ISS Endorses ALL Nine Current SM&A Directors
in May 23 Election
Key Proxy Advisors Now Three-for-Three in Rejecting
Former CEO Steven Myers Dissident Slate

Newport Beach, CA May 15, 2008 SM&A said today it is gratified that Institutional Shareholder Services Inc. became the third straight prestigious proxy advisory firm to recommend stockholders re-elect all nine of the Company's current directors at its May 23 annual meeting.

Earlier, Glass Lewis & Co. and PROXY Governance Inc. also recommended stockholders support all nine current SM&A directors. In doing so, the three proxy advisory services rejected the dissident slate of former CEO Steven Myers and three associates.

In its report, ISS said, "We note that the company's performance has improved over the last fiscal year under SM&A's new management team, citing increases in revenue, net income and earnings per share in fiscal 2007. Of the company's past results, ISS noted much of this subpar performance took place under Mr. Myers' leadership, while he was the CEO of the company until March 2007.

Of the Myers' slate, ISS concluded:

During Myers' tenure as CEO, SM&A had a poor track record in terms of enhancing shareholder value. Of Myers, ISS added that "we believe that his presence would potentially be disruptive and may hinder any ongoing restructuring process in place.

In analyzing the tenure of Myers' nominee Kenneth Colbaugh when he was a company executive and director, ISS concluded "we do not believe that bringing him back to the board would add any value for shareholders given his past performance.

ISS noted that Myers' nominee Albert Nagy served on the company's board during a period of declining performance from 2000 to 2005, adding that "his poor track record raises doubts about his ability to improve shareholder value as a board member.

Myers' nominee Redge Bendheim, ISS stated, "has no relevant industry experience and it is unclear what skills he would bring to the board.

In concluding, ISS said: Hence, given the dissident nominees prior track record of failing to enhance shareholder value, we are skeptical of their ability to effect a positive change at the company. Said SM&A Chairman Dwight L. Hanger, We are very pleased that ISS recognized the valuable contributions our current board members make and agreed that stockholders should vote for all of the current SM&A directors. We look forward to putting the distraction of this proxy contest behind us and getting back to business full-time after the conclusion of our May 23rd annual meeting.

We urge you to Vote your White Proxy Card today to re-elect your current Board and empower them to continue to guide SM&A to future success.

The Stockholder meeting will be on Friday, May 23, 2008 with stockholders of record as of April 9, 2008 eligible to vote.
