As you are aware, last Wednesday Associated Estates entered into an agreement to merge with a real estate fund managed by Brookfield Asset Management. This is an exciting time for our organization as we look forward to our future partnership with Brookfield.

This past Monday, I met in New York with Brookfield's senior leadership team for the first time since we announced the proposed merger, and I am happy to tell you the meeting was extremely positive and informative. While there were many and various topics for discussion, I am encouraged that Brookfield has expressed a strong interest in our Midwest portfolio, a desire to continue our efforts in developing properties, and a commitment to growth.

The Brookfield team is looking forward to visiting our corporate office in the near future, and they are eager to see how we do things here at Associated Estates. During the next few months, we will all have the opportunity to help Brookfield understand what "Great Living" is all about. Each of you are experts in your respective areas, and I have no doubt you will impress.

I'm sure this is the first of many updates you'll receive along our journey during the transition. I am, along with our entire management team, committed to keeping you informed as new information develops.

Thank you for your continued efforts and dedication.
