PROXY STATEMENT

The enclosed proxy card is solicited by the Board of Directors of Laidlaw International, Inc. (the Company), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Thursday, February 2, 2006, at 1:30 p.m. Central Standard Time, at the Four Seasons Resort and Club Dallas at Las Colinas, 4150 North MacArthur Boulevard, Irving, Texas, 75038, and at any adjournments thereof (the Annual Meeting).

This proxy statement is dated December 16, 2005 and it is first being mailed to stockholders on or about December 16, 2005.

VOTING SECURITIES AND RECORD DATE

Stockholders of record of the Company at the close of business on December 6, 2005 will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On that date, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote 100,356,517 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Common Stock). A list of such holders will be open to the examination of any stockholder for any purpose germane to the meeting at Laidlaw International, Inc., 55 Shuman Blvd., Naperville, Illinois 60563 for a period of ten days prior to the meeting. The list of the holders will also be available for such examination at the Annual Meeting.

QUORUM AND VOTING

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. No other securities are entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting, inspectors of election shall determine the presence of a quorum and shall tabulate the results of the vote of the stockholders. The holders of a majority of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote must be present in person or by proxy to constitute the necessary quorum for any business to be transacted at the Annual Meeting. Proxies held in street name by brokers that are not voted on all proposals to come before the Annual Meeting (broker non-votes), will be considered present for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum should not be present, the meeting may be adjourned from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

The shares represented by all valid proxies received will be voted in the manner specified on the proxies. Where specific choices are not indicated on a valid proxy, the shares represented by such proxies received will be voted: (1) for the nominees for director named in this proxy statement; and (2) in accordance with the best judgment of the persons named in the enclosed proxy, or their substitutes, for any other matters that properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Broker Voting

Brokers holding shares of record for a customer have the discretionary authority to vote on some matters if they do not receive timely instructions from the customer regarding how the customer wants the shares voted. There are also some matters with respect to which brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote if they do not receive timely instructions from the customer. When a broker does not have discretion to vote on a particular matter and the customer has not given timely instructions on how the broker should vote, a broker non-vote results. Any broker non-vote will be treated as not entitled to vote with respect to certain matters.

How to Vote

You may vote in one of four ways:

Vote Over the Internet

If your shares are held in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee: Vote your Laidlaw shares over the Internet by accessing the website given on the proxy card you received from such broker, bank

Based on your Internet and telephone voting, the proxy holders will vote your shares according to your directions.

Vote by Returning Your Proxy Card

You may vote by signing and returning your proxy card. The proxy holders will vote your shares according to your directions. If you sign and return your card without specifying choices, your shares will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors. If you wish to give a proxy to someone other than those designated on the proxy card, you may do so by crossing out the names of the designated proxies and inserting the name of another person. The person representing you should then present your signed proxy card at the Annual Meeting.

Vote by Ballot at the Meeting

You may also attend the Annual Meeting and vote by a ballot that you will receive at the meeting.

If You Change Your Mind After Voting

You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted. Proxies are voted at the Annual Meeting. You can write to the Corporate Secretary stating that you wish to revoke your proxy and that you need another proxy card. More simply, you can vote again, either over the Internet or by telephone. Your last vote is the vote that will be counted. If you attend the Annual Meeting, you may vote by ballot, which will cancel your previous proxy vote.

In addition, the executive will receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to the actuarial equivalent of the excess of (1) the retirement pension and the medical, life and other benefits that would be payable to the executive under various retirement plans if the executive continued to be employed during the twenty-four month period after termination given the executive's base pay, over (2) the retirement pension and the medical, life and other benefits that the executive is entitled to receive (either immediately or on a deferred basis) under the retirement plans. The executive is also entitled to reimbursement of reasonable outplacement services of up to $25,000. Further, upon the change of control, all equity incentive awards held by the executive will become fully vested and all stock options held by the executive will become fully exercisable.

REPORT OF THE HUMAN RESOURCES AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the Compensation Committee) is responsible for determining the annual salary, short-term and long-term cash and stock incentive compensation, and other compensation of the executive officers, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table. This report describes the policies and approach of the Compensation Committee in establishing executive compensation during the fiscal year ended on August 31, 2005.

Pursuant to the Charter of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee, the Compensation Committee re-evaluates annually the Company's executive compensation programs. This review is intended to ensure that these programs fully support the Company's business strategy and short and long-term performance objectives. It is also intended to ensure that these programs align executives with stockholder interests. The Company's executive compensation programs also reflect the challenges in attracting, retaining and motivating leadership talent given the competitive markets for leadership talent.

Compensation Committee Approach to Compensation

The Compensation Committee's basic objectives are to recruit, retain and motivate top quality executive leadership focused on the successful execution of the Company's business strategy, including achieving short-term financial objectives, attaining long-term corporate goals and increasing stockholder value.

In determining the principal components of executive compensation, the Compensation Committee, in consultation with an independent compensation consultant, considered the following factors: (a) Company performance, both year over year and in comparison to other companies of similar size and business lines; (b) the role of the executive in executing the Company's business plan and in impacting Company growth and performance objectives; (c) the individual performance and contribution of the executive; (d) comparative compensation studies; (e) historical compensation levels at the Company; (f) the overall competitive environment in executive compensation needed to attract, retain and motivate talented and experienced senior management; and (g) current trends in executive compensation driven by new and proposed legislative and regulatory initiatives.

Since the time that the Compensation Committee was formed in 2003, the Compensation Committee has continued to refine its approach to compensation. The Compensation Committee's overall philosophy is to provide a total compensation opportunity to executives that is consistent with a pay for performance environment. The Compensation Committee's overall philosophy for cash compensation for the named executive officers is to pay conservatively, i.e., between 25th percentile and the market median (i.e., the 50th percentile), relative to a peer group of companies for performance at target or below (measured against stated objectives and goals) and to pay above the median relative to the peer group for performance that exceeds those goals and objectives. This peer group is made up of companies of similar size, scope and complexity as the Company and is representative of the companies that the Company competes with for both business and talent. Cash compensation includes base salary and short-term incentive compensation. Through the use of long-term incentive compensation in the form of equity awards, a significant portion of each executive officer's total compensation is linked to the performance of the Company's stock, fostering an ownership culture and aligning management's interests and concerns with those of the stockholders. The Compensation Committee has established ownership guidelines for executive officers to support this end. Together, cash compensation and long-term compensation are designed to provide a competitive compensation opportunity based upon performance.

The Company provides certain officers, including the named executives, with an overall retirement package consistent with prevailing market practices. The Company also provides its executives certain perquisites. The Compensation Committee's approach is that any executive perquisites that are provided be based on business need rather than to provide additional compensation.

Components of Executive Compensation

Base Salary. Base salaries are reviewed annually for possible merit adjustment and also in connection with promotions and when responsibilities for the position are materially changed. The Compensation Committee recognizes the need to retain executive talent by paying base salaries that contribute to an overall competitive total compensation opportunity. The Compensation Committee reviewed executive benchmark data in consultation with the independent compensation consultant. This data consisted of compensation practices and policies compiled from the most recent proxy statements for the peer group of companies, as well as from third-party compensation surveys, research and other studies. After reviewing this benchmark data, the Compensation Committee has adopted a conservative policy of setting base salary for the named executive officers generally between the 25th percentile and the market median, i.e., in the second quartile relative to the benchmark data, provided base salary can exceed this range under certain circumstances, such as in recognition of an executive's strong individual performance and contribution to the Company or when necessary to attract, retain and motivate talented and experienced senior management.

Table of Contents

Short-Term Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee has adopted and administers the Laidlaw International, Inc. Short-Term Incentive Plan (the STIP), which was approved by the stockholders at the Company s 2005 annual meeting of stockholders (the 2005 Annual Meeting). The STIP, in conjunction with base salary, provides an annual cash compensation opportunity to the named executive officers. All officers, including the named executive officers and certain other key management employees of the Company are eligible to participant in the STIP. The STIP provides for payment based upon the Company achieving certain performance objectives, which are set by the Compensation Committee annually. The performance objectives include financial criteria and individual management objectives. The Compensation Committee s philosophy is to establish financial criteria that reward participants for real value that is created by tying short-term incentive compensation to financial performance in excess of a pre-established hurdle rate, which are tied to the achievement of Company goals. The target awards for the executive officers range from 50% of base salary for Vice Presidents, 60% to 75% for Executive Vice Presidents and 100% for the Chief Executive Officer. If the Company s objectives are exceeded, the incentive award may be increased to a maximum amount of between 100% and 200% of base salary. It is the Compensation Committee s intention that this range provides the opportunity to ensure that executive s total cash compensation is commensurate with performance, while providing a competitive cash compensation opportunity competitive with current market practices.

For the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, the Compensation Committee set as the Company s target objectives the attainment of specified levels of financial performance which emphasize the maximization of pre-tax income. The Compensation Committee determined that it was equitable to adjust the original targeted goals for fiscal 2005 in order to reflect the sale of AMR and EmCare and the consummation of the debt recapitalization transactions. The Compensation Committee evaluated the Company s performance against these goals as adjusted and determined that a number of the executive officers were entitled to payment under the STIP.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The executive officers of the Company participate in the Company s Amended and Restated 2003 Equity and Performance Incentive Plan (the 2003 Incentive Plan) which is administered by the Compensation Committee and was approved by the stockholders of the Company at the 2005 Annual Meeting. The 2003 Incentive Plan provides for the grant of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted shares, deferred shares, performance shares and performance units. During the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, the Compensation Committee granted stock options and deferred shares under the 2003 Incentive Plan. These grants were intended to provide a competitive long-term incentive compensation opportunity to participants. In addition, the Compensation Committee made an additional one-time grant of deferred shares under the 2003 Incentive Plan to certain executives of the Company, including the executive officers (other than the Chief Executive Officer) in recognition of the successful sale of AMR and EmCare. The options are granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the effective date of the grant and vest ratably over a three-year period. The awards of deferred shares vest ratably over a four-year period from the grant date. The Compensation Committee sets the long-term incentive stock compensation for its executive officers above the median of the benchmark peer group. The Compensation Committee believes that granting such equity awards to executive officers aligns the executive s interests more closely with those of stockholders of the Company by tying a meaningful portion of compensation to the performance of the Company s stock. In determining the size of the annual grants to be made to each of the executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the individual performance of each executive officer, historical stock grants made by the Company to the individual, survey data and the recommendations of its independent compensation consultant. The Compensation Committee also studied long-term incentive compensation practices in light of current trends in executive compensation to ensure that the Company was providing a long-term incentive compensation opportunity in an effective and efficient manner.

The Compensation Committee supports and encourages stock ownership in the Company by its executive officers and has adopted stock ownership guidelines for its officers. The stock ownership requirement is based on a multiple of base salary and ranges from one times base salary for Vice Presidents, two times base salary for Senior Vice Presidents, three times base salary for Executive Vice Presidents and four times base salary for the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee encourages these executives to build to, and maintain, these levels of ownership over a five-year period.

Retirement Compensation. The Company also provides select officers, including the named executive officers, with an overall retirement package that is designed to be consistent with prevailing practices in the market. This retirement package consists of: (i) a non-qualified defined contribution plan with matching contributions of up to 6% of the individual's salary; (ii) a 401(k) plan (with no matching contributions); and (iii) a defined benefit supplemental executive retirement plan (SERP) (as described above under "Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans"). In aggregate, these retirement plans are targeted to provide a retirement benefit that is competitive with overall market practices.

Other Compensation. The Compensation Committee reviewed benchmark data on other forms of executive compensation, including perquisites in consultation with the independent compensation consultant. After reviewing this benchmark data, the Compensation Committee has adopted a conservative policy towards these programs. Perquisites are intended to provide a means to address specific business needs in an efficient manner. In accordance with the terms of their employment agreements, the named executive officers receive such perquisites as: monthly allowances for automobile and related operating and insurance expenses, and reimbursement of club memberships, tax preparation and planning expenses, each subject to maximum reimbursement limits. None of these perquisites exceeded $50,000 in aggregate for any one of the named executive officers.

CEO Compensation

In establishing compensation for the President and Chief Executive Officer position, the Compensation Committee recognized that it was essential to retain Mr. Benson in his current position in light of the Company's business and growth objectives. The Compensation Committee established Mr. Benson's compensation to be in line with market practice and the Company's overall compensation philosophy.

Base Salary. The Compensation Committee set Mr. Benson's base salary at a level below that of the benchmark peer group. Mr. Benson's base salary for fiscal 2005 was at approximately the 25th percentile when compared to the base salaries for the top executives in that group.

Short-Term Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee has targeted Mr. Benson's short-term incentive opportunity to be competitive with market medians when targeted levels of performance are achieved and below market practices when the Company's performance falls below those targets. Mr. Benson's goals were based on the following measures pre-established by the Compensation Committee, achievement of certain EBITDA target, achievement of EBITDA margins, achievement of a pre-set free cash flow target, favorable debt refinancing, and the Company's overall compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Compensation Committee also recognizes that if the Company's performance exceeds performance goals, the STIP payment could bring his cash compensation level above the median of the benchmark peer group. Based on the Company's performance during the fiscal year ended on August 31, 2005, Mr. Benson was provided with a short-term incentive award that was equal to 113.5% of his target incentive opportunity.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee also granted deferred shares and stock option awards, with a vesting schedule designed to make his compensation package above the median if the Company's stock price performance is favorable. The options are granted a fair market value on the date of grant. The stock options vest in three equal installments over a three year period on the applicable anniversary of the grant date. The deferred shares vest in four equal installments over a four year period on the applicable anniversary of the grant date.

Retirement Compensation. Mr. Benson is provided with a retirement package similar to that provided to all other executives. This retirement package consists of: (i) a non-qualified defined contribution plan with matching contributions of up to 6% of the individual's salary; (ii) a 401(k) plan (with no matching contributions); and (iii) a defined benefit supplemental executive retirement plan (SERP). See also "Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan" on page 11 of this proxy statement.

Table of Contents

Other Compensation. In accordance with the terms of Mr. Benson's employment agreement, Mr. Benson received the following perquisites: a monthly allowance for automobile and related operating and insurance expenses, reimbursement of club memberships and tax preparation and planning expenses, each subject to maximum reimbursement limits. These perquisites did not exceed $50,000 in the aggregate for Mr. Benson in fiscal 2005.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Code limits the tax deduction of a publicly held company allowed for compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and to the four most highly compensated executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer. Prior to 2005, amounts payable under the 2003 Incentive Plan and the STIP were grandfathered from the limitations of Code Section 162(m). However, beginning in 2005, awards payable under the 2003 Incentive Plan and the STIP are subject to the limitations of Code Section 162(m) unless such amounts constitute qualified performance based compensation under 162(m). Those plans were approved by our stockholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting, which was required in order for amounts payable under such plans to be qualified performance based compensation.

Generally, the Compensation Committee desires to maintain the tax deductibility of the compensation for executive officers to the extent it is feasible and consistent with the objectives of the Company's compensation programs. The Compensation Committee continues to consider ways to maximize the deductibility of executive compensation, but intends to retain the discretion the Compensation Committee deems necessary to compensate executive officers in a manner commensurate with performance and the competitive environment for executive talent.

All members of the Compensation Committee have approved this report.

The Common Stock is currently listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol LI. The following graph compares for the period from June 23, 2003 through August 31, 2005 the cumulative total stockholder return on the Company's Common Stock, as reported on the NYSE, with (a) the cumulative total return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index; (b) the cumulative total return of the Dow Jones Transportation Average; (c) the cumulative total return of the Russell 1000 Stock Index; and (d) the cumulative total return of the Russell 2000 Stock Index. Because of the growth in total capitalization of the Company during fiscal 2005, the Common Stock became eligible for inclusion in the Russell 1000 Stock Index. As a result, the Russell 1000 Index is the index the Company uses for comparison. This year's comparison continues to show the Russell 2000 Stock Index, an index that the Company has used in prior years, because applicable regulations require both the new and the old index to be shown if the graph uses a different index from that used for the graph in the preceding year. The Russell 2000 Stock Index will not be used for comparison in next year's proxy statement. The graph assumes $100 was invested in the Common Stock or indices on June 23, 2003 and also assumes reinvestment of dividends.

AUDIT COMMITTEE AND INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Audit Committee Report

As discussed above, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted a written Audit Committee Charter on November 19, 2003. John F. Chlebowski, James H. Dickerson, Jr., Maria A. Sastre, Peter E. Stangl and Carroll R. Wetzel, Jr., the current members of the Audit Committee, are independent under the New York Stock Exchange listing standards.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and the financial reporting process. The independent registered accounting firm is responsible for performing an audit of the consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, as well as expressing an opinion on (i) management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and (ii) the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee reviews these processes on behalf of the Board of Directors. In this context, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent auditors, the audited financial statements of the Company contained in the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the year ended August 31, 2005. The Audit Committee has also discussed with the Company's independent auditors the matters required to be discussed pursuant to SAS 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, Communication with Audit Committees).

The Audit Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (titled, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees") and has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP such independent auditors' independence. The Audit Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit services to the Company by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is compatible with maintaining their independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This report is submitted on behalf of the Audit Committee.

Independent Registered Public Accountants

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent registered public accountants of the Company and its subsidiaries to audit the books and accounts for the Company and its subsidiaries for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2006. During fiscal 2005, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP examined the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, including those set forth in the 2005 Annual Report. It is expected that representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will attend the Annual Meeting, with the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire, and will be available to answer appropriate questions.

Audit Fees

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP billed fees to the Company of approximately $4,511,100 in fiscal 2005 and approximately $3,617,800 in fiscal 2004 for professional services rendered for and relating to the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and the reviews of the interim financial statements included in the Company's Annual and Quarterly Reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q filed during both fiscal years; the audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and assessment of management's evaluation of internal control over financial reporting as of August 31, 2005; and subsidiary audits and reviews in both fiscal years.

During fiscal 2005, the audit fees for PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP included approximately $2.5 million for services related to compliance with the requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. In addition, the Company paid approximately $5.3 million in fiscal 2005 to third party consultants, other than PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, in connection with Section 404 compliance.

Audit-Related Fees

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP billed fees to the Company of approximately $128,100 in fiscal 2005 and approximately $226,200 in fiscal 2004 for assurance and related services rendered that were reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements and are not included in Audit Fees above. These services included subsidiary benefit plan audits in both fiscal years, attestation services related to the retirement of Greyhound's debt in fiscal 2005, attestation services related to subsidiary contract requirements in fiscal 2004, and due diligence services relating to the sale of the Company's healthcare transportation services and emergency management services segments in fiscal 2005.

Tax Fees

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP billed fees to the Company of approximately $2,600 in fiscal 2005 and approximately $6,500 in fiscal 2004 for professional services rendered for tax compliance. These services related to a subsidiary's tax returns.

All Other Fees

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP billed fees to the Company of approximately $2,800 in fiscal 2005 and approximately $6,500 in fiscal 2004 for products and services provided other than those services covered above. These services related to access to accounting research software in both fiscal years and employment tax issues in fiscal 2004.

100% of the services described under Audit-Related Fees, Tax Fees and All Other Fees above were pre-approved by the Audit Committee during the fiscal year 2005. The Company believes that none of the time expended on PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's engagement to audit the Company's financial statements for fiscal 2005 was attributable to work performed by persons other than PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's full-time, permanent employees. Based in part on consideration of the non-audit services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP during fiscal 2005, the Audit Committee determined that such non-audit services were compatible with maintaining the independence of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

In accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee Charter provides that the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has the sole authority and responsibility to pre-approve all annual audit services and audit-related and tax services to be performed for the Company by its independent auditors and the related fees. The independent auditor may be considered for other services not specifically approved as audit services or audit-related and tax services so long as the services are not prohibited by SEC rules and are routine and recurring services, and would not impair the independence of the auditor. Pursuant to its charter, the Audit Committee has established pre-approval policies and procedures for such permitted non-audit services. Written documentation outlining the scope of work, timing, reasons why the independent auditor should perform the work and the proposed fees are submitted to the Company's Chief Financial Officer for management approval and if approved, then to the Audit Committee for approval. Approvals may be received by fax or e-mail, or verbally received first and then followed up in writing. With respect to each proposed pre-approved service, the independent auditor will provide detailed back-up documentation, which will be provided to the Audit Committee, regarding the specific services to be provided and related fees.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

There have not been any transactions, and there are currently no proposed transactions, in which the amount involved exceeded $60,000 to which we or any of our subsidiaries were or are to be a party and in which any executive officer, director, 5% beneficial owner of our common stock, or any member of their immediate family, had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, except as described above under Executive Compensation.

There are no business relationships between us and any entity of which a director of Laidlaw International, Inc. is an executive officer or of which a director of Laidlaw International, Inc. owns an equity interest in excess of 10% involving payments for property or services in excess of 5% of our consolidated gross revenues for fiscal year 2005.

PROCEDURES FOR SUBMISSION OF STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Company must receive by August 18, 2006 any proposal of a stockholder intended to be presented at the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company (the 2007 Meeting) and to be included in the Company's proxy, notice of meeting and proxy statement related to the 2007 Meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act. Such proposals must be addressed to Laidlaw International, Inc., 55 Shuman Blvd., Naperville, Illinois 60563 and should be submitted to the attention of the Corporate Secretary by certified mail, return receipt requested. Proposals of stockholders submitted outside the processes of Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act in connection with the 2007 Meeting (Non-Rule 14a-8 Proposals) must be received by the Company by October 17, 2006 and no earlier than September 17, 2006 or such proposals will be considered untimely under our By-laws. The Company's proxy related to the 2007 Meeting will give discretionary authority to the proxy holders to vote with respect to all Non-Rule 14a-8 Proposals received by the Company after October 17, 2006.

The Company will furnish without charge to each person whose proxy is being solicited, upon written request of any such person, a copy of the Annual Report on Form 10-K of the Company for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2005, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the financial statements and schedules thereto. Requests for copies of such Annual Report on Form 10-K should be directed to: Sarah Lewensohn, Laidlaw International, Inc., 55 Shuman Blvd., Naperville, Illinois 60563, (630) 848-3120.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The Company will bear the costs of soliciting proxies from its stockholders. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by the directors, officers and employees of the Company by personal interview, telephone, telegram, facsimile or electronic mail transmission. Such directors, officers and employees will not be additionally compensated for such solicitation but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such solicitation. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of Common Stock held of record by such persons, and the Company will reimburse such brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such solicitation. The Company has engaged MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to assist in proxy solicitation and collection, and has agreed to pay such firm $6,000, plus out-of-pocket costs and expenses.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

Table of Contents

This year, a number of brokers with account holders who are stockholders in the Company will be householding the Company's proxy materials. A single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that your broker will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report, please notify your broker or direct your written request to: Sarah Lewensohn, Laidlaw International, Inc., 55 Shuman Blvd., Naperville, Illinois 60563. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.

OTHER MATTERS

The directors know of no other matters that are likely to be brought before the Annual Meeting. Therefore, the enclosed proxy card grants to the persons named in the proxy card the authority to vote in their best judgment regarding all other matters properly raised at the Annual Meeting.

Standards for Director Independence

Annually, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the Committee) shall determine, and report to the Board of Directors (the Board) on whether any of the directors of Laidlaw International, Inc. (the Company, which, for purposes of the relationship described below, shall be deemed to include all of its consolidated subsidiaries), other than the management directors, has any relationship, which, in the opinion of the Committee (i) is material (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) and, as such, is reasonably likely to interfere with the exercise by such person of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a Director or (ii) would otherwise cause such person not to qualify as an independent director under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange or, in the case of members of the Audit Committee, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

To facilitate the Committee's review, the Committee has identified certain relationships, which, absent special circumstances, would not be deemed to interfere with a Director's qualifying as an independent Director. Such relationships include:

being a director who is not and has not been an employee, and whose immediate family members are not and have not been an executive officer of the Company during any of the last three years [NYSE 303A.02(b)(i)];

being a director who has received, and whose immediate family members have received, during any twelve-month period within the last three years, less than $100,000 in direct compensation from the Company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service) [NYSE 303A.02(b)(ii)];

(A) being a director who is not, or whose immediate family members are not a current partner of a firm that is the company's internal or external auditor; (B) being a director who is not, a current employee of such a firm; (C) being a director whose immediate family members are not current employees of such a firm and do not participate in the firm's audit, assurance or tax compliance (not including tax planning) practice; (D) being a director who was not, and whose immediate family members were not, within the last three years, a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on the listed company's audit within that time [NYSE 303A.02(b)(iii)];

being a director who is or was employed, or whose immediate family members are or were employed, as an executive officer of another organization where any of the Company's present executives at the same time serves or served on that organization's compensation committee, provided that at least three years have passed since the end of such service or the employment relationship; [NYSE 303A.02(b)(iv)];

being a director who is a current employee, or whose immediate family members are current executive officers, of a company which, during each of the last three fiscal years has made payments to, or received payments from, the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any of the last three fiscal years, was less than 2% of the Company's consolidated gross revenues or $1 million, whichever is greater [NYSE 303A.02(b)(v)]; and being an officer or director of a tax exempt organization to which the Company has made a contribution, provided that the Company's donations to such organization in each of the two preceding fiscal years and anticipated for the current fiscal year are less than $100,000.

To the extent that any relationship set forth in the second bullet or the fifth bullet exceeds the thresholds listed above, such relationship would create a presumption that a Director is not independent. In the event, however, that the Board, after considering all relevant facts and circumstances, determines that the Director should qualify as an independent Director, such determination shall be set forth and specifically explained in the Company's proxy statement.

For purposes of the foregoing, an immediate family member includes a person's spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers and fathers-in-law, sons and daughters-in-law, brothers and sisters-in-law, and anyone (other than domestic employees) who shares such person's home.
