Dear Mark:

Since I have not heard from you regarding the scheduling of a meeting, I am writing to follow-up on my February email regarding your request. As you know, we value the input from all of our shareholders and I welcome the opportunity to speak with you after we release our fourth quarter and year-end results, which we have scheduled for April 9, 2008. If you would like to meet before then, I am open to arranging a meeting to listen to your views and ideas for Circuit City.

Separately, neither the board of directors nor the company has received a response to our letter of February 28, 2008, requesting meetings with your nominees to the board. Our Nominating & Governance Committee would like to have the opportunity to meet with your board nominees.

I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

/s/ Phil Schoonover
