Voting Instructions

If your securities are held by a broker who is a member of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), the rules of the NYSE will guide the voting procedures. These rules provide that if instructions are not received from you prior to the issuance of the first vote, the proxy may be given at a discretion of your broker (on the tenth day, if the material was mailed at least 15 days prior to the meeting date. On the fifteenth day if the proxy material was mailed 25 days or more prior to the meeting date), in order for your broker to exercise this discretionary authority, proxy material would need to have been mailed at least 15 days prior to the meeting date, and the matters(s) before the meeting must be deemed "routine" in nature according to NYSE guidelines. If these two requirements are met, and you have not communicated to us prior to the first vote being issued, we may vote your securities at our discretion on these matter(s). We will nevertheless follow your instructions, even if our discretionary vote has already been given, provided your instructions are received prior to the meeting date.
