Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

In a transaction that closed on March 30, 2006, Smart Online, Inc. (the "Registrant") sold 400,000 shares of its common stock to Atlas Capital, S.A. ("Atlas"), a current investor of the Registrant. The private placement shares were sold at $2.50 per share. The amount raised in the private placement is $1,000,000. Atlas has the right to purchase a pro rata portion of shares of the Registrant's common stock in certain future offerings by the Registrant, if the share price in such offering is less than $2.50. The Registrant has an obligation to register the shares sold for resale by the purchaser by filing a registration statement on or before September 30, 2006. Atlas has entered into a Dribble Out Agreement pursuant to which Atlas may sell up to twenty-five percent (25%) of the shares during any rolling thirty (30) day period, following the effective date of the registration statement.

The shares sold to Atlas in this transaction were sold in reliance upon the exception afforded by Rule 506 of Regulation D of the Securities and Exchange Commission and Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The sale is to a single accredited investor (as such term is defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D) who is acquiring shares of the Registrant for investment purposes only. Atlas currently owns 1,457,950 shares of the Registrant's common stock.

The Registrant is a party to an investment banking services contract with Berkley Financial Services Limited ("Berkley") under which it has paid commissions in the past to Berkley for some investments made by Atlas. The amount of the commission ranges from 3% to 10% of the proceeds for any transaction subject to such services contract. On March 22, 2006 the Registrant sent Berkley notice of termination of this services contract. Berkley may have a claim for a commission pursuant to the services contract however, in light of a provision that requires ten days notice of termination. The Registrant intends to negotiate this issue with Berkley.

Proceeds from this transaction is expected to be used primarily to pay ongoing operations and current liabilities, and for legal and professional expenses related to matters regarding the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), audit and professional fees related to SEC filings, and installment payments due the sellers for the acquisition of iMart Incorporated.
