On December 20, 2016, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of MeetMe, Inc., a Delaware Corporation (the “Corporation”), approved amendments to amend and restate the Corporation’s bylaws, effective as of December 20, 2016 (the “Bylaws”). The Bylaws have not been amended since December 6, 2011. The amendments to the Bylaws are intended to conform the Bylaws to more current public company practice, including to (i) enhance the information that the Board would have access to about the persons deemed to be proposing director nominees and/or stockholder proposals and further the Board’s ability to make informed recommendations to stockholders relating thereto; (ii) enhance the information that the Board would have access to about proposed nominees and/or stockholder proposals and further the Board’s ability to make informed recommendations to stockholders relating thereto; (iii) enhance the information that the Corporation would have access to in preparing proxy materials commenting on any stockholder proposed nominees and/or stockholder proposals; and (iv) enhance the information available to all stockholders in advance of a stockholders’ meeting and, accordingly, allow stockholders to make more informed voting decisions. Among other things, the amendments to the Bylaws:

Specify certain procedural matters relating to how the date and time of an annual meeting of stockholders is fixed as well as the place of the annual meeting unless the Board determines that the annual meeting shall be held by means of remote communication.

Provide for the ability of the Board to postpone or cancel any previously scheduled annual or special meeting of the stockholders by resolution of the Board upon public notice given prior to the time previously scheduled for such meeting of stockholders.

Specify certain procedural matters relating to how a list of the stockholders entitled to vote at a stockholders’ meeting will be made available to stockholders at least ten (10) calendar days before the meeting.

Specify certain procedural matters relating to the requirements for any business to be brought before an annual meeting of stockholders, including, but not limited to, the prerequisites for a stockholder to bring any business before an annual meeting of stockholders.

Add and revise provisions requiring an advance notice of stockholder proposals to be submitted to the Corporation in connection with business intended to be brought before an annual meeting of stockholders (the “Proposal Notice”), including, but not limited to, provisions that:

o Specify that, to be timely, a stockholder’s Proposal Notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received by, the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred and fiftieth (150th) calendar day and not later than the close of business on the one hundred and twentieth (120th) calendar day prior to the one-year anniversary date of the immediately preceding year’s annual meeting of stockholders (the “Anniversary Date”); provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty (30) calendar days before or more than sixty (60) calendar days after the Anniversary Date, or if the Corporation did not hold an annual meeting in the preceding fiscal year, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered, or mailed and received, not later than the later of (i) the close of business on the ninetieth (90th) calendar day prior to such annual meeting or (ii) the close of business on the tenth (10th) calendar day following the day on which public disclosure of the date of such annual meeting was first made;
