Palo Alto Investors Comments on Board Changes
at Gastar Exploration, Ltd.

Palo Alto, Calif. (January 14, 2010) – Palo Alto Investors, LLC, today expressed support for the changes recently announced by the Board of Directors of Gastar Exploration, Ltd. (“Gastar” or the “Company”). The Company announced, pursuant to an agreement with Palo Alto, that it would separate the roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, that John Rooney has been appointed as Chairman of the Board and that the Board was immediately appointing a new independent Director, Randolph C. Coley, who would also join the Company’s corporate governance, nominating, and audit committees. The Company further announced that an additional independent Director would be nominated for election at the Company’s 2010 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Palo Alto announced in a November 2009 Schedule 13-D filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission its intention to discuss with Gastar’s Board certain potential changes to the Company’s governance, strategy and management. Palo Alto is pleased with the actions the Company has now taken and applauds the Board for its quick and decisive action on behalf of all shareholders.

“We have always felt strongly about the need for an independent Board with a mandated separation between the Chairman and the Chief Executive roles,” commented David Anderson, Palo Alto’s head of Energy Research. “The Board also clearly recognizes the value of that structure and has acted accordingly, while also moving to strengthen the Board with two new independent Directors. We are very pleased with the appointment of Randy Coley, who we believe brings terrific insight and experience in overall corporate governance, as well as tremendous legal and financial acumen.”

Mr. Anderson further commented on the potential for Gastar: “We believe the Company has tremendous upside in its core assets in East Texas and the Marcellus shale play. With the changes being implemented by the Board, we believe the Company is well positioned to enhance value for all shareholders.”

Palo Alto Investors has been more active over the last two years in seeking positive Board and governance changes at companies in its portfolio. Mr. Anderson explained Palo Alto’s recent activism: “Our firm is known to be a value-added investor and a solid financial partner for companies in the energy industry. We seek to invest for the long term in great growth companies and have high expectations for corporate governance and the protection of shareholder interests. In today’s markets, strong independent Boards are essential to any company’s ability to manage growth for the benefit of shareholders.”
