On June 14, 2010, ThermoGenesis Corp. (the "Company") and Asahi Kasei Kuraray Medical Co., Ltd. ("Asahi") entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") of their Distribution and License Agreement, effective March 28, 2005. Under the terms of the Amendment, Asahi will obtain exclusive rights to distribute the CryoSeal ® System in South Korea, North Korea, Taiwan, the Peoples Republic of China, the Philippines, Thailand, Singapore, India and Malaysia. These rights shall include the exclusive right to market, distribute and sell the processing disposables and Thrombin Reagent for production of thrombin ("Thrombin Activation Device") stand alone product. The Company shall provide support to Asahi in the form of maintaining manufacturing capabilities of the CryoSeal System products until the earlier of when Asahi receives regulatory approval from the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare of Japan (MHLW) or December 31, 2012, upon which the Company shall have no further obligation to manufacture the products. Asahi shall then have a non-exclusive right to manufacture such products outside of Japan. Asahi shall continue to pay license fees and royalty payments to the Company. The Amendment extends the initial term of the original agreement to March 28, 2013.

On June 14, 2010, in connection with the above-described Amendment, the Company and Asahi also entered into an Option Agreement ("Option Agreement"). Under the terms of the Option Agreement, the Company granted Asahi an option to purchase certain intellectual property rights of the Company related to the CryoSeal ® System, including but not limited to patents and patent applications, FDA-PMA ownership relating to the products and certain related contracts and contractual relationships. Asahi may exercise the Option Agreement at any time after the effective date of the Amendment, but no later than the earlier of the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Amendment.
