DryShips Inc. Announces Pricing of $400 Million Convertible Senior Notes Offering

Athens, Greece, November 19, 2009 DryShips Inc. (NASDAQ: DRYS) (the "Company" or "Dryships"), a global provider of marine transportation services for drybulk cargoes and off-shore contract drilling oil services, today announced the pricing of its previously announced public offering of convertible senior notes. The offering size was increased from $300 million to $400 million. The sale of the convertible notes is expected to close on November 25, 2009, subject to customary closing conditions.

The convertible notes, which are being issued at a price equal to 100% of their face value, will have an interest rate of 5%. The convertible notes will be senior unsecured obligations of the Company. The initial conversion price for the convertible notes will be $7.19 per share.

The underwriter for the offering will also have the option to purchase up to $60 million principal amount of additional convertible notes solely to cover any over-allotments. The Company estimates that the net proceeds from the offering will be approximately $387 million after deducting underwriter discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by the Company assuming the over-allotment option is not exercised. The Company intends to use the proceeds from the offering for vessel acquisitions and other general corporate purposes.

Concurrently with the offering of the convertible notes, the Company has entered into a share lending agreement with Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch ( Deutsche Bank AG ), under which it will loan to Deutsche Bank AG 26.1 million shares of its common stock. The Company has also entered into an equity underwriting agreement with Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. pursuant to which Deutsche Bank AG or its affiliates intend to sell shares of the Company's common stock that they will be entitled to borrow from the Company under the share lending agreement.

These shares will be offered in an underwritten offering registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the Company's existing shelf registration statement in order to facilitate hedging transactions undertaken by the purchasers of the convertible notes. The Company will not receive any of the proceeds from this sale of common stock but will receive a nominal lending fee from Deutsche Bank AG under the share lending agreement.

Deutsche Bank AG will be required to return the borrowed shares on or about the maturity of the convertible notes or, if earlier, upon the conversion, repurchase, cancellation or redemption of all of the convertible notes and upon the occurrence of certain other events. The delivery of common stock pursuant to the share lending agreement will be contingent upon the closing of the convertible notes offering, and the closing of the convertible notes offering will be contingent upon the delivery of common stock pursuant to the share lending agreement.

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. is acting as Sole Book-running Manager for the offerings.

This announcement does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the convertible notes, common stock or any other securities, nor will there be any sale of convertible notes, common stock or any other securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.
