PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

First BanCorp (the Corporation) was unable to timely file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 without unreasonable effort and expense because the Corporation has not completed the preparation of its consolidated financial statements for that period. In particular, the Corporation needs additional time to evaluate the impact in the fourth quarter of 2010 of certain non-cash items on its financial statements, including potential valuation allowance adjustments to the $93.7 million net deferred tax asset of its banking subsidiary, which process involves significant management judgment and subjective assessments, and to review its going concern analysis. Until the Corporation s analysis is completed and the Corporation has determined the impact this may have on its results of operations, and the Corporation s independent registered public accounting firm has completed its year-end audit, the Corporation will be unable to file the Form 10-K. The Corporation is diligently working to complete its analysis and intends to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K as soon as practicable.

PART IV OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Orlando Berges	(787)	729-8170
(Name)	(Area Code)	(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been file? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

In its earnings release dated February 9, 2011, the Corporation reported a net loss of $430.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2010, compared to a net loss of $275.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2009. As set forth above, the Corporation is in the process of evaluating the impact of certain non-cash items on its financial statements. Until the Corporation's analysis is completed, the Corporation is unable to determine whether any change will be necessary in the amount of the net loss for 2010 disclosed in the earnings release on February 9, 2011 and the corresponding impact in capital and capital ratios. Upon completion of the preparation of the Corporation's consolidated financial statements, it is possible that the reported net loss for 2010 could increase by up to the amount of the net deferred tax asset.
