Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction

The Reporting Persons, other than Mr. Marrus, are all current or former employees of Unterberg or one of its affiliates. The Reporting Persons acquired beneficial ownership of the Common Stock to which this Statement relates for investment and other employment-related purposes, pursuant to that certain Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of August 27, 2009 by and among the Issuer, the Reporting Persons and the other Investors listed therein (the "Stock Purchase Agreement"). Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Reporting Persons purchased, in a private placement, shares of the Issuer's newly issued Series D Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Preferred Shares") at a cash purchase price of $0.43 per share. Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, for each Preferred Share purchased, each Reporting Person also received a warrant (the "Warrants") to purchase one additional share of Common Stock at a purchase price of $0.65 per share. The Issuer also made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The Reporting Persons entered into the Stock Purchase Agreement with the understanding that each of the Reporting Persons would only enter into the Stock Purchaser Agreement to acquire the Preferred Shares and Warrants if each of the other Reporting Persons was also entering into the Stock Purchase Agreement simultaneously.

The Preferred Shares are entitled to a dividend of six percent per annum, payable in arrears on the last day of each calendar month, commencing August 30, 2009, payable in preference to any dividend or distribution on the Common Stock. Upon a Liquidation Event (as defined in the Certificate of Designation of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Certificate of Designation")), each holder of Preferred Shares will be entitled, prior to payment to the holders of Common Stock or any other class of preferred stock, the sum of $0.43 (subject to adjustment as set forth in the Certificate of Designation) and all then accrued and unpaid dividends on the Preferred Shares. Following such payment, the holders of Preferred Shares will be entitled to any remaining amounts available for distribution on an as converted to common stock basis, as described below.

The Preferred Shares are convertible into Common Stock at any time at the option of a holder (so long as the aggregate conversion price for all such shares converted is not less than $100,000 or such lesser amount representing all of the Preferred Shares then owned by the holder) into the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the number of Preferred Shares being converted multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is $0.43 and the denominator of which is the Conversion Price (as defined in the Certificate of Designation), which is initially $0.43. The Conversion Price is subject to downward adjustment for certain dilutive events as set forth in more detail in the Certificate of Designation.

The Preferred Shares will automatically convert to Common Stock at the Issuer's option upon 10 days written notice if (i) the 30 day average closing sale price for the Common Stock is at or above $3.00 at the time the notice is provided by the Issuer; (ii) the average weekly trading volume for the four week period immediately preceding delivery of such written notice of conversion is 30,000 shares or more, and (iii) either (A) a registration statement which includes all outstanding Preferred Shares has been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission; or (B) all outstanding shares of Preferred Shares may be sold under Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any equivalent successor rule, within a three month period.

Holders of Preferred Shares shall be entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which the shares of Preferred Shares held by such holder could be converted as of the record date. In addition, so long as at least 2,500,000 shares (as adjusted for stock splits, dividends, recapitalizations and the like) of Preferred Shares remain outstanding, the holders of Preferred Shares, voting as a separate class, shall be entitled to elect four members of the Issuer's Board of Directors. Further, so long as 2,500,000 shares (as adjusted for stock splits, dividends, recapitalizations and the like) of Preferred Shares remain outstanding, the affirmative vote of a majority of interest in the Preferred Shares is required to alter or change adversely the powers, preferences, or rights given to the Preferred Shares; authorize any class of stock with superior preferences to the Preferred Shares, amend the Issuer's Certificate of Incorporation or bylaws in any manner that adversely affects any rights of the Preferred Shares; increase the number of authorized shares of Preferred Shares; or effect a Liquidation Event; and the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of Preferred Shares is required to authorize any new stock option, restricted stock or other equity compensation plan; change the size of the Issuer's Board of Directors; incur certain indebtedness for borrowed money (subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Certificate of Designation); or approve any replacement for Peter Coleman with the Issuer (subject to certain conditions set forth in the Certificate of Designation).

In connection with the purchase of the Preferred Shares and the Warrants, the Reporting Persons, the Issuer and the other investors designated therein entered into an Investors' Rights Agreement dated as of August 27, 2009 (the "Investors' Rights Agreement"). The Investors' Rights Agreement provides for registration of the Common Stock underlying the Preferred Shares and the Warrants (as well as other warrants that may be issued pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement), through a shelf registration statement, or, under certain circumstances as set forth in the Investors' Rights Agreement, demand and piggyback registration statements. Should the Issuer fail to register such securities within the time limits set forth in the Investors' Rights

Agreement, the Issuer will issue additional warrants to purchase up to 900,000 shares of Common Stock to the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock who are party to the Investors' Rights Agreement, in the amounts and on the terms set forth in the Investors' Rights Agreement. Pursuant to a letter regarding the Investors' Rights Agreement issued to the Reporting Persons on August 27, 2009, the Issuer agreed to use its best efforts to increase the number of additional warrant shares to be issued (to up to 971,000) and to register any warrants issuable pursuant to the Investors' Rights Agreement. The Investors' Rights Agreement also provides for the issuance of warrants for Common Stock equal to the aggregate Common Stock issuable under the Warrants (the "Merriman Warrants") should D. Jonathan Merriman cease to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer prior to the third anniversary of the Investors' Rights Agreement, provided however that the Merriman Warrants will not be issued if Mr. Merriman ceases to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer due to his death, his termination by the Issuer other than for Cause (as defined in the Investors' Rights Agreement) or Mr. Merriman terminates his employment for Good Reason (as defined in the Investors' Rights Agreement). The Investors' Rights Agreement also provides for the issuance of warrants to purchase Common Stock should the Issuer fail to keep a life insurance policy in place with respect to Mr. Merriman prior to the fifth anniversary of the Investors' Rights Agreement, in the amounts and on the conditions set forth in the Investors' Rights Agreement. The Investors' Rights Agreement also provides for the designation of the directors to be selected by the holders of Preferred Shares. Pursuant to the Investors' Rights Agreement, Mr. Arno has the right to designate one of the four directors to be selected by the holders of Preferred Shares. The Investors' Rights Agreement also provides for preemptive rights with respect to certain issuances of Issuer securities.

The Reporting Persons, at any time and from time to time, may acquire additional Common Stock or dispose of any or all of their Common Stock depending upon an ongoing evaluation of the investment in the Common Stock, prevailing market conditions, other investment opportunities, other investment considerations and/or other factors. The Reporting Persons may engage in communications with one or more shareholders of the Issuer, regarding, among other items, its business, operations, policies, management, structure, operations or capitalization. Except to the extent the foregoing may be deemed a plan or proposal, the Reporting Persons have no plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons, at any time and from time to time, may review or reconsider their position and/or change their purpose and/or formulate plans or proposals with respect thereto.
