Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On August 27, 2008 we issued a press release reporting, among other things, our sales and operating results for the second quarter ended August 2, 2008 and providing our initial earnings outlook for the second half ending January 31, 2009. The press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

The press release contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 concerning appointments of executives, our operations, performance, and financial condition. Such forward- looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated. Such risks and uncertainties may include, but are not limited to: the failure to consummate the sale of our non-core misses apparel catalogs to Orchard Brands; the failure to sell the misses apparel catalog credit card receivables to Alliance Data Systems; the failure to sell Figi's; the failure to find a suitable permanent replacement for our former Chief Executive Officer within a reasonable time period; the failure to consummate our identified strategic solution for our other non-core assets; the failure to effectively implement our planned consolidation; cost and capital budget reduction plans; the failure to implement our business plan for increased profitability and growth in our retail stores and direct-to-consumer segments; the failure to effectively implement our plans for consolidation of the Catherines Plus Sizes brand; a new organizational structure and enhancements in our merchandise and marketing; the failure to generate a positive response to our new Lane Bryant catalog and the Lane Bryant credit card program; the failure to successfully implement our expansion of Cacique through new store formats; the failure to achieve improvement in our competitive position; adverse changes in costs vital to catalog operations, such as postage, paper and acquisition of prospects; declining response rates to catalog offerings; the failure to maintain efficient and uninterrupted order-taking and fulfillment in our direct-to-consumer business; changes in or miscalculation of fashion trends; extreme or unseasonable weather conditions; economic downturns; escalation of energy costs; a weakness in overall consumer demand; the failure to find suitable store locations; increases in wage rates; the ability to hire and train associates; trade and security restrictions and political or financial instability in countries where goods are manufactured; the interruption of merchandise flow from our centralized distribution facilities; competitive pressures; and the adverse effects of natural disasters, war, acts of terrorism or threats of either, or other armed conflict, on the United States and international economies. These, and other risks and uncertainties, are detailed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 2, 2008, our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We assume no duty to update or revise our forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.

In accordance with general instruction B.2 to Form 8-K, the information included in this Item 2.02, and the exhibit attached hereto, shall be deemed to be "furnished" and shall not be deemed to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
