PART IV--OTHER INFORMATION

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes       No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company currently anticipates that it will report a net loss of $2.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 as compared to net income of $2.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. As the Company is currently completing its financial statements, no further information or reasonable estimate of the results is available at this time.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Form 12b-25, including regarding our expectations as to the filing date of our Annual Report and as to our financial results, may be deemed forward-looking statements within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current intent, belief, expectations, estimates and projections. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors that are difficult to predict. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, completion of our financial statements and Annual Report, finalization of the audit, our ability to file the Annual Report within the extension period, the impact on our business and the risks detailed from time to time in our periodic reports filed with the SEC. We undertake no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statement in this Form 12b-25 or in other documents, our website or oral statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available or other events occur in the future.
