Inspectors: The directors, in advance of any meeting, may, but need not, appoint one or more inspectors of election to act at the meeting, or any adjournment thereof or prior to the effectiveness of the written consent. If an inspector or inspectors are not appointed, the person presiding at the meeting or prior to the effectiveness of the written consent may, but need not, appoint one or more inspectors. In case any person who may be appointed as an inspector fails to appear or act, the vacancy may be filled by appointment made by the directors in advance of the meeting or at the meeting by the person presiding thereat or prior to the effectiveness of the written consent. Each inspector, if any, before entering upon the discharge of duties of inspector, shall take and sign an oath to faithfully execute the duties of an inspector at such meeting, or prior to the effectiveness of the written consent with strict impartiality and according to the best of such inspector’s ability. The inspectors, if any, shall: (a) determine the number of shares of stock outstanding and the voting power of each; (b) determine the shares of stock represented at the meeting or the written consent, (c) determine the existence of a quorum, and the validity and effect of proxies; (d) receive votes, ballots, or consents; (e) hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count, and tabulate all votes, ballots, or consents; (f) determine the number of votes required and its result; and (g) do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all stockholders. On request of the person presiding at the meeting or prior to the effectiveness of the written consent, the inspector or inspectors, if any, shall make a report in writing of any challenge, question, or matter determined by such inspector or inspectors, and execute a certificate of any fact found by such inspector or inspectors.
