ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS.

On December 12, 2001, Koger Equity, Inc. (the "Company") closed the sale of select non-core assets to AP-Knight, LP, an affiliate of Apollo Real Estate Investment Fund ("AREIF") for an aggregate price of $303 million, including approximately $206.7 million cash and the exchange of AREIF's 5.73 million shares of Koger Equity, Inc. Common Stock representing 21.4% of the outstanding shares of the Company. This sale represented the disposition of approximately 30% of the Company's consolidated assets.

In addition to the above consideration the Company received a membership interest in an AREIF subsidiary. This interest will provide the Company with a 20% participation in the net cash flow from the disposed assets after AREIF has received a 15% internal rate of return on its equity investment.

Edgar Filing: KOGER EQUITY INC - Form 8-K

Included in the sale are ten properties comprising 75 suburban office buildings and one retail center, which contained more than 3.9 million rentable square feet, located throughout San Antonio and Austin, Texas; Greensboro and Charlotte, North Carolina; Greenville, South Carolina and Birmingham, Alabama. Koger will continue to manage the disposed assets for which it will receive standard property management fees.

The net proceeds from the sale will be used to fund strategic investment opportunities in high growth markets, repay debt and fund a one-time capital gain distribution in the form of a special dividend to the Company's shareholders. In regard to the latter, on December 17, 2001, the Company's Board of Directors declared a $1.74 per share dividend on its Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, payable on January 15, 2002, to the shareholders of record on December 28, 2001.

John R. S. Jacobsson currently serves as a Director of the Company and is the partner responsible for investments at Apollo Real Estate Funds, an affiliate of AREIF. Lee S. Neibart who served as a Director of the Company until December 12, 2001, is also a partner in charge of the day-to-day operations of Apollo Real Estate Funds. Morgan Stanley acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with this transaction and provided a fairness opinion to a committee of the Company Board of Directors whose members were not affiliated with AREIF. The committee approved the terms of the transaction and determined that such terms were similar to those that could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party.

The above sale transaction was the subject of a Company News Release, dated December 12, 2001, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99 and by this reference made a part hereof.

ITEM 7. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND EXHIBITS.

Listed below are the financial statements, pro forma financial information and exhibits, if any, filed as part of this report.

(b) Pro Forma Financial Information

The following unaudited pro forma financial statements set forth (i) the pro forma balance sheet as of September 30, 2001, as if the sale occurred on September 30, 2001 and (ii) the pro forma statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2000 and the nine months ended September 30, 2001, as if the sale occurred on January 1, 2000. The pro forma financial statements are based upon assumptions contained in the notes thereto and should be read in conjunction with such notes.

The following unaudited pro forma financial statements may not necessarily reflect the results of operations or financial position of the Company which would have actually resulted had the sale occurred as of the date and for the periods indicated, nor should they be taken as indicative of the future results of operations or the future financial position of the Company. Differences would result from various factors, including the ability of the Company to reinvest the proceeds from the sale at returns in excess of those earned on temporary cash investments. The pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes of the Company included in its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000.
