Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Currently, Mr. George Sanders, the Company's Executive Vice President, Real Estate & Store Development, is a party to an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with the Company, which is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1. Among other items, in the event Mr. Sanders is terminated by the Company without cause or resigns for good reason, the Employment Agreement provides for a lump sum payment of Mr. Sanders' annual bonus equal to the greater of (1) the actual bonus earned during the year of termination, prorated for the period employed during that year, or (2) the average bonus paid over the immediately preceding three years.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits a public company's deduction for any of its covered employees (i.e., chief executive officer and next three highest paid employees) to $1 million per year unless the compensation is "qualified performance based compensation," as defined in Section 162(m). The Internal Revenue Service's Revenue Ruling 2008-13 states, in part, that compensation is not "qualified performance based compensation" for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code if it could be paid without achieving performance goals in the event of, for example, the termination of the executive without cause or resignation of the executive for good reason. As such, the Company and Mr. Sanders evaluated an amendment to Mr. Sanders' Employment Agreement so that it could be made consistent with Revenue Ruling 2008-13. That evaluation resulted in an agreed upon amendment to the Employment Agreement whereby the lump sum payment of Mr. Sanders' annual bonus on termination without cause or resignation for good reason is based only on actual performance and is prorated for the time during the year that Mr. Sanders was employed, which amendment is reflected in Amendment Number One dated February 25, 2011 and attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.2.

In addition, certain other amendments to Mr. Sanders' Employment Agreement were agreed upon and are also reflected in Amendment Number One. Those other amendments include the following: (i) the multiple of base salary upon which the lump sum payment of base salary on termination would be based was adjusted upward by 0.5, so that the multiple in Mr. Sanders' Employment Agreement will now be 1.5 times his base salary, rather than the previous multiple of 1 times; (ii) in addition to certain accrued rights, Mr. Sanders will now be eligible to receive, upon termination for either disability or death, a bonus earned during the year of termination, prorated for the period Mr. Sanders is employed during that year; and (iii) potential ambiguities with respect to references to calendar and fiscal years were clarified.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
