SOLICITATION AND VOTING

The close of business on March 28, 2005 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting and at any adjournment. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held of record in his or her name on that date. There were outstanding on the record date 7,908,490 shares of Common Stock, $.01 par value per share, of the Company, being the only class of stock of the Company issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting.

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company, which has designated the nominees for directors listed below. A stockholder giving such proxy has the right to revoke it at the meeting or at any time prior thereto. All shares represented by proxies in the form enclosed herewith will be voted at the meeting and at any adjournments in accordance with the terms of such proxies, provided such proxies appear to be valid and to have been executed by stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting and have not previously been revoked. If no contrary instructions are given, the persons named in the proxy will vote FOR the eight nominees described on the following pages.

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors does not know of any matters not specifically referred to in this Proxy Statement which may come before the meeting. The deadline under Phoenix's By-Laws for stockholders to notify the Company of any director nominations or proposals to be presented at the Annual Meeting has passed. If any other business should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons appointed by the enclosed form of proxy shall have discretionary authority to vote all such proxies, as they shall decide.

In order to conduct any business at the Annual Meeting, a quorum must be present in person or represented by valid proxy. The By-Laws of the Company provide that a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting, constitutes a quorum. Directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting by a plurality of the votes cast. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present shall be required to pass any other proposal properly presented at the meeting.

Abstention may not be specified on the proposal relating to the election of directors. Shares which abstain from voting on any other matter which is properly presented shall be included for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but shall be excluded in tabulating votes cast for or against any proposal to which the abstention pertains. Votes that are withheld with respect to any proposal will be excluded entirely from the vote taken for the proposal and will not be counted as present for purposes of the vote on such matter.

Table of Contents

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. Shares represented by such broker non-votes, however, will be counted in determining whether there is a quorum.

All costs of preparing, assembling and mailing the enclosed proxy material, and any additional material which may hereafter be sent in connection with the solicitation and collection of the enclosed proxy, will be paid by the Company and no part will be paid directly or indirectly by any other person. Solicitation of proxies may be made by personal interview, mail, telephone or telecopier by officers and regular employees of the Company but no additional compensation will be paid them for the time so employed.

E. Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation/ Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The members of the Compensation Committee during 2004 were Messrs. Kratzer, DePerrior and Port. None of the Committee members is or was:

an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiary, or an employee of an entity whose board of directors (or compensation committee) includes an executive officer of the Company or an employee of a entity who directly or indirectly benefits from its transactions with the Company or a family member of a person whose compensation is in any way affected by any Company executive officer.

The Board determined that each of them is independent as defined in Rule 121B of AMEX.

The Compensation Committee consists entirely of independent directors in accordance with the American Stock Exchange requirements. The Committee oversees and administers the Company's compensation program for its executive officers and directors. The Compensation Committee bases its decisions on both individual performance and the Company's financial results. All compensation decisions are made solely by the Compensation Committee; however, the Compensation Committee may consult with the Chairman of the Board and the Company's Chief Executive Officer as part of its decision making process when examining their respective compensation packages. However, the Chief Executive Officer, as required by the AMEX, may not be present during voting or deliberations as to his compensation.

Objectives. The policies of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company are highly performance-related and are intended to motivate and reward individual performance that contributes to the attainment of the operational, financial and strategic goals set by management to build shareholder value.

Components. The principal elements of the compensation program for executive officers are base salary, performance-based annual bonuses and stock options. For a summary of the executive compensation for fiscal year 2004, see the Summary Compensation Table under the heading Compensation of Directors and Executive Officers above.

Base Salaries. The Committee has based its decisions on salaries for Phoenix's executive officers, including its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Chief Financial Officer, on a number of factors, both objective and subjective. Objective factors considered include amounts set in employment agreements or terms of employment, increases in the cost of living, our Company's overall historical performance, stockholder return, competitiveness with compensation offered by comparable companies and compensation levels in recent years, although no specific formulas based on such factors have been used to determine salaries. Salary decisions are based primarily on the Committee's subjective analysis of the factors contributing to our long-term success and of the executive's individual contributions to such success.

Bonuses. During 2004, the Committee approved bonuses for corporate executives based on individual performance as determined by the Committee in its subjective judgment. In fiscal 2004, the Committee awarded a bonus of $50,000 to Mr. Tunney and $30,000 to Mr. Wolf, based on their individual performances in fiscal 2003, including their efforts to integrate and consolidate the Company's acquired brands during 2003. These bonuses were paid in fiscal 2004. The Committee plans to continue this practice in fiscal 2005.

The Committee has also adopted a division management bonus plan for the management of the Company's brand divisions. The plan provides for a bonus pool equal to a percentage of the actual net contribution to Phoenix's operating earnings by the division which is available only if a minimum target net contribution is achieved by the division for the fiscal year. During fiscal 2004 only the Company's Royal Robbins division management earned bonuses under this plan, including a $70,000 bonus to Francisco Morales, the President of the division. These bonuses were paid in fiscal 2005. The Committee has approved the continuation of this plan for 2005.

The Committee has adopted a corporate executive incentive plan for fiscal 2005. This plan provides non-discretionary bonus incentives for corporate officers based on profitability targets and individual goals and objectives. Messrs. Riedman, White, and Wolf are eligible for bonuses under this plan. The bonuses will be a percentage of each corporate executive's annual compensation.

Stock Options. The Committee views stock options as a significant long-term compensation vehicle for Phoenix's executive officers. Stock options generally are granted at the prevailing market price on the date of grant and will have value only if Phoenix's stock price increases. Options that are granted under Phoenix's 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan have vesting schedules set by the Compensation Committee, which generally are three years. Grants of stock options generally are based upon the performance of Phoenix, the level of the executive's position within Phoenix and an evaluation of the executive's past and expected future performance. The Committee generally awards stock options once every 2 years. The Company's executives also participate in the Company's 401(k) plan which results in annual allocations to their retirement accounts of Company stock held by the plan. The Committee has determined to provide a supplement to the Company's executive officers to the extent that stock allocation under the plan is reduced due to contribution limitations. The supplement will be 35% of the value of the reduction at the time of the grant. This supplemental grant is at the discretion of the Committee.

Employment Agreements. During 2004, the Compensation Committee approved employment agreements for the Company's new Chief Executive Officer that became effective June 15, 2004. In addition, in January 2004, the Committee approved a new employment agreement for the Company's then Chief Executive Officer and now Chairman of the Board, James Riedman and the renewal of the Company's then President and Chief Operating Officer, Greg Tunney who has since resigned. The terms of the agreements are described below.

Respectfully submitted,

The Compensation Committee:
Steven M. DePerrior, Chair

F. Employment Agreements

On June 15, 2004, we entered into a three-year employment agreement with Richard E. White to serve as our Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $500,000 and participation in an incentive bonus plan where he is eligible to receive an incentive bonus at a target amount of $250,000 in the first year. If Mr. White is terminated without cause he will be entitled to be paid his salary and benefits for 18 months. If he is terminated without cause, or has a substantial reduction in his duties, in connection with a change in control, Mr. White will be entitled to be paid an amount equal to his total compensation for the two years prior to termination. The agreement provides for confidentiality, employee non-solicitation and customer non-solicitation covenants that extend for one year after the termination of his employment. Upon entering into the employment agreement, Mr. White also received a 10-year option to purchase 200,000 shares of our common stock at a price of $11.40 per share (the market price on the date of grant), vesting initially in one-third installments each year beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. 185,000 shares and 100,000 shares on the one-year and two year anniversaries, respectively, following his entry into the employment agreement. The exercise price will be the market price on the date of grant.

We entered into a three-year employment agreement with James R. Riedman, our Chairman, effective January 1, 2004. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $325,000 and participation in executive bonus plans as may be established. If Mr. Riedman is terminated without cause, he will be entitled to be paid salary and benefits for 18 months. If he is terminated without cause or has a substantial reduction in his duties, in connection with a change in control, Mr. Riedman will be entitled to be paid three times his base salary. The agreement also provides for confidentiality, employee non-solicitation and customer non-solicitation covenants that extend for one year after the termination of his employment.

In September 2003, we renewed our employment agreement with Greg Tunney, our then President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Tunney resigned from the Company on February 28, 2005. Mr. Tunney's agreement provided for an annual base salary of $245,000 and participation in executive bonus plans as may be established. Under the terms of Mr. Tunney's agreement, he is entitled to receive salary and benefits for 18 months. The agreement also provides for confidentiality, employee non-solicitation and customer non-solicitation covenants that extend for one year after the termination of his employment.

Concurrent with our acquisition of Royal Robbins on October 31, 2003, we entered into an employment agreement with Francisco Morales as President of Royal Robbins. Mr. Morales had been a minority owner of Royal Robbins and had served as President of Royal Robbins since October 2002. The agreement provides for a base salary of $160,000 for two years, with opportunity for bonuses. In connection with his employment, Mr. Morales received a 10-year option to purchase 50,000 shares of our common stock at a price of $7.01 per share (the market price on the date of grant), vesting initially in one-third installments beginning on the first anniversary date of the grant year. As mentioned below, the options are now fully vested. If he is terminated without cause, Mr. Morales will be entitled to be paid six months salary and benefits (other than incentive compensation). The agreement also provides for confidentiality, employee non-solicitation and non-competition covenants that extend for one year after the termination of his employment.

On February 24, 2005, the Compensation Committee approved the acceleration of the vesting of options to purchase 440,000 shares of common stock held by the participants in the Company's 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan, which included Mr. Riedman's options for 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock, Mr. White's options for 215,000 shares of the Company's common stock, Mr. Wolf's options for 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock and Mr. Morales options for 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

On May 11, 2004, the Company amended the employment agreements of Messrs. Riedman and Tunney to not include the value of stock options granted to them in the base compensation for the years of grant for purposes of determining payments due upon a change in control.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Other than the employment agreements with Messrs. Riedman, White, Tunney and Morales and our compensation arrangements with our directors and executive officers described above, since January 1, 2004 there have been no transactions or series of transactions, to which we or any of our subsidiaries was or is to be a party, in which the amount involved exceeds $60,000 and in which any director, nominee, officer or holder known to us of more than 5% of our common stock, or any member of the immediate family of any of them, is a party, directly or indirectly.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On April 8, 2005, our Audit Committee approved the engagement of Grant Thornton, LLP to be the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and to audit our financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and report on the results of their audit. A representative of Grant Thornton is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires and to respond to appropriate questions.

Deloitte & Touche LLP had been the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and had audited the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2005. No representative of Deloitte & Touche is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. The Company dismissed Deloitte & Touche effective April 8, 2005 as its certifying accountants. The decision to change the Company's independent auditors was made by the Audit Committee.

Table of Contents

Deloitte & Touche's reports on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended January 1, 2005 and December 27, 2003 were unqualified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 27, 2003 made reference to the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. There were no disagreements with Deloitte & Touche on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure during those fiscal years, and in the subsequent interim period through the termination date, which, if not resolved to Deloitte & Touche's satisfaction, would have caused Deloitte & Touche to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report. During the two most recent fiscal years and through the date hereof, there have been no reportable events (as defined in Regulation S-K, Item 304 (a)(1)(v)).

Deloitte & Touche has furnished a letter addressed to the SEC stating that it agrees with the statements made by the Company. Each of Grant Thornton and Deloitte & Touche has informed the Company that it does not believe that the statements made in this Proxy Statement by the Company with respect to the change in accountants are incorrect or incomplete. Prior to its engagement as the Company's independent auditors, Grant Thornton had not been consulted by the Company either with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements.

A. Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Company's consolidated financial statements audited by Deloitte & Touche, including the balance sheets as of January 1, 2005 and December 27, 2003 and the consolidated statements of operations, cash flows and stockholders equity for the three fiscal years ended January 1, 2005. It also discussed with Deloitte & Touche the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards 61 including the role of the auditor, the Company's significant accounting policies, the methodology used by management in making significant accounting estimates and the basis for the auditor's conclusions regarding the reasonableness of those estimates, the methodology used by management in making significant adjustments in the financial statements, any disagreements with management over the application of accounting principles, the basis for management's accounting estimates and the disclosures in the financial statements, any difficulties encountered in performing the audit, and certain other matters. Deloitte & Touche has provided the Committee with the written disclosures and letter required by Independent Standards Board Statement No. 1 and the Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche, Deloitte & Touche's independence.

In 2004, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the requirements of, and the Company's progress on complying with, Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, including the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board's (PCAOB) Auditing Standard No. 2 regarding the audit of internal control over financial accounting.

Based on the review and discussions mentioned, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2004 for filing with the SEC.

Respectfully submitted,

The Audit Committee:
Gregory M. Harden, Chair
Frederick R. Port

Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) and Rule 14a-11 thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (B) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (1) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner and (2) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 1.11 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Corporation at least 100 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by this Section 1.11 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting.

Table of Contents

Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in this Section 1.11, who shall be entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 1.11. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such stockholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be), for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the stockholder's notice required by paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 1.11 shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of a special meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

(c) General.

(i) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.11 shall be eligible to serve as directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.11. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made, or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.11 and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Section 1.11, to declare that such defective proposal or nomination shall be disregarded.

(ii) For purposes of this Section 1.11, public announcement shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 1.11, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 1.11. Nothing in this Section 1.11 shall be deemed to affect any rights of (1) stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (2) the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors under specified circumstances.
