Western Investment Hedged Partners L.P. (Western Investment) is filing materials contained in this Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to a definitive proxy statement and accompanying proxy cards to be used in connection with the annual meeting of stockholders of Tri-Continental Corporation (the Company) scheduled to be held on May 4, 2006 (the Annual Meeting) to solicit votes for the approval of certain matters at the Annual Meeting and in support of the election of Western Investment 's slate of director nominees.

Item 1: On March 23, 2006, Western Investment issued the following press release:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tri-Continental Corporation (NYSE-TY) Refuses to Deliver Stockholder List

Litigation Commenced to Obtain Stockholder List

NEW YORK (March 23, 2006) Western Investment Hedged Partners L.P. today announced that a legal action had been commenced to compel Tri-Continental Corporation (TY: NYSE) to provide a list of its stockholders, pursuant to law. The Western Group, which currently owns over 7% of Tri-Continental, is seeking to maximize the value of Tri-Continental for all stockholders and is soliciting proxies to elect its nominees to the Tri-Continental board of directors at Tri-Continental 's May 4, 2006 annual meeting.

Tri-Continental, a closed-end fund managed by J.&W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated, has prevented the Western Group from contacting the owners of almost 45% of Tri-Continental by refusing to turn over the requisite stockholder information to one of the participants in the Western Group. The litigation, brought in Supreme Court, New York, asks the Court to, among other things, compel Tri-Continental to make available the stockholder list in question.

Art Lipson of Western Investment, commenting on the suit, stated, "Tri-Continental 's refusal to produce a stockholders ' list hits the bottom of the barrel in corporate governance. It begs the question, why is TY 's Board dead set against stockholders talking with each other? I believe the answer is obvious -- Seligman 's performance record for Tri-Continental is indefensible. TY 's poor performance is a predictable result of so-called independent directors with little or no other investment experience having held their board seats for a collective 93 years, with each serving on at least 22 other Seligman fund boards.

We believe that many of our fellow investors share our outrage at Tri-Continental 's illegal denial of the fundamental right of its investors to communicate amongst themselves. Responsible, effective corporate governance is grounded in open communication, and any company that seeks to impede it absolutely deserves to answer in court.

Edgar Filing: TRI-CONTINENTAL CORP - Form DFAN14A

Mr. Lipson continued, We simply wish to put our case before all of the Tri-Continental stockholders. Seligman has brought this situation upon itself with embarrassingly low investment returns and a failure to address the sizeable discount to underlying value at which Tri-Continental has traded for years.
