Local court ruling in Mexican claims dispute

ING Comercial América, the insurance company of ING in Mexico, has been notified by a local court in Mexico City about a ruling in the judicial process with regard to a civil claim involving the Mexican company Grupo Fertinal S.A. and certain affiliates. According to this ruling, regardless of the actual damage sustained that resulted in the underlying claim, Grupo Fertinal has been awarded approximately USD 275 million under the policy, plus consequential damages of USD 25 million.

ING Comercial América is studying the ruling and intends to appeal.

ING expects that, after the final outcome of this judicial procedure, the risk in the policy will be adequately covered by provisions taken as well as reinsurance coverage.

As has previously been announced, ING Comercial América has been involved in a judicial procedure with Grupo Fertinal S.A. since the hurricane Juliette in September 2001 caused damage to mines of Fertinal in the Mexican state of Baja California Sur. The dispute involves what amounts are due for certain hurricane-related damages under the insurance policy issued to Fertinal.
