Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure

On January 17, 2002, Kimberly-Clark Corporation filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission in order to furnish investors with a summary of the Company's sales and operating profit by business segment for 1999, 2000 and the first nine months of 2001. The information furnished on January 17, 2002 has been further reclassified with respect to the reported operating profit of the Consumer Tissue and Business to Business Segments for the year 1999 and for each quarter and the full year 2000. The summary including the further reclassified information is furnished on Exhibit 99 attached hereto.

This information reflects the newly defined business segments of the Company as a result of recent organizational changes. The new business segments are Personal Care, Consumer Tissue and Business to Business.

Edgar Filing: KIMBERLY CLARK CORP - Form 8-K

The reclassifications of historical financial information are consistent with the Company's announcement during a November 30, 2001 web-casted conference call. Sales and operating profit of K-C Professional and Neenah Paper have been removed from the former Tissue segment and included in the new Business to Business segment along with the Company's Health Care, Nonwovens and Technical Paper operations that formerly constituted the Health Care and Other segment. The now smaller Tissue segment has been renamed Consumer Tissue. The Personal Care segment has not changed.
