PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Gafisa S.A. (the “Company”) is unable to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2010 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense due to the restatement of the Company’s 2009 consolidated financial statements.

As disclosed in its current report on Form 6-K filed April 1, 2011, the Company identified certain US GAAP misclassifications that have a material effect on amounts disclosed in its US GAAP reconciliation footnote contained in its 2009 consolidated financial statements, including but not limited to, the amount of cash equivalent balances, the amount of marketable securities balances, and the related requirement to present a US GAAP consolidated statement of cash flows in Note 25. The Company is also conducting an evaluation of certain aspects of its US GAAP revenue recognition and other potential classification errors and believes that adjustments of previously reported US GAAP amounts are also likely for these matters. As such, the Company has determined that a restatement of its 2009 consolidated financial statements is required.

In connection with the above-mentioned restatement and as disclosed in its current report on Form 6-K filed June 27, 2011, the Company is engaging an additional independent registered public accounting firm to audit the 2009 consolidated financial statements to be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company cannot accurately predict when the procedures to be carried out by this independent registered public accounting firm in connection with the audit of the Company’s restated 2009 consolidated financial statements will be completed.

In light of the above, the Company is unable to timely file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010. In addition, at this stage, the Company is not in a position to determine when it will be able to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010.
