Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 – Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On and effective August 30, 2016, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Workday, Inc. (“Workday”) elected Lee J. Styslinger, III as a Class III director of Workday, to serve until the 2018 annual meeting of stockholders or until his successor is duly elected. Mr. Styslinger has served as a member of Workday’s CEO Advisory Board since 2015. Additionally, Mr. Styslinger has served as the Chief Executive Officer of Altec, Inc., a holding company for businesses that design, manufacture and market equipment for the electric and telecommunications industries globally, since 1997, and as its Chairman since 2011. Mr. Styslinger has served as a member of the Board of Directors of Vulcan Materials Company since 2013 and as a member of the Board of Directors of Regions Financial Corporation since 2004, and serves on the boards of several educational, civic, and leadership organizations. Mr. Styslinger received his B.A. from Northwestern University and an M.B.A. from the Harvard Business School. Mr. Styslinger brings to our Board of Directors extensive experience managing a large company in today’s global market, as well as financial expertise.

In connection with his appointment to the Workday Board, Mr. Styslinger will receive a one-time grant of 15,000 restricted stock units (“RSUs”), one-fourth of which will vest on September 15, 2017 and 1/16th of which will vest when he completes each three-month period of continuous service thereafter. As a non-employee member of our Board of Directors, Mr. Styslinger will be entitled to receive equity compensation for his service. Mr. Styslinger has entered into Workday’s customary indemnification agreement for its directors. Mr. Styslinger has not yet been named to serve on any committee of the Board of Directors of Workday. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Styslinger and any other persons pursuant to which he was elected as a director. There are no transactions between Mr. Styslinger and Workday that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
