Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 3, 2009, Gordon Ulsh, Chief Executive Officer, adopted a pre-arranged stock trading plan (the "Plan") to sell Exide Technologies common stock in order to diversify his financial assets.

Pursuant to his Plan, a brokerage firm will be authorized to sell up to 477,488 shares of common stock held in the Gordon A. Ulsh and Laurie J. Ulsh, J/R/L/T/A, dated June 21, 1996, as amended, a family trust of which Mr. Ulsh and his wife are trustees. Subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, the shares may be sold during the period commencing January 19, 2010 and ending January 4, 2011, at which time the Plan is scheduled to terminate. Mr. Ulsh will have no control over the stock sales under the Plan. The transactions under the Plan will be disclosed publicly as they occur on Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Written pre-arranged stock trading plans such as Mr. Ulsh's that are adopted according to the terms of Rule 10b5-1(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, permit certain officers and directors of publicly-traded companies to buy or sell specified amounts of their company's common stock at future pre-determined dates regardless of any material non-public information the individual may receive after adopting the plan. Under Exide's policies, a Rule 10b5-1 plan (1) may only be adopted when an officer or director is not in possession of material nonpublic information; (2) must be documented by a written contract or plan; (3) must specify in advance the amount, pricing and timing of transactions or a formula for such amount, pricing and timing; (4) may only be entered into, amended, replaced or terminated outside a quarterly or event-specific blackout period; (5) once the plan is adopted, the officer or director may not exercise influence over the amount of securities to be traded, the price at which they are traded or the date of any trade; and (6) must not permit the first trade under the plan to occur until forty-five (45) days following adoption of such plan.
