TELEFONICA MOVILES COMPLETES THE ACQUISITION OF 100% OF BELLSOUTH'S MOBILE OPERATORS IN ECUADOR, GUATEMALA AND PANAMA

These transactions mark the close of the first stage of acquisitions in the agreement between the Telefonica Group and BellSouth whereby Telefonica Moviles will acquire BellSouth's cellular assets in ten countries in Latin America.

- The company expects to acquire the rest of the operators during the course of 2004.

Madrid, 14 October 2004.-

Telefonica Moviles, the company that manages all the Telefonica Group's cellular assets, has completed the acquisition of 100% of BellSouth's mobile operators in Ecuador, Guatemala and Panama.

These transactions mark the close of the first stage of acquisitions in the agreement reached between the Telefonica Group and BellSouth last March 8, whereby Telefonica Moviles will acquire all BellSouth's cellular assets in Latin America, which comprised some 12.5 million customers in 10 countries at the end of the first half of 2004.

The company expects to acquire the rest of the operators over the course of 2004, now that it has obtained the required authorisations from the regulators in most of the countries.

"By acquiring these three companies, we are meeting our goal of completing the purchases of the 10 operators in 2004," said Telefonica Moviles Chairman and CEO, Antonio Viana-Baptista. "These acquisitions are very positive for Telefonica Moviles. Our aim is for the Group's new operators to capture a large part of the growth potential of the cellular markets in Ecuador, Guatemala and Panama. To achieve this, we are combining the renowned prestige and professional skills of the management of these companies with Telefonica Moviles' global leadership in adding the most innovative mobile telephony solutions to its subsidiaries' offerings".

The operators acquired

Edgar Filing: TELEFONICA S A - Form 6-K

Telefonica Moviles has acquired the operators in Ecuador, Guatemala and Panama for a total enterprise value of 1,665 million dollars, after obtaining the necessary permission from the countries' respective authorities.

Ecuador

Telefonica Moviles has become Ecuador' s number-two mobile telephony operator, with a customer base of over one million at the end of the first half of 2004. The operator acquired has an estimated 36% share of a market of approximately 13.2 million inhabitants and an estimated penetration rate of 22%. The cost of acquiring all of the Ecuadorian company is 833 million dollars.

Guatemala

Adding together Telefonica Moviles Guatemala' s existing operation and BellSouth Guatemala, Telefonica Moviles will have some 567,000 customers in that country at the end of the first semester of 2004 and an estimated 26% share of a market of approximately 11.5 million inhabitants, with an estimated penetration rate of 19%.

Telefonica Moviles acquired 60% of the BellSouth operator from BellSouth itself, while Multiholding has joined this agreement and will sell Telefonica Moviles the remaining 40%. The cost of acquiring all of the Guatemalan company is 175 million dollars.

Panama

Telefonica Moviles has acquired a company in Panama with more than 502,000 customers at the end of the first semester of 2004, with an estimated 50% share of a market of approximately 3.1 million inhabitants, with an estimated penetration rate of 33%.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired 43.7% of BellSouth' s operator from BellSouth itself, while Multiholding has joined this agreement and will sell Telefonica Moviles the remaining 56.3%. The cost of acquiring all of the Panamanian company is some 657 million dollars.

The purchases of Multiholding' s stakes in Guatemala and Panama were based on the same valuation criteria used in the acquisition of BellSouth' s participations. The closings of these acquisitions are to be carried out in the short term.

The three operators acquired had combined revenues of 482 million dollars and EBITDA of 180 million dollars in 2003.

In all, BellSouth' s 10 cellular operators in Latin America had revenues of 2,501 million dollars and EBITDA of 867 million dollars in 2003.

Telefonica Moviles assumes management of the operators in Ecuador, Guatemala and Panama as of today. These operators will maintain their brand names and commercial systems until their commercial platforms are integrated into those of the Telefonica Moviles Group.

The overall agreement with BellSouth

Under the overall agreement reached by Telefonica Group for Telefonica Moviles to acquire BellSouth' s Latin American 10 cellular operators, the transaction values 100% of the 10 companies (firm value) at 5,850 million dollars, to be financed with cash flow generated by Telefonica Moviles and debt.

The transaction makes Telefonica Moviles the world' s second-largest multinational cellular company, with more than 68 million managed customers (figures at the end of the first half of 2004), and the biggest mobile operator in Latin America, with over 47.5 million managed customers. In addition., Telefonica Moviles is the only mobile telephony company operating in all the region' s main markets, which together have over 421 million inhabitants. All this places the company in a strong position to capture the significant growth potential of the Latin American market.

Telefonica Moviles

Telefonica Moviles manages all the Telefonica Group' s cellular assets worldwide. It is one of the world' s largest mobile telephony operators and the leader in the Spanish-and Portuguese-speaking markets. It has operations on three continents and a managed customer base of over 68 million (at the end of the first half of 2004) including those of BellSouth' s operators in Latin America, whose acquisition was agreed in March this year. In 2003 Telefonica Moviles reported 10,070 million euros in operating revenues (+10.2%), EBITDA of 4,463 million euros (+19.5%) and net profit of 1,608 million euros. Telefonica Moviles is a founding member of the European mobile operators' alliance, FreeMove.

Telefonica Moviles' shares are traded on the Spanish and New York Stock Exchanges with the ticker TEM. For more information visit our website: www.telefonicamoviles.com
