SECTION 5 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 22, 2007, the Board of Directors of FedEx Corporation approved certain changes to the company's pension plans, in which the named executive officers participate: the FedEx Corporation Employees Pension Plan (the Pension Plan), which is a tax-qualified, defined benefit pension plan; and the FedEx Corporation Retirement Parity Pension Plan (the Parity Plan), which is a supplemental non-tax-qualified plan (frequently called a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, or SERP). Effective June 1, 2008, eligible employees who participate in the Pension Plan and the Parity Plan, including the named executive officers, will accrue all future pension benefits under a cash balance formula, which FedEx calls the Portable Pension Account. Benefits previously accrued under the Pension Plan and Parity Plan using a traditional pension benefit formula will be capped as of May 31, 2008, and those benefits will be payable beginning at retirement.

The Board of Directors also approved changes to the company's tax-qualified, defined contribution 401(k) retirement savings plans, in which the named executive officers participate. The 401(k) plan changes include increasing the annual matching company contribution from $500 to 3.5% of eligible earnings beginning January 1, 2008. In order to provide 100% of the benefits that would otherwise be denied participants in the tax-qualified 401(k) plans due to certain limitations imposed by the federal tax laws, Parity Plan participants, including the named executive officers, will be eligible for additional Portable Pension Account compensation credits equal to 3.5% of any eligible earnings above the maximum compensation limit for tax-qualified plans ($225,000 for 2007).
