INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Policy Committee of The Procter & Gamble Profit Sharing Trust and Employee Stock Ownership Plan and The Trustees of The Procter & Gamble Profit Sharing Trust and Employee Stock Ownership Plan:

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of The Procter & Gamble Profit Sharing Trust and Employee Stock Ownership Plan (Plan) as of June 30, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan at June 30, 2001 and 2000, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedules listed in the Table of Contents are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements, but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. These schedules are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Such schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic 2001 financial statements and, in our opinion, are fairly stated in all material respects when considered in relation to the basic 2001 financial statements taken as a whole.

THE PROCTER & GAMBLE PROFIT SHARING TRUST AND EMPLOYEE STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED JUNE 30, 2001 AND 2000

1. PLAN DESCRIPTION

GENERAL - The Procter & Gamble Profit Sharing Trust and Employee Stock Ownership Plan (Plan) is a defined contribution plan covering substantially all domestic employees of The Procter & Gamble Company and certain of its subsidiaries (Company). Effective July 1, 2000 and January 1, 2001, employees of Recovery Engineering, Inc. and IAMS, respectively, are eligible to participate in the Plan. The Plan is comprised of two trusts, the Retirement Trust (RT) and the Employee Stock Ownership Trust (ESOT). These financial statements include the RT and the ESOT. The Plan is funded through both Company and employee contributions. Effective July 1, 1998 and November 1, 1998, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the mergers of The P&G/Noxell Transitional Profit Sharing Trust (Noxell) and the Sundor Brands Profit Sharing Plan, respectively, into the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The Plan document should be referred to for the complete text of the Plan agreement.

The ESOT was established by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company on January 10, 1989. During March 1989, the ESOT borrowed $1,000,000,000 (see Note 7) and, with the proceeds from such borrowings, purchased 9,090,909 shares of The Procter & Gamble Company Series A ESOP Convertible Class A Preferred Stock (Series A Preferred Stock) (see Note 5). The number of shares initially issued increased to 72,727,272 as a result of the two-for-one stock splits effective October 20, 1989, May 15, 1992, and August 22, 1997. As a means of extending the benefits of the ESOP to participants over a longer period, the ESOT entered into a term loan agreement with the Company under which outstanding borrowings were $67,600,000 and $23,600,000 as of June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively (see Note 7). These shares of Series A Preferred Stock are utilized to fund a portion of the Company's annual profit sharing contribution to the Plan.

In May 1990, the Company's Board of Directors authorized an amendment to the Plan to establish a separate account in accordance with Section 401(h) of the Internal Revenue Code to fund a portion of the Company's postretirement obligation for retired Plan participants satisfying certain requirements specified in the Plan agreement. This amendment became effective July 1, 1990. During November 1990, the ESOT borrowed $1,000,000,000 (see Note 8) and with the proceeds from such borrowings, purchased 9,571,209 shares of The Procter & Gamble Company Series B ESOP Convertible Class A Preferred Stock (Series B Preferred Stock) (see Note 6). The number of outstanding shares increased to 38,284,836 as a result of the two-for-one stock splits effective May 15, 1992 and August 22,

1997. In June 1993 these shares were exchanged for an equal number of shares with identical terms, except for amended restrictions on transfer (see Note 6). These shares are available to fund postretirement benefits and may not be used for profit sharing purposes, except as permitted under certain provisions in the Plan document.

At June 30, 2001 and 2000, the net assets available to the ESOT to satisfy a portion of the postretirement benefits were $1,333,829,932 and $1,122,282,872, respectively. The related postretirement obligations are not a component of this Plan's obligations but are included in the financial statements of a separate health and welfare plan sponsored by the Company.

The balances in the investments and liabilities held in the ESOT related to Series A and B Preferred Stock and other are summarized as follows for the years ended June 30, 2001 and 2000.

PARTICIPANT ACCOUNTS AND INVESTMENT OPTIONS - Each participant's account is credited with the allocation of Company contributions (see Note 9), his or her employee contributions (see Note 10) and Plan earnings. All such participant accounts are maintained in the RT. Company contributions are allocated based on participant base earnings and Plan credit years, as defined in the Plan document. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the vested benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

Prior to July 1, 2000, a participant could choose to receive directly some or all of the quarterly dividends earned on the shares of Company common stock within his or her account in cash. Additionally, the Plan paid quarterly dividends earned on the shares of Company common stock held within a participant's account, as elected by each participant, directly to the participant (automatic dividends). Because the automatic dividends paid to the participant correspond with the amount of the automatic salary contribution by the participant, the amount of automatic dividends paid is subject to IRS limitations. A portion of a participant's pre-tax compensation was deferred and contributed to their Plan account to offset the automatic dividends (automatic salary contribution). All automatic salary contributions to the Plan were invested in Company common stock.

Effective July 1, 2000, dividends earned on the shares of Company common stock within a participant's account will automatically be distributed to the participant as part of his or her compensation, subject to IRS limitations. Dividends earned on the shares of Company preferred stock within a participant's account will automatically be distributed to the participant as part of his or her compensation, subject to IRS limitations and will only occur to non-highly compensated participants. Any dividend not distributed to a participant will be reinvested in the Plan. At the same time the dividend is distributed, the Company will reduce the participant's wages by the amount of the dividend. The Company will then allocate a discretionary contribution consisting of Series A Preferred Stock to the participant's account that is equal to the amount of the dividend. The discretionary contribution will be used to prepay debt on the Plan's note payable (Series A Preferred Stock), resulting in the release of Series A Preferred Stock equal to the aggregate dividend.

Vested participants may allocate the portion of the annual Company contribution received in cash between the money market fund, short-term investments, JP Morgan bond fund, and common stock of the Company. In addition, certain participants retain investments in group deferred annuities; however, contributions and transfers to this fund are no longer permitted. Effective July 1, 2000, employee contributions and account balances of vested participants that have reached the age of fifty may be allocated to the investment options that were previously only available to Retirement Plus participants as well as to the investments options previously described. A description of the investment options is as follows:

COMMON STOCK FUND - A fund investing in shares of Company common stock.

DEFERRED ANNUITIES FUND - A fund investing in guaranteed investment contracts with various insurance companies.

MONEY MARKET FUND AND SHORT-TERM INVESTMENTS - Funds investing in commercial paper, short-term U.S. Government securities and various short-term bank funds.

JP MORGAN BOND FUND - The prospectus indicates that this fund invests in a broad diversity of publicly traded and privately placed bonds.

Effective July 1, 2001, the Plan has added the JP Morgan International Equity Fund and the JP Morgan Small Company Fund as investment options to participants. In addition to the previously described changes effective July 1, 2000, the Retirement Plus feature allows a retiree or a vested former employee with account balances equal to or greater than $3,500 to maintain some or all of his or her funds in the Plan. If a participant chooses the Retirement Plus option, he or she must maintain at least 50% (40% effective July 1, 2000) of his or her account balance invested in Company common stock. Also, all common and Series A Preferred Stock dividends are paid in cash to the participant. A participant may elect to distribute all or a portion of his or her account balance at anytime in accordance with the Plan document. Each participant's account is credited with an allocation of Plan earnings. In addition to the investment options described previously for vested participants, this feature also offers the following investment options:

JP MORGAN U.S. LARGE COMPANY STOCK FUND - The prospectus indicates that this fund invests in equity securities of approximately 300 domestic, large company stocks.

JP MORGAN PRE-MIXED FUND A - The prospectus indicates that this fund invests in money market instruments (50%), bonds (30%), U.S. large company stocks (10%), international stocks (6%) and U.S. small company stocks (4%).

JP MORGAN PRE-MIXED FUND B - The prospectus indicates that this fund invests in bonds (40%), U.S. large company stocks (25%), international stocks (15%), U.S. small company stocks (10%) and money market instruments (10%).

JP MORGAN PRE-MIXED FUND C - The prospectus indicates that this fund invests in U.S. large company stocks (40%), international stocks (24%), U.S. small company stocks (16%), money market instruments (10%) and bonds (10%).

Effective with the merger of Noxell into the Plan, the former Noxell participants could retain their balances in the Discretionary Contribution Fund and American Express Trust Income Fund investment options. Effective July 1, 1998, all contributions to these funds were discontinued. Effective March 19, 2001, the assets of the Discretionary Contribution Fund were liquidated and reallocated to the investment options available under the Plan. Former Noxell participants may transfer balances from the American Express Trust Income Fund into any of the other investment options offered by the Plan, as described above. Descriptions of the American Express Trust Income Fund is as follows:

AMERICAN EXPRESS TRUST INCOME FUND - The prospectus indicates that this fund invests in guaranteed investment contracts with varying maturities, sizes and yields.

VESTING - A participant is fully vested in employee contributions and automatic salary contributions plus actual earnings thereon in his or her account regardless of years of service. Vesting in the Company contribution portion of their accounts plus actual earnings thereon is based on years of service. A participant is fully vested in Company contributions plus actual earnings thereon in his or her account after five years of service, but with the Company's additional preferred contributions, the participant is immediately 100% vested.

PAYMENT OF BENEFITS - Retired or terminated employees may maintain their accounts within the Plan until reaching the federal mandatory distribution age (70 1/2). Upon election of a distribution, a vested participant may elect to receive (1) all or a partial amount in cash, securities and annuities in his or her account or (2) an annuity purchased for the value of his or her account. In addition to the above alternatives, a retired vested participant electing a distribution may also elect to receive annual distributions of cash and securities in his or her account on a pro-rata basis not to exceed the lesser of 20 years or the participant's life expectancy. Effective July 1, 2000, active participants are permitted to receive annual in-service withdrawals up to 2% of their account balance.

PLAN TERMINATION - Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time, provided that the Company's $300 million guarantee described in footnote nine is satisfied, and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants will become fully vested in their entire accounts and the net assets of the Plan will be distributed to the participants in an order of priority determined in accordance with ERISA and its applicable regulations and the Plan document.

LOAN PROVISION - The Plan allows participants to borrow funds from their accounts in certain circumstances up to maximum amounts specified in the Plan agreement and at an interest rate equal to the prime rate plus 1%. Loans are repayable through payroll deductions of principal and interest over a maximum term of 60 months (120 months if the loan is to purchase a primary residence). Effective March 19, 2001, participants may take loans against Convertible Class A Preferred Stock.

FORFEITURES - Participants who terminate service prior to vesting forfeit their account balance. The Company applies forfeited amounts against the annual contribution.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING - The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and the Plan's net assets and transactions are recorded at fair value. Fair value of the Company common stock is determined by composite trading prices on the New York Stock Exchange. The Company's common stock, included in the Plan's statements of net assets, is recorded at $63.80 and $57.25 per share as of June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Fair value of Series A and Series B Preferred Stock is determined as the greater of the fair value of the Company's common stock as defined in the Plan agreement or $13.75 (Series A) and $26.12 (Series B) per share (see Notes 5 and 6). The Series A and Series B Preferred Stock, included in the Plan's statements of net assets, is recorded at $63.80 and $57.25 per share as of June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Deferred annuities are recorded at contract value, which approximates fair value. Mutual funds (funds) are valued by the fund managers, J.P. Morgan Investment Management, Inc. and Barclays Global Investors, based upon the fair values of the funds' underlying investments. Loans to participants are valued at the unpaid principal balance. The cost of securities sold, transferred or distributed is determined by the weighted average cost of securities allocated to the participant's account.

USE OF ESTIMATES - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

EXPENSES OF THE PLAN - All administrative expenses of the Plan are paid by the Company, provided however, that investment expenses shall be paid by the Plan to the extent that such expenses are not paid by the Company. Any such expenses paid by the Plan are netted with investment income on the financial statements and approximated $1,467,000 and $1,072,000 in 2001 and 2000, respectively.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES - On January 1, 2001, the Plan adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended by SFAS No. 138, Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments and Certain Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 133 establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and for hedging activities. It requires that all derivatives, including those embedded in other contracts, be recognized as either assets or liabilities and that those financial instruments be measured at fair value. The adoption of this standard did not have a material effect on the Plan's financial statements.

3. INCOME TAX STATUS

The Plan is intended to qualify under the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") as exempt from Federal income taxes. The Plan received a favorable determination letter from the IRS dated November 14, 2000, in which the IRS stated the Plan was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the plan administrator believes that the Plan is designed and currently being operated in compliance with the applicable provisions of the IRC.

4. PARTY-IN-INTEREST INVESTMENTS AND TRANSACTIONS

The Company is a party-in-interest, as defined by ERISA. During the Plan years ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, borrowings outstanding under the term loan agreement (see Note 7) between the Company and the ESOT were $67,600,000 and $23,600,000, respectively. 5. SERIES A PREFERRED STOCK

Additionally, in order to make a distribution to a participant, the Series A Preferred Stock can be "put" to the Company at its liquidation value plus accrued dividends. Hence, upon distribution, participants will receive $13.75 per share of Series A Preferred Stock plus accrued dividends, or one share of the Company's common stock, whichever has a higher value. Participants must receive distributions of cash or common stock upon election of a distribution from the Plan. Participants age 55 to 59 may also elect to convert up to 25% of their shares of Series A Preferred Stock to alternative investments which are held by the RT. This conversion option increases to 50% at age 60. The fair value of the Company's common stock as of June 30, 2001 and 2000 was $63.80 and $57.25, respectively, per share. VOTING RIGHTS - Each share is entitled to a number of votes equal to the

On March 3, 1999, the ESOT entered into a term loan agreement ("loan") with the Company under which it could borrow a total principal amount up to $365,500,000. Under the terms of the loan agreement, the Plan elected to make a prepayment of $88,500,000 during 2000 that was applied against the unpaid loan balance. The Plan, which borrowed $44,000,000 during 2001, may borrow a total principal amount up to $277,000,000. Principal borrowings allowed for the years ended June 30, 2002 through 2004 are as follows: 2002 - $57,000,000; 2003 - $69,600,000; 2004 - $82,800,000. 9. COMPANY CONTRIBUTION Annual credits to participants' accounts are based on individual base salary and years of service not exceeding 15% of total compensation of Plan participants as defined in the Plan agreement. The Company's contribution is reduced by the value of Series A Preferred Stock released and available for allocation to ESOT participant accounts in accordance with terms specified in the Plan agreement (see Note 5). The Company also funds a portion of principal and interest payments on the notes payable and debentures through contributions to the ESOT (see Notes 7 and 8). Beginning in 1997 and subsequently modified in 1999, the Company's cash contribution is guaranteed up to $300 million above and beyond the benefit funded by the shares released by the ESOT as specified in the Plan document.

Beginning July 1, 1997, the Company granted one share of Company common stock to all new employees who become participants in the Plan. The additional share was credited to each participant's account. The amount contributed to these shares is reported as contributions from the Company in the Plan's financial statements. Effective July 1, 2000 new Plan participants no longer receive one share of Company common stock.
