CIRCUIT CITY AND WATTLES CAPITAL MANAGEMENT REACH AGREEMENT

Richmond, Va., May 9, 2008 - Circuit City Stores, Inc. (NYSE:CC) and Wattles Capital Management, LLC (WCM) today announced that they have reached an agreement under which Circuit City's board of directors will select three of WCM's director nominees and include them as nominees of the board at Circuit City's 2008 Annual Meeting. In addition, one of the WCM nominees will become a member of the executive committee of the Circuit City board.

As part of the agreement, WCM, which, together with its affiliates, beneficially owns approximately 11,000,000 shares of Circuit City common stock, representing approximately 6.5 percent of Circuit City's outstanding shares, has agreed not to solicit proxies in connection with the 2008 Annual Meeting; to vote its shares in support of all of the board's director nominees at the 2008 Annual Meeting; and to abide by certain confidentiality and standstill provisions through the completion of the 2009 Annual Meeting. At least two of Circuit City's current directors will either step down or decline to stand for reelection at the company's 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

We are pleased that this matter has been resolved in a manner that best serves the interests of all Circuit City shareholders, said Philip J. Schoonover, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Circuit City. Through this agreement, Circuit City and WCM will avoid a costly and disruptive proxy contest at a time when the company is exploring a full range of strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value. Our board and management team also can remain focused on serving our customers and executing our business plan as we continue to pursue the many opportunities that lie ahead for our company.

I am confident that the Circuit City board and Goldman Sachs are committed to a process that will maximize shareholder value, said Mark Wattles, founder and CEO of Wattles Capital Management. As a result, we were able to resolve our differences and will now work to support that process in any way we can.

The complete agreement will be included as an exhibit to the company's Form 8-K to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Circuit City, in a separate news release, also today announced that it is exploring strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value and, as part of that process, will allow Blockbuster Inc. (NYSE: BBI) and its largest shareholder Carl Icahn to conduct due diligence in connection with Blockbuster's proposal to acquire Circuit City.
