JANA PARTNERS LLC UNVEILS PROPOSALS TO BRING SHAREHOLDER
DEMOCRACY TO INTERCEPT, INC.

Atlanta, Georgia - May 3rd, 2004 - JANA Partners LLC ("JANA") today delivered three proposals designed to increase shareholder democracy to InterCept, Inc. (NASDAQ - ICPT) ("InterCept") for inclusion among the proposals to be voted upon at the company's 2004 Annual Meeting, which is scheduled for June 24, 2004. The delivery of these proposals follows the issuance by the Atlanta Division of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia of an order requiring InterCept to allow JANA to present shareholder proposals at the annual meeting.

JANA's proposals would amend InterCept's bylaws as follows:

- o Under InterCept's current bylaws, members of the board of directors of the company may only be removed for "cause" and even if such cause exists the vote of shareholders holding two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote is required. Under JANA's proposals, holders of a majority of InterCept's shares could remove a director with or without cause at a shareholders' meeting.
- o Under InterCept's current bylaws, a vacancy on the board can only be filled by the remaining directors. Under JANA's proposals, any vacancy on the board could be filled first by the shareholders, and any vacancy caused by removal could be filled only by the shareholders.
- o Under InterCept's current bylaws, shareholders holding 25% or more of the company's shares can force the company to call a special meeting. Under JANA's proposals, shareholders owning 10% or more could do so, thus making it easier for shareholders to call meetings to address issues of importance to them.

"We believe these proposals are necessary to insure that the majority of shareholders can elect directors of their choosing, rather than have the board hand-pick its own members," JANA Managing Member Barry S. Rosenstein said today. "Our goal is to put InterCept on the path to achieving maximum value for its shareholders, and these proposals will allow InterCept's shareholders to replace the current board majority with directors who will work to accomplish that goal."

A COPY OF THE LETTER SENT BY JANA TO INTERCEPT TODAY SETTING FORTH ITS PROPOSALS FOR INCREASING SHAREHOLDER DEMOCRACY IS ATTACHED HERETO.

In addition to submitting the shareholder proposals described above, JANA has previously nominated two individuals, Marc Weisman and Kevin Lynch, for election as directors at InterCept's Annual Meeting.

BACKGROUND

In October, 2003, InterCept announced that its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, John W. Collins, intended to make an offer to take InterCept private, and that the InterCept board of directors had formed a special independent committee to evaluate the possible sale of the Company. On December 12, 2003, InterCept announced that Mr. Collins would not be making an offer but that "several third parties initiated contact with the special committee and expressed interest in InterCept, and the special committee will be evaluating those indications of interest." Less than two months later, InterCept's board of directors terminated the sale process and dissolved the special committee. Following the decision not to continue with the sale process, on February 13, 2004, two of the three independent directors on the special committee, Boone A. Knox (the then Vice Chairman) and Jon R. Burke, resigned as a result of the decision.

If elected, the directors nominated by JANA would propose to immediately engage a nationally recognized investment banking firm to conduct a full and fair review of the best value-maximizing options for shareholders, including sale of the company.

Attention: Secretary

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to (i) Section 2.13 of InterCept, Inc.'s ("InterCept" or "you") Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws") and (ii) the order (the "Order"), dated April 29, 2004, of the United States District Court For the Northern District of Georgia - Atlanta in Civil Action No. 1:04-CV-1058-JOF, Jana Master Fund, Ltd. ("Jana", "we", "us" or "our") hereby notifies you of the following proposals to be considered at InterCept's 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders:

1. Proposal to amend and restate Section 3.3 of the Bylaws in its entirety with the following:

Removal action may be taken only at a shareholders' meeting for which notice of the removal action has been given, and a director may be removed only by the holders of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast. If any removed director is a member of any committee of the Board of Directors, he shall cease to be a member of that committee when he ceases to be a director. A removed director's successor, if any, may be elected at the same meeting to serve the unexpired term. The Board of Directors may not amend or repeal or adopt any bylaw provision inconsistent with this Section 3.3."

2. Proposal to amend and restate the second sentence of Section 3.4 of the Bylaws in its entirety with the following:

"Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, shall be filled by the shareholders at a shareholders' meeting called for such purpose, or if the shareholders fail to act to fill the vacancy at such shareholders' meeting, by the Board of Directors, even if the remaining directors constitute less than a quorum of the Board of Directors; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if the vacant office was held by a director elected by a particular Voting Group, only the holders of shares of that Voting Group or, if such holders fail to act to fill the vacancy at a shareholders' meeting called for such purpose, the remaining directors elected by that Voting Group shall be entitled to
