Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 13 and 18, 2009, respectively, Delek Refining, Ltd. and other wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively the “Borrowers”) of the registrant, Delek US Holdings, Inc., completed the third and fourth amendments to their Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated October 13, 2006 (the “SunTrust ABL”) with various financial institutions including SunTrust Bank as administrative agent, issuing bank, swingline lender and collateral agent. The Borrowers sought and obtained the amendments due to the events at the refinery on November 20, 2008. Among other things, the amendments (a) permit the Borrowers to sell certain crude delivery and storage system assets to the registrant’s marketing segment for a total consideration of not less than $27.5 million, (b) increase the interest rate margin by 1.25% annually and the unused lender commitment fees by at least 0.125%, (c) suspend utilization of the SunTrust ABL during the current period of refinery inactivity, (d) set the terms and availability under the SunTrust ABL during a defined start up period, (e) added a covenant that requires the restart of refinery operations at a prescribed level and for a prescribed period of time beginning on or before September 30, 2009, and (f) confirm that the property maintenance covenant does not apply during the current period of refinery inactivity. SunTrust Bank also serves as syndication agent under the senior secured credit facility for MAPCO Express, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the registrant and affiliate of the Borrowers.
