PROXY STATEMENT

FOR THE 2019 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS,

to be held on May 15, 2019

GENERAL INFORMATION

Date, Time and Place of Annual Meeting

This proxy statement is being furnished as part of the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of FNCB Bancorp, Inc. (“FNCB”), a Pennsylvania business corporation and registered bank holding company, to be voted at FNCB’s 2019 annual meeting of shareholders (“annual meeting”). The annual meeting will be held at FNCB Bank’s (the “Bank”) Exeter Community Office, 1625 Wyoming Avenue, Exeter, Pennsylvania 18643 on Wednesday, May 15, 2019 at 9:00 a.m., prevailing time. All inquiries regarding the annual meeting should be directed to Joseph Coccia, Secretary of FNCB. This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are first being sent to shareholders of FNCB on or about April 15, 2019.

Internet Availability of Proxy Materials

The proxy materials relating to the 2019 annual meeting and the 2018 Annual Report on Form 10-K are available free of charge on the Internet. Please go to investors.fncb.com to view and obtain the materials online.

Purpose of the Annual Meeting

At the annual meeting, shareholders will be requested:

to elect three (3) directors to the Board of Directors for terms expiring in 2022 and until their successors are duly elected and qualified;

to hold an advisory vote on the compensation of FNCB's named executive officers;

to ratify the appointment of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP as FNCB's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ended December 31, 2019; and to transact any other business properly presented at the annual meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

We have not authorized anyone to provide you with information about FNCB; therefore, you should rely only on the information contained in this document or on documents to which we refer you. Although we believe we have provided you with all the information helpful to you in your decision to vote, events may occur at FNCB after printing this proxy statement that might affect your decision or the value of your stock.

Record Date, Quorum and Voting Rights

FNCB's Board has fixed April 5, 2019 as the Record Date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. On the Record Date, FNCB had 20,109,040 shares of common stock, par value $1.25 per share (the "common stock"), outstanding and entitled to vote, held by approximately 1,781 shareholders of record. FNCB's common stock is the only authorized class of stock entitled to vote.

Under Pennsylvania law and FNCB's bylaws, the presence of a quorum, consisting of the presence of shareholders entitled to cast, in person or by proxy at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast on a particular matter at the meeting, is required to transact business at the annual meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the shares of common stock entitled to vote at the annual meeting, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Votes withheld and abstentions will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. A "broker non-vote" results on a matter when your broker or nominee returns a proxy but does not vote on a proposal because it does not have discretionary authority to vote on that proposal and has not received voting instructions from you. We believe that your broker or nominee only has discretionary voting power with respect to the proposal regarding the ratification of the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm for 2019.

Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of common stock held in his or her name in FNCB's books as of the Record Date. If your shares are held in an account at a bank, brokerage firm, broker-dealer or other similar organization, then you are a beneficial owner of shares held in "street name." In that case, you will have received these proxy materials from that organization holding your account and, as a beneficial owner, you have the right to instruct your broker, bank, trustee, or nominee how to vote the shares held in your account. If no voting instructions are given, your broker or nominee has discretionary authority to vote your shares on your behalf on routine matters. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a broker, trust, bank or other nominee, your nominee holder may not be able to vote your shares on the proposal to elect directors and the advisory vote on the compensation of FNCB's named executive officers, unless you provide specific instructions how to vote on those proposals.

Assuming the presence of a quorum, the three (3) nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes will be elected at the annual meeting. PROPOSAL 2, the advisory vote on the compensation of FNCB's named executive officers requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on such proposal. The vote on PROPOSAL 2 is nonbinding on FNCB, our Board of Directors or Compensation Committee, but will be considered by our Board and Compensation Committee when making future compensation decisions for our executive officers. PROPOSAL 3, the ratification of Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP as FNCB's independent registered public accounting firm for 2019, and any other matters that may come before the annual meeting, will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal to be approved. Any abstention or broker non-votes will not be counted as a vote cast on a proposal but will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at the annual meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies and Voting

The cost of preparing, assembling, printing, mailing and soliciting proxies, and any additional material regarding the annual meeting that FNCB sends to its shareholders will be paid by FNCB. In addition to solicitation by Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc., the directors, officers and employees of FNCB and the Bank may solicit proxies from shareholders personally or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic means without additional compensation. Arrangements will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the common stock held of record by these persons, and upon their request, FNCB will reimburse them for their reasonable forwarding expenses.

Shareholders of record can vote their shares by: (1) completing and returning the enclosed written proxy card; (2) telephone using the toll-free number, 1-800-690-6903; (3) the Internet; or (4) in person at the annual meeting to be held on May 15, 2019. To vote via the Internet, go to www.proxyvote.com and follow the onscreen instructions. Please have your control number from your proxy card available when you access the web page.

Shareholders of record can also vote in person at the meeting. Submitting your voting instructions by returning a proxy card or by voting over the telephone or over the Internet will not affect your right to attend the meeting and vote. The method by which you vote will in no way limit your right to vote in person at the annual meeting, after giving written notice to Joseph Coccia, Secretary of FNCB.

Please note that you may not vote shares held in street name in person at the annual meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from that organization holding your account. If your shares are held in an account at another bank, brokerage firm, broker-dealer or other similar organization, these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee which is considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker how to vote and are also invited to attend the meeting. If you plan to attend the annual meeting, you will be required to provide a “Broker Letter” as proof of ownership of FNCB’s common stock to be allowed to attend the annual meeting. Your broker or nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card for you to use in directing the broker or nominee how to vote your shares.

Revocation of Proxies

A shareholder of record who returns a proxy may revoke the proxy prior to the time it is voted at the annual meeting in any one of the following ways:

by giving written notice of revocation to Joseph Coccia, Secretary of FNCB Bancorp, Inc., 102 East Drinker Street, Dunmore, Pennsylvania 18512; or by executing a later-dated proxy and giving written notice to the Secretary of FNCB; or by voting in person after giving written notice to the Secretary of FNCB.

Attendance by a shareholder at the annual meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of the proxy.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee, FNCB's Board of Directors has nominated the three (3) individuals listed in the table below for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. If you elect the nominees listed below, they will hold office until the annual meeting of shareholders in 2022 or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. All nominees are currently serving on our Board and have consented to being named in this proxy statement and to serve if elected.

Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received for the election of the three (3) nominees for Class C Director named below. If any nominee should become unavailable to serve as director for any reason, proxies will be voted in favor of a substitute nominee as designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors currently believes that the nominees named will be able to serve if elected. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, will be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors and each person so appointed will be a director until the expiration of the term of office of the class to which he or she was appointed. Assuming the presence of a quorum, the three (3) nominees for director below receiving the highest number of votes will be elected at the annual meeting.

Nominee	Term Expiration	Position Held
Joseph Coccia	2022	Director
Joseph L. DeNaples, Esquire	2022	Director
John P. Moses, Esquire	2022	Director

Cumulative voting rights do not exist with respect to the election of directors. Except as may otherwise be provided by statute or by the articles of incorporation, at every shareholders' meeting, each shareholder entitled to vote has the right to one vote for each share of common stock owned on the Record Date fixed for the meeting. For example, if a shareholder owns 100 shares of common stock, he or she may cast up to 100 votes for each of the nominees for director in the class to be elected.

Board Recommendation

FNCB's Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election for each of the nominees for director listed above.

INFORMATION ABOUT FNCB'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The following section contains, as of April 5, 2019, certain information with respect to the nominees for directors for terms to expire in 2022, directors who will continue in office and executive officers who are not directors. You will find information about their share ownership on pages 4-5.

In accordance with Section 2.02 of FNCB's bylaws, FNCB has a classified Board of Directors with staggered three-year terms of office. The Board is divided into three classes, with each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible. The terms of the separate classes expire in successive years. Thus, at each annual meeting of shareholders, successors to the class of directors whose term then expires are elected to hold office for a term of three years. Therefore, the term of office of one class of directors expires in each year. The Board of Directors is authorized to increase the number of directors that constitutes the whole Board of Directors provided that the total number of directors in each class remains relatively proportionate to the others.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Our Board of Directors believes that the purpose of corporate governance is to promote shareholder value in a manner consistent with legal requirements and the highest standards of integrity. The Board has adopted and adheres to corporate governance practices that it and management believe promote this purpose, are sound and represent best practices. The Board continually reviews these governance practices, Pennsylvania law (FNCB's state of incorporation), the rules and listing standards of Nasdaq, and Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") regulations, as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities to maintain the highest governance standards.

The Board of Directors has four standing committees: Audit Committee, Risk Management Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee, which is the committee that makes director nominating recommendations to the Board of Directors. The charters of these committees have been approved by the Board and are available on our corporate website at investors.fnbc.com.

Currently, the Board of Directors has twelve members. FNCB evaluates the independence of directors under the SEC and Nasdaq stock market's standards for independence. The Nasdaq standards require the Board of Directors be comprised of a majority of independent directors. The Nasdaq standards also require that, except for exceptional and limited circumstances, the Board of Directors maintain an audit committee comprised only of independent directors and that director nominees must be selected either by independent directors comprising a majority of the Board's independent directors in a vote in which only independent directors participate, or by a nominations committee comprised solely of independent directors. The Nominating and Governance Committee of FNCB's Board has responsibility for selecting director nominees and is comprised solely of independent directors. Nasdaq corporate governance standards also require that the Board maintain a compensation committee comprised of at least two members, each of whom is an independent director. The Board of Directors of FNCB has appointed a Compensation Committee, currently comprised of four directors, each of whom the Board has determined is "independent."

Independence is reviewed at least annually to determine whether all existing and potential committee members are independent. The Board of Directors has determined that William G. Bracey, Dominick L. DeNaples, Joseph L. DeNaples, Esq., Louis A. DeNaples, Louis A. DeNaples, Jr. M.D., Vithalbhai D. Dhaduk, M.D., Keith W. Eckel, Kathleen McCarthy Lambert, John P. Moses, and Thomas J. Melone met the standards for independence.

In making its independence determinations, the Board considers all relevant facts and circumstances, and not merely from the standpoint of the director, but also from that of persons or organizations with which the director has an affiliation. The Board considered that in the ordinary course of business FNCB and the Bank may provide commercial banking and other services to some of the independent directors and to business organizations and to individuals associated with them. The Board also considered that in the ordinary course of business some business organizations with which an independent director is associated may provide products and services to FNCB and the Bank. The Board has determined that, based on the information available to the Board, none of these relationships were material.

Mr. Moses, a director, is Of Counsel at the law firm of Cozen & O'Connor ("Cozen"), which provided legal services to FNCB during 2018. Mr. Moses does not have any ownership or profit sharing interest in Cozen. The Board has considered this relationship and determined that it did not impair Mr. Moses' independence. Please see the relationships discussed under the section of this Proxy Statement entitled "CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS" for a description of the other relationships considered by FNCB's Board of Directors.

Mr. Joseph L. DeNaples, Esq., a director, is a partner at the law firm of Cipriani & Werner, which provided legal services to FNCB during 2018. The Board has considered this relationship and determined that it did not impair Mr. DeNaples' independence as it relates to his membership as a Director on the Boards of FNCB and the Bank and membership on the Compensation and Nominating and Governance Committees.

Code of Ethics

FNCB has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") that applies to FNCB's directors, officers and employees, including the President and Principal Executive Officer ("PEO"), Principal Financial Officer ("PFO") and Principal Accounting Officer ("PAO"). The Code includes guidelines relating to compliance with laws, the ethical handling of actual or potential conflicts of interest, the use of corporate opportunities, protection and use of FNCB's confidential information, accepting gifts and business courtesies, accurate financial and regulatory reporting, and procedures for promoting compliance with, and reporting violations of, the Code. The Code is available in the Investor Relations section on FNCB's website at investors.fncb.com by clicking on Corporate Information and then Governance Documents. FNCB intends to post any amendments to the Code on its website and to disclose any waivers (to the extent applicable to FNCB's President and PEO, PFO or PAO) on a Form 8-K within the prescribed time period.

Any security holder who wishes to communicate with the Board of Directors may send correspondence to Joseph Coccia, Secretary, at 102 East Drinker St., Dunmore, PA 18512, or by sending an electronic message to corporatesecretary@fncb.com. The Board of Directors

FNCB's business is managed under the direction of our Board of Directors, in accordance with the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, FNCB's Articles of Incorporation and its bylaws. The positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer are separated, as the Board believes separation of these positions enhances the independent oversight of FNCB and the monitoring and objective evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer's performance. Mr. Dominick L. DeNaples serves as non-executive Chairman of the Board of Directors and is independent of management.

Management is responsible for the day-to-day management of the risks faced by FNCB, while the Board of Directors, as a whole, is responsible for the general oversight of risk management. For 2018, this oversight was primarily conducted through the Risk Management and Audit Committees. The Risk Management Committee has the primary role in risk management of FNCB, oversees FNCB's enterprise-wide risk management program and provides oversight and guidance to management on FNCB's risk appetite. The Audit Committee, pursuant to its charter, considers and reviews with FNCB's internal audit department, independent registered public accounting firm, and management, the adequacy of FNCB's internal controls, including the processes for identifying significant risks or exposures, and elicits recommendations for the improvements of such procedures where desirable. In addition to the Audit and Risk Management Committees roles, the full Board of Directors is involved in establishing the risk appetite for FNCB and the oversight and administration of risk and risk management practices by overseeing members of executive management in their risk management capacities, regularly reviewing and analyzing FNCB's investment and loan portfolios and accompanying risk levels, and considering the potential impact on FNCB's objectives. Members of FNCB's executive management have day-to-day responsibility for risk management and establishing risk management practices, and members of management are expected to report matters relating specifically to the Risk Management Committee and Audit Committee directly thereto, and to report all other matters directly to the Board of Directors as a whole. Members of FNCB's executive management have an open line of communication to the Board of Directors and have the discretion to raise issues from time-to-time in any manner they deem appropriate, and management's reporting on issues relating to risk management typically occurs through direct communication with directors or committee members as matters requiring attention typically arise.

The Bank Board maintains a Directors Loan Committee that is comprised of the Bank's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Credit Officer and Chief Lending Officer. In addition, the following Directors are members of this committee: Gerard A. Champi, Dominick L. DeNaples, Louis A. DeNaples, Vithalbhai D. Dhaduk, M.D., Keith W. Eckel, and Thomas J. Melone, CPA. The Directors Loan Committee meets bi-weekly or more often as necessary. In 2018, this committee met thirty-three (33) times.

During 2018, FNCB's Board of Directors held seventeen (17) meetings. Each of the directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of FNCB's Board of Directors and of the committees on which they served. Pursuant to FNCB's policy, the directors are expected to attend FNCB's annual meeting of shareholders. All of FNCB's directors attended FNCB's annual meeting of shareholders in 2018.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter that has been approved by the Board of Directors. The charter is reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee with any recommended changes approved by the Board of Directors. The current Compensation Committee charter is available in the Investor Relations section on FNCB's website at investors.fncb.com by clicking on Corporate Information, Governance Documents and then selecting "Compensation Committee Charter." As noted above, the Board of Directors has determined that each of the directors serving on this committee qualifies as an "independent" director under the applicable standard. The Compensation Committee is responsible for evaluating and approving FNCB's compensation plans, policies and programs. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain and terminate a compensation consulting firm, including the authority to approve the firm's fees and other terms of retention. The Compensation Committee also has the authority to delegate responsibility to subcommittees. For a discussion of the role of the Compensation Committee in determining executive and director compensation, see the discussion in the section "Executive Compensation" under the heading entitled "Overview" below.

Risk Management Committee

The Risk Management Committee operates under a written charter that has been approved by the Board of Directors. The charter is reviewed annually by the Risk Management Committee with any recommended changes approved by the Board of Directors. The current Risk Management Committee charter is available in the Investor Relations section on FNCB's website at investors.fncb.com by clicking on Corporate Information, Governance Documents and then selecting "Risk Management Committee Charter." The Risk Management Committee is responsible for ensuring management has established an enterprise-wide risk management program and for providing oversight and guidance to management regarding FNCB's risks. The Risk Management Committee has authority to retain independent counsel, experts and advisors it believes are appropriate in carrying out its duties, including the authority to approve the advisor's fees and other terms of retention. The Risk Management Committee also has the authority to delegate responsibility to subcommittees.

Nominating and Governance Committee

The Nominating and Governance Committee operates under a written charter that has been approved by the Board of Directors. The charter is reviewed annually by the Nominating and Governance Committee with any recommended changes approved by the Board of Directors. The current Nominating and Governance Committee charter is available in the Investor Relations section on FNCB's website at investors.fncb.com by clicking on Corporate Information, Governance Documents and then selecting "Nominating and Governance Committee Charter." The Board of Directors has determined that each of the directors serving on this committee qualifies as "independent" under the applicable standard.

The primary duties and responsibilities of the Nominating and Governance Committee are to:

recommend to the Board of Directors for its selection (i) potential nominees for director to stand for election at FNCB's annual meeting of shareholders, including without limitation, those proposed by shareholders, and (ii) qualified candidates to be considered by the Board of Directors to fill vacancies;

consider, in its discretion, qualified candidates based on criteria for selecting new directors;

evaluate the background and qualifications of new director candidates; evaluate directors before nomination for reelection; and oversee and make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to corporate governance of FNCB.

In recommending director nominees to the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Governance Committee seeks individuals who are qualified to be directors based on the committee's judgment of the potential candidate's experience, skills and knowledge of business and management practices. If needed, the Nominating and Governance Committee will use a third-party search firm to assist in finding director candidates. No such firms were engaged to evaluate or assist in identifying potential director nominees in 2018.

The Nominating and Governance Committee and the Board of Directors have not established a specific diversity component in their consideration of candidates for director and instead considers the diversity of directors as part of the overall mix of factors when identifying and evaluating candidates for the Board of Directors. FNCB considers diversity broadly to include differences of viewpoint, professional experience, individual characteristics, qualities and skills, resulting in naturally varying perspectives among the directors and individual skills that complement the full Board. Therefore, the Board, as a unit, possesses the appropriate skills and experience to oversee FNCB's business.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will give appropriate consideration to qualified persons recommended by shareholders for nomination as directors and will evaluate such qualified persons in the same manner as other identified candidates, when submitted prior to the shareholder proposal date referred to in the "Submission of Shareholder Proposals for 2020 Annual Meeting" section of this Proxy Statement (the "Proposals Section"), provided such recommendations comply with the advance notice procedures in FNCB's bylaws, which are summarized in the Proposals Section. Such recommendations must also include sufficient biographical information about the proposed nominee to assist the Nominating and Governance Committee in evaluating the qualifications and experience of the proposed nominee, and the proposed nominee's consent to serving as a director if elected. Shareholders must deliver any proposals or nominations in writing to the Nominating and Governance Committee or the Secretary of FNCB Bancorp, Inc. at its principal executive office, 102 E. Drinker Street, Dunmore, Pennsylvania 18512.

Any nomination for director not made in accordance with Section 1.07 of FNCB's bylaws will be disregarded by the presiding officer of the annual meeting, and votes cast for each such nominee will be disregarded by the Judge of Election. In the event that the same person is nominated by more than one shareholder, if at least one nomination for such person complies with Section 1.07, the nomination will be honored and all votes cast for the nominee will be counted.

Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit Committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act. The Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is independent, as that term is defined by the SEC and in the NASDAQ listing standards related to audit committees. The current Audit Committee charter is available in the Investor Relations section on FNCB's website at investors.fncb.com by clicking on Corporate Information and then on Governance Documents under the heading "Audit Committee Charter." The principal duties of the Audit Committee, as set forth in its charter, include reviewing and discussing the audited financial statements with management and the independent registered public accounting firm and, based on such reviews and discussions, recommending to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statement be included in FNCB's annual report on Form 10-K; reviewing significant audit and accounting principles, policies and practices; reviewing the effectiveness of the internal audit function; reviewing reports of examination received from regulatory authorities; and reviewing the performance and independence of and recommending, annually, to the Board of Directors the engagement of an independent registered public accounting firm.

Currently, the Board has identified Thomas J. Melone, CPA as the Audit Committee financial expert. Mr. Melone qualifies as a financial expert based on his extensive accounting experience as a certified public accountant and as a partner of the Albert B. Melone Company Certified Public Accountants.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Shareholders of FNCB Bancorp, Inc.:

The Audit Committee provides oversight of FNCB's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management is responsible for the financial statements and the financial reporting process, including internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the financial statements in the annual report with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just acceptability, of the accounting principles; the reasonableness of significant judgments; and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm its judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of FNCB's accounting principles, and such other matters as required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB). The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for expressing an opinion about whether the financial statements that have been prepared by management, with Audit Committee oversight, are fairly presented, in all material respects, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and whether management has maintained effective internal control over financial reporting. In addition, the Audit Committee has received and reviewed with the independent registered public accounting firm the written disclosures and the letter required by the PCAOB regarding its communications with the Audit Committee concerning its independence from management and FNCB, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the independent registered public accounting firm's independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with FNCB's internal auditors and independent registered public accounting firm the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal auditors and independent registered public accounting firm together and separately, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of FNCB's internal controls and the overall quality of FNCB's financial reporting.

Based on these discussions, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2018, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Directors receive no remuneration for attendance at FNCB's board meetings. All non-employee members of the Bank's Board of Directors receive an annual retainer of $30,000, payable at a rate of $2,500 per month, for each month or portion thereof that the director serves as a director of the Bank. The aggregate amount of director fees, including advisory board fees, paid in 2018 was $330,000. Members of committees of the Board of Directors of FNCB or the Bank, as applicable, do not receive fees for attending meetings of those committees.

Deferred Compensation Plan

Directors serving on the Board of Directors of the Bank are entitled to participate in the Bank's Deferred

Compensation Plan. Under the Deferred Compensation Plan, directors may voluntarily defer up to 50% of the director fees paid to them for service on the Board of Directors of the Bank. Participants are vested in their account balances in the Deferred Compensation Plan. As such, upon ceasing to serve as a director for any reason whatsoever, voluntary or involuntary, including involuntary termination for cause, termination on a change of control, voluntary termination, early retirement or because of death or disability, the amount of the Deferred Compensation Plan account balance will be payable pursuant to the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan. Amounts payable under the Deferred Compensation Plan are unsecured, unfunded obligations of the Bank.

Directors' Stock Plan

Directors who are not employees or officers of FNCB or the Bank are eligible to participate in the LTIP. No awards have been made to directors under the LTIP.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Overview

The series of tables that follow and accompanying narrative provide information about the compensation earned or paid in 2018 to FNCB's named executive officers. At December 31, 2018, the following individuals were serving as our named executives:

Mr. Gerard A. Champi, the President and Chief Executive Officer and PEO of FNCB

Mr. James M. Bone, Jr., the Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer and PFO of FNCB

Mr. Brian C. Mahlstedt, Chief Lending Officer of the Bank

FNCB is committed to responsible compensation practices and strives to balance sound risk management with the need to attract, hire, motivate and retain executive team members who will maximize successful performance. FNCB intends to provide executives with a balanced mix of fixed and variable pay. The purpose of all incentive plans is to motivate, reward and reinforce performance and achievement of team and/or individual goals in support of FNCB's strategic objectives for growth and profitability. They provide the opportunity for reward for meeting and exceeding established financial goals as well as recognition of individual achievements.

The Compensation Committee makes, or has final approval authority regarding, all compensation decisions with respect to each of our executive officers in order to provide them with competitive compensation for their respective positions and to provide opportunities based upon their contributions to FNCB's development and financial success in accordance with the overall design of FNCB's compensation package.

Input from management, including the President and Chief Executive Officer and the Human Resources Officer, along with FNCB's external consultants was critical for the Board of Directors and Compensation Committee in making informed and appropriate decisions regarding compensation for executive officers other than the President and Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee has the sole responsibility for setting the compensation for our President and Chief Executive Officer. Each member of management excuses himself or herself from all Board and Compensation Committee discussions of that individual's compensation. For 2018, input from management included:

Performance summaries for management team members and recommendations regarding compensation; and overall compensation package and/or the individual components of executive compensation.

The overall executive compensation philosophy and strategy and primary objective of the Board of Directors with respect to executive compensation at FNCB is to provide a total compensation package that meets the following interrelated goals:

To be balanced and competitive in the external market in a manner consistent with FNCB's size and industry;

To correlate with FNCB's strategic business plan;

To align the interests of executives with those of shareholders;

To drive superior performance and reward executives for achievement;

To enable FNCB to attract, motivate, develop and retain key executives whose experience, expertise and abilities will promote FNCB's performance for the benefit of its shareholders without encouraging undue risk-taking that could materially threaten the safety and soundness of FNCB;

To achieve an appropriate mix of fixed and variable compensation;

To equally support annual and long-term financial and strategic performance objectives as well as the stability of the organization;

To ensure compliance with applicable regulations;

To deliver executive compensation in a manner that is prudent and cost-effective; and

To support the mission, vision and values of FNCB.

The named executive officers receive base salaries and incentives commensurate with their positions, responsibilities and accomplishments. In determining the appropriate types and amounts of compensation for the President and Chief Executive Officer each year, the Compensation Committee evaluates both corporate and individual performance. The corporate factors include the financial performance of FNCB as a whole, including return on shareholders' equity, return on assets, asset quality and trends in the foregoing measures, the performance of FNCB's stock price, comparative results achieved by FNCB's peer group institutions, and progress in realizing FNCB's long-term strategic plan. The individual factors include initiation and implementation of successful business strategies, development of an effective management team and leadership qualities.

In determining the appropriate types and amounts of compensation for the named executive officers other than the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee takes into consideration the officer's experience, expected personal performance and total compensation levels for comparable positions.

Shown below is information concerning the total compensation awarded to, earned by, or paid to each of the named executive officers for services rendered in all capacities to FNCB and the Bank for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Employment Arrangements

FNCB and the Bank have entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Bone and the Bank has entered into Employment Agreements with Mr. Champi and Mr. Mahlstedt. Employment Agreements are commonly used by the banking industry and by FNCB's peer group to retain key executives and define an overall compensation package that is aligned with shareholder interests. Below is a summary of each executive's Employment Agreement.

The provisions under the Employment Agreements include the named executive officer's initial base salary, subject to annual review adjustments by the Compensation Committee and the Board. Each of the Employment Agreements also state that the executive is eligible to participate in FNCB's Executive Incentive Plan and Long-Term Incentive Plan according to the terms of those Plans. The Agreement also states that each executive will be provided with a Supplemental Retirement Plan. The Agreement specifies that each executive will be reimbursed for annual country club dues and use of a Bank provided automobile. Each executive's Agreement has a term of three years, with consideration for an annual renewal of an additional three years on March 31st of each calendar year. Each executive's Agreement includes a non-compete clause which will be in effect for twelve months after an involuntary separation by the Bank or after a Change of Control termination as defined in his Agreement.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

In the event of a Change of Control during which his employment with the Bank is terminated "without cause" (as defined in the Employment Agreements), i) within 120 days immediately prior to and in conjunction with a Change in Control or within one year following consummation of a Change in Control or ii) the terms and conditions of his position are substantially altered as defined in the Employment Agreement, each executive will receive a total severance payment equal to 2.99 years base salary at the highest rate in effect during the 12-month period immediately preceding his last day of employment plus the average Executive Incentive Plan cash award received over the last three preceding years. Each executive will remain eligible to participate in the Bank's medical benefits program while receiving severance.

In the event that the executive is released "without cause" while the Employment Agreement is in effect, he will receive a total severance payment equal to 2.99 years base salary at the highest rate in effect during the 12-month period immediately preceding his last day of employment plus the average cash award paid to him over the last three preceding years from the Executive Incentive Plan.

Each executive will remain eligible to participate in the Bank's medical benefits program while receiving severance from either involuntary separation not for cause or because of a Change of Control (as defined in the Employment Agreements).

Each executive's Employment Agreement would terminate upon his death except that any remaining separation payments due to the executive as a result of a change of control or involuntary separation not for cause will be paid to the executive's beneficiary.

Options issued under the Stock Incentive Plan are subject to accelerated vesting and remain exercisable upon the occurrence of certain change of control events; all currently outstanding stock options under the Stock Incentive Plan are fully vested. In addition, any such stock option awards may remain exercisable for up to three months (or longer in the case of death or disability) upon the termination of any of FNCB's named executive officers' employment for any reason. As of April 6, 2018, based on the closing market price of $9.25 per share, the exercise price of all options held by executive officers is greater than the current market price per share. Therefore, FNCB does not expect that the options would be exercised upon a change in control or termination of employment.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the LTIP, and except as otherwise provided in an award agreement, if there is a change in control, all stock-based awards granted under the LTIP will immediately vest 100% for each Participant, including incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and restricted stock units. However, no stock-based award granted or made during a period when FNCB is subject to FDIC Part 359 golden parachute requirements will be subject to acceleration of vesting pursuant to the LTIP. In addition, no stock-based awards, whenever granted or made, will vest if the Change in Control occurs during a period when FNCB is subject to FDIC Part 359.

The foregoing narrative regarding payments on a change in control or other termination of employment does not reflect payments that would be provided to each named executive officer under the 401(k) Plan following termination of employment, or under FNCB's disability or life insurance plan in the event of death or disability, as applicable, on the last business day of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018 because these plans are generally available to all regular salaried employees.

Inter-Relationship of Elements of Total Compensation and Outcome of 2018 Say-on-Pay Vote

FNCB's executive compensation philosophy and strategy is intended to be competitive in the marketplace to reward executives for strong performance through multiple compensation vehicles. All of the components are balanced, integrated, and designed to provide a total compensation environment which will enhance the executives' relationship with FNCB and support the growth of overall shareholder value.

The various elements of the total compensation package are subtly interrelated but are intended to focus the executive on both short-term and long-term performance of FNCB. While there is not a direct relationship between components, if in a given year the Board of Directors or Compensation Committee decides, for purposeful reasons, to "overweight" one component of total compensation (as compared to the market) they may "underweight" another so that total compensation remains competitive.

FNCB provides its shareholders with the opportunity to cast an annual advisory vote on executive compensation, commonly referred to as a say-on-pay vote. At FNCB's Annual Meeting of Shareholders held in May 2018, approximately 96.2% of the votes cast on the say-on-pay proposal at the meeting were voted in favor of our executive compensation program. The Compensation Committee believes this vote affirms the shareholders' support of FNCB's approach to executive compensation; however, the Compensation Committee will continue to oversee the executive compensation programs consistent with objectives set forth herein and consider the outcome of FNCB's future say-on-pay votes, regulatory changes and best practices in the industry when making future compensation decisions for the named executive officers.

ADVISORY VOTE ON COMPENSATION OF FNCB'S

NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Pursuant to SEC rules, our Board annually asks our shareholders to vote in favor of an advisory proposal to approve the compensation of its named executive officers, as disclosed in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis, the compensation tables, and any related material contained in this Proxy Statement.

This proposal, commonly known as a "Say-on-Pay" proposal, gives you as a shareholder the opportunity to endorse or not endorse FNCB's executive pay program and policies through a non-binding advisory vote on the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the Shareholders approve the compensation of FNCB's named executive officers, as disclosed under the heading "Executive Compensation," the compensation tables and any related material contained in this Proxy Statement."

The vote on this proposal is advisory and non-binding. However, the Compensation Committee will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation arrangements.

Board Recommendation

FNCB's Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR this proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the named executive officers' compensation as disclosed pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K, including the disclosures under the heading "Executive Compensation," the compensation tables, and any related information contained in this Proxy Statement. Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in favor of PROPOSAL 2 unless shareholders specify otherwise.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

FNCB and the Bank have engaged in and intend to continue to engage in banking and financial transactions in the ordinary course of business with directors and officers of FNCB and the Bank and their affiliates on comparable terms and with similar interest rates as those prevailing from time to time for other customers not related to FNCB or the Bank. FNCB's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applies to all directors, officers and employees of FNCB and provides guidelines for those covered persons who may have a potential or apparent conflict of interest. Pursuant to the Code, a "conflict of interest" exists any time a covered person's private interest interferes/conflicts, or even appears to interfere/conflict, in any way with the interests of FNCB and the Bank. Under the Code, if a conflict of interest arises, the Board must act with care to avoid even the appearance that any actions were not in the best interest of FNCB and the Bank.

Board of Directors' approval is required for FNCB to do business with a company in which a member of the Board of Directors, an officer, an employee or a family member of a director, officer or employee owns, directly or indirectly, an interest. To identify related party transactions, each year, FNCB submits and requires its directors and officers to complete Director and Officer Questionnaires identifying any transaction with FNCB or any of its subsidiaries in which the officer or director or their family members have an interest. The Board of Directors reviews related party transactions due to the potential for a conflict of interest. Each year, FNCB's directors and executive officers also review our Code.

Additionally, FNCB has further obligations for the review and approval of loans that are made to directors and officers pursuant to Regulation O (Loans to Executive Officers, Directors and Principal Shareholders of Member Banks) and FNCB's written Loan Policy. Any business dealing, including extensions of credit, between FNCB or the Bank and a director or officer of FNCB or the Bank, or with an affiliate of a director or officer, other than a deposit, trust service or other product or service provided by a bank in the ordinary course of business, is required to be approved by a majority of disinterested directors. In considering a proposed insider transaction, the disinterested directors are to reasonably determine whether the transaction would be in the best interest of FNCB or the Bank and whether the terms and conditions, including price, are substantially the same as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with non-insiders. The responsibility for monitoring compliance with Regulation O rests with the Bank's Credit Administration Unit and Internal Auditor as required by the Bank's Loan Policy.

There were no loan transactions originated during 2018 which were required to be reported where such policy and procedures were not followed. Except for those loans described in more detail below, loans to directors, executive officers and their related parties (i) were made in the ordinary course of business, (ii) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons not related to FNCB or Bank and (iii) did not involve more than the normal risk of collection or present other unfavorable features. Each of these transactions was made in compliance with applicable law, including the Exchange Act and the Federal Reserve Board Regulation O.

At December 31, 2018 and 2017, FNCB had $5.0 million in unsecured subordinated debentures due September 1, 2019 (the "Notes"), of which $3.1 million were held by directors and/or their related parties. PROPOSAL 3

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

As discussed in the Audit Committee Report in this proxy statement, Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP (“Baker Tilly”), an independent registered public accounting firm, audited the consolidated financial statements of FNCB for the year ended December 31, 2018.

FNCB is asking the shareholders to ratify the Audit Committee’s appointment of Baker Tilly as FNCB’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2019. In the event the shareholders fail to ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider this appointment. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if the Audit Committee determines that such a change would be in FNCB’s and its shareholders’ best interests.

A representative of Baker Tilly is expected to be present at the annual meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so, and will also be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Required Vote

The ratification of the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the annual meeting.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL

OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires FNCB's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of FNCB's equity securities ("10% Shareholders") to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors and 10% Shareholders are required to furnish FNCB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

FNCB reviewed the copies of such reports received and the written representations from the officers, directors and 10% shareholders. Based on this review, FNCB believes that all such filing requirements were met during 2018, except for seven Forms 4 for the purchase of common stock by Vithalbhai D. Dhaduk, M.D., a director, jointly with his wife that were filed with respect to nine transactions. Due to an administrative error the Forms 4 were filed 14, 13, 12, 7, 6, 3 and 1 day(s) late, respectively. Additionally, Dr. Dhaduk, jointly with his wife, purchased 533 shares of common stock on June 7, 2018. A Form 4 was required to be filed for this transaction on June 11, 2018. Due to an administrative error, Dr. Dhaduk reported the transaction 248 days late on Form 5 on February 14, 2019.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no other business which will be presented for consideration at the meeting other than as stated in the Notice of Meeting. However, if other matters properly come before the meeting, the shares of common stock represented by the signed proxies will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors, and authority to do so is included in the proxy.
