PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CGI s US operations sign new deals worth more than US$50 million

Andover, Massachusetts, July 15, 2003 CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB;) announced today that several key US-based IT services contracts were signed in its fiscal third quarter, valued at over US$50 million. Clients represented by these wins are all from targeted vertical sectors for which CGI has developed niche skills, including manufacturing, retail and distribution, financial services, energy and healthcare and include flagship clients such as Deutsche Bank, ING Re, Bank of America, Mountain State Blue Cross Blue Shield and several government departments within the State of New York.

We are excited about expanding the scope of our work with current clients as well as welcoming new clients, said Joe I. Saliba, president USA and India for CGI. These partnerships further demonstrate our steadfast progress in the US market. Our clients continue to recognize the quality of our services and the flexibility we demonstrate in our approach as well as our ability to deliver on time and on budget, he added.

CGI began operating in the US in 1986, has offices from coast-to-coast and has expanded to become the fourth largest independent information technology services company in North America, based on its headcount. In 1994, CGI became the first information technology consulting company in North America to comply with the internationally recognized ISO quality standard for its project management framework. The company s India-based operations, which are certified CMM Level 5 for software process capability, offer clients an advantageous way of meeting their IT business goals with a proven global delivery model. CGI was recently included in BusinessWeek s Info Tech 100, a ranking for the biggest, fastest-growing, most profitable companies.
