.8 million (R$0.70/share) will be paid based on net profits for fiscal year 2009, pursuant to BR GAAP (Law 11,638), including deduction of legal reserves and accumulated losses.

Management expects to meet the following objectives:

Ensure that shareholders receive dividends based on the net profit for the fiscal year as well as committing to strengthen GOL's balance sheet, in order to: (i) maintain cash and cash equivalents of at least 20% of net revenue in the previous 12 months; (ii) increase operating margins in 2010; and (iii) continue to improve financial leverage indicators.

The proposed capital increase will be implemented through a private offering, in which shareholders may elect to use their dividend to replenish the Company's cash position.

A strong financial position is essential for the Company to implement its growth plan, avoiding short-term risks associated with capital markets volatility and improving the Company's bargaining power with partners, financial institutions and suppliers.

This decision aims to ensure that shareholders receive dividends based on the net profit for the fiscal year as well as committing to strengthen GOL's balance sheet
