INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

ITEM 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 29, 2005, Modine Manufacturing Company (“Modine”) entered into a Note Purchase Agreement among American Family Life Insurance Company, Country Life Insurance Company, Modern Woodmen of America, MTL Insurance Company, The Prudential Life Insurance Company Ltd., Prudential Retirement Insurance and Annuity Company, Standard Insurance Company, State Farm Life and Accident Assurance Company, State Farm Life Insurance Company, State of Wisconsin Investment Board and Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society for the issuance and sale by Modine in a private placement of 4.91% Senior Notes due September 29, 2015 (the “Notes”) in an aggregate principal amount of $75,000,000 (the “Note Purchase Agreement”). Key Banc Capital Markets, a division of McDonald Investments Inc., acted as Modine’s agent with respect to the placement of the Notes.

Modine will use the proceeds from the sale of the Notes for general corporate purposes, including the payment of debt.

Modine will pay the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding on September 29, 2015. Modine may prepay the Notes subject to certain restrictions and the payment of a make-whole amount. Interest on the Notes of 4.91% is payable semiannually until the principal shall have become due and payable. To the extent permitted by law, upon the occurrence of an event of default, interest shall accrue on any amount due at a rate equal to the greater of 6.91% or 2.0% over prime as announced by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. The payment by Modine of all amounts due with respect to the Notes and the performance by Modine under the Note Purchase Agreement are absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed by Modine’s domestic subsidiaries.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains customary covenants (including compliance with laws, maintenance of insurance, keeping of books, conduct of business, maintenance of properties, payment of taxes, inspection of records, furnishing of quarterly and annual financial statements, quarterly compliance certificates and other financial information).

The Note Purchase Agreement also contains customary restrictive covenants including certain restrictions on the following:

- Other indebtedness, including that of guarantor subsidiaries;
 - Consolidations and mergers;
 - Sale of assets;
- Investments, loans and advances;
 - Liens and encumbrances;
- Transactions with affiliates; and
- Modine’s Total Debt to EBITDA ratio.

The Note Purchase Agreement sets forth certain events of default including Modine’s (i) failure to pay any principal or make whole amount when due; (ii) failure to pay interest on the Notes when due; (iii) default in the performance of the covenants regarding providing notice of default, limitation on debt and limitation on liens and sale of assets; (iv) default in the observance or performance of other covenants for 30 days after written notice; (v) representation or warranty in the Note Purchase Agreement proves to have been false or incorrect in any material respect on the date as of which it was made; (vi) default in the payment on any outstanding debt in an aggregate principal amount of at least $20,000,000; (vii) becoming subject to bankruptcy events; (viii) becoming subject to one or more unpaid judgments in excess of $20,000,000; (ix) becoming subject to liability under ERISA or having certain events occur under ERISA covered plans that would have a material adverse affect on Modine; and (x) subsidiary guarantees ceasing to be valid. Except as described below, upon the happening of any event of default, the holder or holders of not less than 51% in principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding may at any time at its or their option, by notice or notices to Modine, declare all the notes then outstanding to be immediately due and payable. If an event of default with respect to the payment of principal or interest on the Notes occurs, any holder or holders of the Notes at the time outstanding affected by such event of default may at any time at its or their option, by notice or notices to Modine, declare all of the Notes held by it or them to be immediately due and payable. If an event of default with respect to bankruptcy proceedings occurs, all of the Notes then outstanding will become immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of any holders of the Notes.

There are no material relationships between Modine and any of the purchasers except that an affiliate of The Prudential Life Insurance Company Ltd. and Prudential Retirement Insurance and Annuity Company was a party to a Note Purchase Agreement with Modine. Modine's obligation under such agreement was extinguished with the proceeds of this offering.

The foregoing description of the Note Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Note Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report.
