MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Company has established an audit committee and a compensation committee. These committees are composed entirely of outside directors. The Board has also created other company-wide committees composed of officers of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company does not maintain any standing nominating committee. The full Board acts on all matters relating to the nomination of individuals for election as directors.

Members of the audit committee are Messrs. Adams, Diepholz, Grissom, Marvin, Melvin, and Sparks, and Ms. Preston. The audit committee reports to the Board of Directors and has the responsibility for reviewing and approving internal control procedures, accounting practices and reporting activities of the Company's subsidiaries. The committee also has the responsibility for establishing and maintaining communications between the Board and the independent auditors and regulatory agencies. The audit committee reviews with the independent auditors the scope of their examinations, with particular emphasis on the areas to which either the audit committee or the auditors believe special attention should be directed. It also reviews the examination reports of regulatory agencies and reports to the full Board regarding matters discussed therein. Finally, it oversees the establishment and maintenance of effective controls over the business operations of the Company's subsidiaries. The audit committee met five times in 2002.

The members of the compensation committee are Messrs. Adams, Diepholz, Grissom, Lumpkin, Marvin, Melvin, and Sparks, and Ms. Preston. The compensation committee reports to the Board of Directors and has responsibility for all matters related to compensation of executive officers of the Company, including review and approval of base salaries, conducting a review of salaries of executive officers compared to other financial services companies in the region, fringe benefits, including modification of the retirement plan, and incentive compensation. The compensation committee met two times in 2002.

A total of 14 regularly scheduled and special meetings were held by the Board of Directors of the Company during 2002. During 2002, all directors attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the Board and the committees on which they served, except for Mr. Lumpkin with respect to meetings of the Board.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The members of the audit committee of the Company during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 were Messrs. Sparks (Chairman), Adams, Diepholz,

Edgar Filing: FIRST MID ILLINOIS BANCSHARES INC - Form DEF 14A

Grissom, Marvin, and Melvin, and Ms. Preston. Mr. Marvin was appointed to the audit committee on July 1, 2002.

The audit committee acts pursuant to a written charter that was adopted by the Board of Directors on January 23, 2001. The charter was reviewed and reassessed for adequacy and adopted with no changes to the original language by the Audit Committee on each of January 22, 2002 and January 28, 2003. The audit committee will continue to review and reassess the charter from time to time but not less than annually.

The audit committee reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements as of and for fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

The audit committee also discussed with the independent auditors, KPMG LLP, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The audit committee received the written disclosures and the letter from KPMG LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, and discussed with KPMG LLP the independence of that firm.

Based on the review and discussion referred to above, the audit committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

In addition, the audit committee considered whether the provision of services by KPMG LLP not related to the audit of the financial statements referred to above and to the reviews of the interim financial statements included in the Company's Forms 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2002, June 30, 2002, and September 30, 2002 were compatible with maintaining the independence of KPMG LLP.

This audit committee report is submitted by the audit committee of the Board of Directors:

Ray Anthony Sparks, Chairman
Charles A. Adams
Kenneth R. Diepholz
Steven L. Grissom
Daniel E. Marvin, Jr.

Employment Agreements. In January 2002, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with William S. Rowland. The employment agreement generally provides for an initial base salary, which may be increased but not decreased, and a bonus of up to 40% of base salary for 2002 and 50% for 2003, as well as other benefits under the agreement. The agreement has an initial term of three years, which may be extended upon mutual agreement. In the event of termination of Mr. Rowland's employment by the Company without cause, the Company will be obligated to pay an amount equal to one year's salary. Under certain circumstances, if Mr. Rowland's employment discontinues following a change in control of the Company, the successor to the Company is obligated, among other things, to pay an amount equal to two years' base salary. The employment agreement includes a covenant which limits the ability of Mr. Rowland to compete with the Bank for a period of two years following the termination of his employment. In October 2002, the Company entered into a similar agreement with John W. Hedges, which provides for a bonus of up to 35% of base salary, and a payment in an amount equal to one year's base salary if employment discontinues following a change in control of the Company.

In August 2000, the Company entered into a similar agreement with Robert J. Gilliland, which provides for a bonus of up to 25% of base salary and a payment in an amount equal to one year's base salary if employment discontinues following a change in control of the Company. In May 2001, the Company entered into a similar agreement with Michael L. Diepholz (Chairman), Adams, Grissom, Lumpkin, Marvin, Melvin, and Sparks, and Ms. Preston. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, no member of the compensation committee was an officer or employee or a former officer of the Company or its subsidiaries, other than Mr. Marvin, the former Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Also, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, Mr. Rowland served as a member of the compensation committee and as director, and Mr. Grissom served as Treasurer, of Coles Together, a not-for-profit economic development organization, and Mr. Hedges served as a member of the compensation committee and as director, and Mr. Grissom served as President, of Mattoon Area Industrial Development Corporation, a not-for-profit industrial development corporation. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions."

Compensation Committee Report. It is the compensation committee's responsibility to evaluate the performance of management, review total management compensation levels and consider management succession and other related matters. The committee reviews and approves in detail all aspects of compensation for the senior management of the Company.

Compensation for senior management generally includes base salary, annual performance-based incentives and long-term stock incentives. The Committee uses a "peer group" of financial institutions, including Illinois banks, public banking companies in the general area and commercial banks in the Midwest region in assessing competitive compensation trends and pay levels.

Edgar Filing: FIRST MID ILLINOIS BANCSHARES INC - Form DEF 14A

Base Salaries. Base salaries for executive officers are reviewed annually and may be adjusted, when appropriate, to reflect competitive practices, changes in roles and responsibilities, and individual performance.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Annual incentive amounts are payable contingent upon the performance of the Company, as well as the individual contribution of each officer. As a result, a portion of each executive officer's annual compensation is based upon the officer's performance, the performance of the operating unit for which the officer has primary responsibility, and the performance of the Company as a whole. The formulas for measuring performance and awarding bonuses objectively link financial and individual performance with bonus amounts.

Long Term Stock Incentive Compensation. Stock incentive awards are made under the stockholder-approved First Mid-Illinois Bancshares, Inc. 1997 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is intended to provide a means whereby executive officers may sustain a sense of proprietorship and personal involvement in the continued success of the Company, and to encourage them to remain with and devote their best efforts to the business of the Company, thereby advancing the interest of the Company and its stockholders.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The compensation package for Mr. Rowland was determined in the same manner as for all other executive officers, except for Mr. Rowland's annual incentive compensation as described below. In December 2001, the compensation committee reviewed Mr. Rowland's base salary by evaluating the responsibilities of his position and his experience and performance. In addition, the compensation committee reviewed the comparison to base salaries for chief executive officers at peer group companies, and determined to increase Mr. Rowland's 2002 base salary from $170,000 in 2001 to $187,000 for 2002. Mr. Rowland's 2002 annual incentive compensation was based 100% on the Company's total performance without reference to any particular operating unit of the Company or personal objectives. The Company's total performance was measured by comparing the financial results of the Company to the 2002 net income goal established by the compensation committee in December 2001. The compensation committee established $7,800,000 as the superior level of net income in 2002 necessary for Mr. Rowland to receive a payout of 100% of his annual incentive compensation. Since net income in 2002 was $8,034,000, Mr. Rowland received this 100% payout, amounting to 40% of his base salary. Finally, in 2002, Mr. Rowland was awarded 8,000 stock options under the Plan.

The 2002 net income of $8,034,000 represented a $1,518,000 or 23.3% improvement from 2001's level. Also, the Company's market share increased and various other improvements were made in the Company's operating and administrative functions. Accordingly, Messrs. Rowland, Hedges, Swift, Gilliland, and Taylor were awarded incentive bonuses of $74,800, $40,950, $23,719, $23,409, and $22,443, respectively.

The relationships between the base salaries and incentive compensation of Messrs. Rowland, Hedges, Swift, Gilliland, and Taylor for 2002, 2001, and 2000 were as follows:

Incentive Compensation as a Percentage of Base Salary

	2002 ----	2001 ----	2000 ----
William S. Rowland	40%	28%	30%
John W. Hedges	32%	24%	26%
Robert J. Swift, Jr.	19%	20%	--
Stanley E. Gilliland	21%	20%	21%
Michael L. Taylor	24%	24%	21%
