The Compensatory Interest Rates shall be calculated exponentially and cumulatively, pro rata temporis per Business Days elapsed, incurred from the Date of Payment or immediately preceding date of payment of Compensatory Interest Rates, which occurs last, inclusive, until the date of its effective payment.

5.6.1.1. The Compensatory Interest Rates shall be paid in fourteen (14) half-yearly installments, as of September 30, 2015, according to the table below, except for the possibility of total Optional Early Redemption and early maturity, under the terms provided for herein:

Date of payment	installment
September 30, 2015	1 st installment
March 30, 2016	2 nd installment
September 30, 2016	3 rd installment
March 30, 2017	4 th installment
September 30, 2017	5 th installment
March 30, 2018	6 th installment
September 30, 2018	7 th installment
March 30, 2019	8 th installment
September 30, 2019	9 th installment
March 30, 2020	10 th installment
September 30, 2020	11 th installment
March 30, 2021	12 th installment
September 30, 2021	13 th installment
March 30, 2022	14 th installment

5.6.1.2. The Debentures Compensatory Interest Rates shall be calculated according to the formulas below:

$J$  = Compensatory Interest Rates amount, due at the end of each Period of Capitalization, calculated with eight (8) decimal places, not rounding;

$VN_e$  = Unit Face Value or balance of Debentures Unit Face Value, calculated with eight (8) decimal places, not rounding; and

DI Factor = product of DI Rates using the percentage applied as of the Date of Payment or the immediately preceding date of payment of Compensatory Interest Rates, which occurs last, inclusive, until de date of calculation, exclusive, with eight (8) decimal places, including rounding, calculated as per the formula below:

$n_{DI}$  = total number of DI Rates, " $n_{DI}$ " is a whole number;

$k$  = number of order of DI Rate, varying from one (1) until  $n_{DI}$  ;

$p$  = one hundred, thirteen point seventy hundredths (113.70); and

$TDI_k$  = DI Rate, daily expressed, calculated with eight (8) decimal places, including rounding, calculated from the formula below:

$DI_k$  = DI Rate published by CETIP, using two (2) decimal places.

5.6.2. For calculations described in item 5.6.1 above, the DI Rate shall be used considering identical number of decimal place published by CETIP.

5.6.2.1. The factor resulting from the expression _____, as per item 5.6.1.2 above, is considered with sixteen (16) decimal places, not rounding.

5.6.2.2. We check the product of daily factors _____, and for each accumulated daily factor, we consider its result with sixteen (16) decimal places, not rounding, applying the next daily factor and henceforth until the last one considered.

5.6.2.3. Once factors are accumulated, we consider the resulting factor "DI Factor" with eight (8) decimal places, including rounding.

5.6.3. Those titleholders of Debentures at the end of Business Day immediately preceding date of payment of Compensatory Interest Rate shall be entitled to Debentures Compensatory Interest Rates.

5.6.4. If DI Rate is not available on the date of calculation of Compensatory Interest Rates, the last DI Rate available shall apply, not being due any financial compensation between the Issuer and Debenture Holders upon subsequent publication of DI Rate which would be applicable.

5.6.4.1. In the event of (a) no calculation and/or disclosure of DI Rate within term exceeding ten (10) consecutive days after the date expected for its calculation and/or disclosure; (b) extinguishment of DI Rate; or (c) the impossibility of applying the DI Rate due to legal or court order, DI Rate shall be replaced with a substitute rate legally determined or during its absence by the rate adopted by CETIP as DI Rate's substitute.

5.6.4.2. If there is no substitute rate of DI Rate, the Trustee shall within no later than five (5) days as of (a) the expiration date of the term of consecutive ten (10) days; (b) date of extinguishment of DI Rate; or (c) the date when the impossibility of applying DI Rate due to legal or court order was verified, pursuant to item 5.6.4.1 above, call for the General Meeting to resolve by common agreement with Issuer, about the Debentures new remuneration parameter, observing the applicable rules. Until decision on the Debentures new remuneration parameter, the last DI Rate officially published shall apply, not being due any compensation between the Issuer and Debenture holders upon definition of Debentures new remuneration parameter.

5.6.4.3. In the assumption the General Meeting is not installed on second call, or if installed, there is no agreement on the Debentures new remuneration parameter between the Issuer and Debenture holders representing, at least, seventy-five percent (75%) of outstanding Debentures, the DI Rate shall be replaced with the weighted average interest rates by the volume of one-day loan operations, backed by federal government bonds, calculated by the Clearance and Custody Special System – SELIC.

5.6.4.4. Notwithstanding the aforementioned Paragraph, if DI Rate is disclosed or is again applicable to Debentures, where applicable, prior to the General Meeting, the referred General Meeting shall no longer be held and DI Rate then disclosed, as of related date of disclosure, shall apply to calculate the Compensatory Interest Rates.

5.7. Renegotiation

5.7.1. There shall be no scheduled renegotiation of the Debentures.

5.8. Amortization of Principal

5.8.1. Debentures Unit Face Value shall be amortized in six (6) annual installments, the first payment on March 30, 2017, according to the table below:

date of amortization	% of unit face value
March 30, 2017	16.6667%
March 30, 2018	16.6667%
March 30, 2019	16.6667%
March 30, 2020	16.6667%
March 30, 2021	16.6667%
March 30, 2022	Balance

5.9. Payment Conditions

5.9.1. Place of Payment and Tax Immunity

5.9.1.1. The payments to which Debenture holders are entitled shall be made by the Issuer (a) applying the procedures adopted by CETIP; or (b) in the assumption Debentures are not electronically held under custody at CETIP, (1) at the Issuer's headquarters; (2) as per procedures adopted by Bank Liquidator; or (3) by financial institution eventually engaged for such purpose.

5.9.1.2. The Debenture holder to enjoy immunity, exemption, non-levy or zero rate of taxes related to investment or any amounts related to Debentures shall forward to the Bank Liquidator, with copy to the Issuer, on the date to subscribe or acquire Debentures, a duly substantiated statement informing such condition, indicating the type of tax the payment of which is exempted and the law providing for the immunity, exemption, non-levy or zero rate, as well as all the conditions and requirements eventually set forth to enjoy related tax benefit. On the other hand, the amounts which would be due by those who under the terms of the prevailing tax laws not entitled to such tax exemption will be deducted from their income.

5.9.1.2.1. The Debenture holder who provided statement about his/her condition of immunity, exemption, non-levy or zero rate of taxes, under the terms of item above and had such condition modified by ruling provision, or fails to meet the conditions and requirements eventually set forth in the applicable legal provision, or also, have his/her condition questioned by appropriate court, tax or regulatory authority, shall notify such fact, in detail and in writing to the Bank Liquidator, with copy to the Issuer, as well as provide any further information related to the issue to be requested by Bank Liquidator or by the Issuer.

5.9.1.2.2. Even if having received the statement referred to in item 5.9.1.2 above, and provided that there is legal ground therefore, the Issuer shall deposit in court or deduct from any amount related to Debentures the taxation understood as due, without such fact triggering indemnity claim against the Issuer or Bank Liquidator by any Debenture holder or third party.

5.9.2. Extension of Terms

5.9.2.1. The dates of payment of any obligation referred to herein shall be considered automatically extended until the subsequent first Business Day, if the maturity date of related obligation coincides with non-business day in the City and State of São Paulo, without any addition to the amounts to be paid, except for the cases the payments of which shall be made through CETIP, in this assumption, extension will only occur when the date of payment of related obligation coincides with Saturday, Sunday or national holiday.

5.9.3. Default Charges

5.9.3.1. Without prejudice to the Compensatory Interest Rates, in the event of default by the Issuer of any monetary liability related to Debentures, the debts overdue and not paid shall add one percent (1%) default interest per month, calculated pro rata temporis, from the delinquency date until the date of effective payment, as well as compensatory fine of two percent (2%) over the amount due, regardless of notice, court or out-of-court notification.

5.9.4. Lapse of Rights to Additions

5.9.4.1. Without prejudice to provisions of item 5.9.3.1 above, if Debenture holder fails to receive the amount corresponding to any monetary liability of the Issuer on the dates provided for herein, or in the notice published by the Issuer, Debenture holder shall not be entitled to receive remuneration and/or default charges in the period related to delayed receipt, however, the vested right until the date of related maturity shall be ensured by the term set forth by laws.

5.10. Advertising

5.10.1. All the announcements, notices and other acts and decisions related to this Issue, which anyhow, involve the interests of Debenture holders and deriving from legal requirements shall be published in the Official Gazette of the State of São Paulo and in “Valor Econômico” newspaper, as provided for in Article 289 of the Brazilian Corporation law, and the Issuer shall notify the Trustee about any publication on the date of announcement, notices and other acts and decisions. Other publications, which anyhow, involve the interests of Debenture holders, but do not derive from legal requirements may be only published in the “Valor Econômico” newspaper, national edition. The Issuer may change the aforementioned newspapers with another newspaper of widespread circulation and national edition to be adopted for its corporate publications, by means of written notice to the Trustee and publication as notice in newspaper to be replaced.

- (c) declaration of early maturity of any financial debt (indebtedness) of the Issuer and/or any of its Relevant Subsidiaries, including abroad, whose individual amount corresponds to or exceeds the amount in domestic currency to fifty million US dollars (US$50,000,000.00);

(d) if the Issuer undergoes protest of bills the total amount of which corresponds in domestic currency to one hundred and thirty million U.S. dollars (US$ 130,000,000.00), unless, if within no later than thirty (30) days as of the date of protest, the Issuer proves to the Trustee: (1) the protest occurred due to third party's error or bad faith; (2) the protest was canceled; or (3) the amount of bills protested was deposited in court;

(e) failure to comply with any final and unappealable court decision or final arbitration decision of which there cannot be any appeal, that represents clear legal obligation of payment ordered against the Issuer, the individual amount of which corresponds to or exceeds in domestic currency the amount of fifty million U.S. dollars (US$50,000,000.00), as long as it is not remedied within thirty (30) days as of the date scheduled for the payment of said adverse judgment;

(f) (1) adjudication of bankruptcy of the Issuer and/or any Relevant Subsidiary; (2) petition for self-bankruptcy by the Issuer and/or any Relevant Subsidiary; (3) petition for bankruptcy of the Issuer and/or any Relevant Subsidiary filed by third parties, not opposed within legal term; or (4) petition for court-supervised or out-of-court reorganization proceedings of the Issuer and/or any Relevant Subsidiary, regardless of related motion's granting;

(g) merger, incorporation (applicable when Issuer is the mergee) or spin-off of the Issuer, except if: (1) the operation has been previously approved by titleholders of, at least, seventy-five percent (75%) of outstanding Debentures, or at least, the majority of outstanding Debentures when referring to the merger or incorporation of the Issuer into Vicunha Siderurgia S.A., Vicunha Aços S.A. or Vicunha Steel S.A., or another company of the same economic group of the Issuer; or (2) the Debenture holders are ensured, if they so desire, during the six-(6) month minimum term as of the publication date of the minutes of the general meeting(s) related to the operation, the early redemption of Debentures to which they are titleholders by the Unit Face Value (or balance of Unit Face Value, where applicable) plus Compensatory Interest Rates, calculated pro rata temporis as of the Date of Payment or immediately preceding date of payment of Compensatory Interest Rates, which occurs last, without any due premium by the Issuer and without the Issuer incurring in any penalty due to referred early redemption;

(h) if the Issuer no longer has as its purpose the exploration of steel activities and related activities, and as long as this change adversely affects the Issuer's capacity of complying with its obligations provided for herein; or

(i) the Issuer is transformed into a limited liability company, pursuant to Articles 220 and 222 of the Brazilian Corporation Law No 6.404/76.

6.3.2. If occurs any of the Early Maturity Assumptions provided for in items “f” and “i” above, Debentures shall become automatically overdue, regardless of notice, court or out-of-court notification. Even so, the Trustee, as soon as he is aware thereof, shall undertake to immediately notify about the early maturity to the (a) Issuer, by means of written notice; and (b) Debenture holders, by means of (1) written notice; or (2) at the discretion of Trustee, publication of announcement on the press agencies where the Issuer makes its publications.

6.3.3. If occurs any of other Early Maturity Assumptions, the Trustee shall call for a General Meeting, within two (2) Business Days as of the date it takes cognizance of referred assumption to resolve on the non-declaration of early maturity of obligations deriving from Debentures.

6.3.3.1. If, in the aforementioned General Meeting, the Debenture holders of, at least, the simple majority of outstanding Debentures determine to the Trustee to not declare the early maturity of Debentures or, also, in case of adjournment of the meeting for resolution on a future date, the Trustee shall not declare the early maturity of Debentures.

6.3.3.2. If, once installed the General Meeting, the quorum referred in item 6.3.3.1 is not achieved, or if the General Meeting is not installed on second call, due to lack of quorum, the Trustee shall declare the early maturity of Debentures and shall immediately send to the Issuer and to CETIP a written communication informing such occurrence.

6.3.4. In the event of early maturity of Debentures, the Issuer undertakes to pay the Unit Face Value or the balance of Unit Face Value, plus related Compensatory Interest Rates, calculated pro rata temporis as of the Date of Payment or the immediately preceding date of payment of Compensatory Interest Rates, which occurs last, inclusive, until the date of their effective payment, besides other charges due under the terms hereof within three (3) Business Days as of Issuer’s receipt of notice informing the early maturity, referred to in item 6.3.3.2 above, under the penalty of incurring in the default charges provided for herein.

9.4. The Trustee will employ any court or out-of-court proceedings against the Issuer to protect and defend the common interests of Debenture Holders and to the realization of their credits and, in the event of the Issuer's default, observing the terms hereof, the Trustee shall:

- a) declare, observing the conditions of this present Indenture, the early maturity of Debentures and charge principal and ancillary amounts under specified conditions;
- b) take any measure necessary for the realization of Debenture Holders credits;
- c) petition for the Issuer's bankruptcy; and
- d) represent the Debenture Holders in bankruptcy proceeding, court and out-of-court reorganization proceeding and/or winding-up of the Issuer.

9.5. The Trustee only shall be held harmless from any responsibility for the non-adoption of the measures envisaged in item 9.4 “a)” a “c)” above if, summoned the General Meeting, it so determines by unanimous resolution of the titleholders of outstanding debentures. In the assumption of item 9.4”d)” above, the resolution by majority of the titleholders of outstanding debentures shall be sufficient.

9.6. The Trustee shall not be required to check the truthfulness of corporate resolutions and Issuer's Management acts, or also, any document or record which considers authentic and sent by the Issuer or by third parties upon its request to ground its decisions, under the terms hereof.

9.7. Compensation shall be paid as provided for in the items hereinbelow to the Trustee, as fees for the performance of its duties and responsibilities assigned thereto, under the terms of the prevailing laws and of this Indenture.

9.7.1. The Trustee's compensation shall be due by the Issuer in annual installments of one thousand, seven hundred and fifty Reais (R$1,750.00), the first installment shall be due on the fortieth (40th) Business Day as of the date of signature hereof and other installments on the same date of subsequent years.

9.7.1.1. The compensation shall be due, pro rata die, even after the maturity of Debentures, if Trustee is still charging defaults not remedied by the Issuer.

9.7.1.2. The compensation provided for in item 9.7.1 above shall be yearly adjusted based on the accumulated percentage variation of IGP-M (General Market Price Index), or during its absence or if it cannot be applied, by the official index to replace it, as of the date of payment of first installment referred to in item 9.7.1 above, until the dates of payment of each subsequent installment, calculated pro rata die, if necessary.

9.7.2. In the assumption of cancellation or redemption of all Debentures, the Trustee only shall be entitled to the compensation calculated pro rata temporis for the period of effective rendering of services, and shall refund to the Issuer the difference between the compensation received and that one to which is entitled to, if requested by Issuer, within ten (10) Business Days as of the date of request.

9.7.3. The payment of Trustee's compensation shall be made by means of credit in current account to be indicated by the Trustee.

9.7.4. It is set forth herein that, in the assumption the Trustee is replaced, it shall transfer the proportional installment of compensation initially received without consideration for the service rendered, calculated pro rata temporis, as of the date of payment of compensation until the date of effective replacement to the Issuer. The substitute Trustee shall be entitled to the same compensation due to the Trustee, calculated proportionally to the remainder period of services rendering, unless if otherwise resolved by General Meeting, jointly with the Issuer.

9.7.5. The compensation does not include expenses deemed as necessary to perform the position of Trustee, with market reasonable amounts and duly evidenced, during the implementation and service duration, which shall be covered by the Issuer, by means of payment of related invoices accompanied by related receipts, directly issued on behalf of Issuer or by means of reimbursement, after previous approval, whenever possible: publications in general, conference call and telephone expenses related to the Issue, notices, photocopies, digitizing, sending of documents, issue certificates, travel, food and accommodation, notary office's expenses, experts expenses, such as audit and/or inspection, amongst others, or legal counsel to Debenture Holders.

9.7.6. In the event of late payment of any amount due by the Issuer to the Trustee, the debts in arrears shall be subject to a contractual fine of two percent (2%) over the debt amount, as well as default interest of one percent (1%) per month and the debt in arrears shall be subject to the monetary restatement by IGP-M, levied from the delinquency date until the date of effective payment, calculated pro rata die.

9.8. The Trustee shall neither issue an opinion nor make any judgment on the fact related to the Issue the definition of which is the sole responsibility of Debenture Holders, only undertaking to act in conformity with the directions given by Debenture Holders. The Trustee shall not have any responsibility over results or legal effects deriving from the strict compliance with guidance given, as defined by Debenture Holders and reproduced before the Issuer, regardless of any losses to be caused. The Trustee's responsibility is restricted to the scope provided for in CVM Rule 28/83, in Brazilian Corporation Law and provisions herein.

9.9. Without prejudice to the diligence duty of Trustee, the Trustee shall assume that the original documents or certified copies of documents sent by the Issuer or by third parties upon its request were not purpose of fraud or falsification. Under no assumption, the Trustee shall be liable for preparing the Issuer's corporate documents, which shall remain under the legal and regulatory obligation of the Issuer to prepare them, under the terms of applicable laws.

9.10. The Trustee's acts or pronouncements to create responsibility to Debenture Holders and/or exempting third parties from obligations towards them, as well as those related to the due compliance with the obligations assumed herein, only shall be valid when previously resolved by Debenture Holders at the General Meeting.

9.11. The Issuer shall refund the Trustee of all expenses to have provenly incurred to protect the rights and interests of Debenture Holders or to realize their credits. The refund shall occur within thirty (30) days as of the related accountability to the Issuer.

9.11.1. When expenses made by Trustee are not previously approved by the Issuer, the Trustee is immediately aware and agrees that the Issuer shall reimburse all the expenses according to the (a) common sense and reasonableness criteria generally accepted in business relations of this type; and (b) the fiduciary duty which is inherent thereto.

9.11.2. In the event of Issuer's default, all the expenses related to legal and administrative proceedings incurred on the Trustee to safekeep the Debenture Holders' interests shall be previously approved, if possible, and advanced by Debenture Holders, in proportion of their credits, and subsequently, as provided for in applicable laws, reimbursed by the Issuer, as long as reasonable and duly evidenced. These expenses to be advanced by Debenture Holders also include expenses related to third parties' attorney's fees, deposits, court costs and fees related to lawsuits filed by Trustee in the performance of its duty, while representative of Debenture Holders' common interest.

9.11.3. Any expenses, deposits and court costs deriving from the loss of suits shall be equally borne by Debenture Holders, as well as Trustee's compensation and reimbursable expenses, in the assumption the Issuer remains delinquent in relation to the payment thereof for a period exceeding thirty (30) days and the Trustee may request to Debenture Holders previous guarantee to cover the loss of suit risk.

9.11.4. Pursuant to provisions of items 9.11 and following above, Trustee's credit due to expenses incurred to protect the rights or interests or to realize credits for Debenture Holders not settled in the form set forth herein shall be added to the Issuer's debt and shall have priority over Debentures in the order of payment.
