Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that under certain circumstances a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or is or was serving at its request in such capacity for another corporation or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The Delaware General Corporation Law also provides that (1) a corporation may indemnify any such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of any action or suit by or in the right of the corporation if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification is to be made with respect to any matter as to which he or she has been adjudged liable unless authorized by the court; (2) a corporation shall indemnify any such person against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in defense of any such action

(whether or not by or in the right of the corporation) if such person has been successful in defense of the action, suit or proceeding; and (3) a corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would otherwise have the power to indemnify such person against such liability.

Pursuant to the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that each person who is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that the person is an officer or director of the Company or who, while an officer or director of the Company, was serving at the request of the Company as an officer or director of another enterprise (including an employee benefit plan as a plan fiduciary), shall be indemnified by the Company to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law; provided, that the Company shall indemnify a person seeking indemnity in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors; provided further, that the Company is not required to provide indemnity with respect to any claim made against the director or officer (i) for an accounting of profits made from the purchase or sale by the officer or director of securities of the Company within the meaning of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or (ii) for amounts paid in settlement of a claim without the consent of the Company.

The indemnification provisions in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation also entitle an officer or director to obtain payment of expenses incurred by such person in defending against a proceeding in advance of the outcome if such person undertakes in writing to repay such amounts if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnity.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs 1.(a)(i) and 1.(a)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
