Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On August 25, 2005, the Company, Raycom and Merger Subsidiary entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. At the effective time and as a result of the Merger, (i) the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Raycom and (ii) each share of Common Stock that is outstanding at the effective time of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive $47.35 in cash (the Merger Consideration). Each outstanding share of restricted stock granted under the Company s Incentive Compensation Program will become fully vested and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and each outstanding option to purchase Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the Merger Consideration less the exercise price for such option. In addition, at the effective time and as a result of the Merger, the officers and directors of Merger Subsidiary will become the officers and directors, respectively, of the Company as the surviving corporation of the Merger.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of the Company s shareholders, (ii) approval of the Federal Communications Commission, (iii) expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, (iv) absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, (v) subject to certain specified exceptions, the absence of any material adverse effect with respect to the Company s business and (vi) receipt of consents from certain third parties.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 99.13 hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of the Company, Raycom and Merger Subsidiary that they have made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract among the Company, Raycom and Merger Subsidiary and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed by and among them in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date, because, among other reasons, they are subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders or were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties thereto rather than establishing matters as facts.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, each of the Shareholders entered into a shareholder voting agreement (collectively, the Shareholder Voting Agreements) with Raycom and Merger Subsidiary pursuant to which each Shareholder has agreed to vote the shares of Common Stock listed in the Shareholder Voting Agreement in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger at any meeting or meetings of the Company s shareholders called to vote on the Merger Agreement and the Merger; and not to vote or cause to be voted, such shares, or otherwise provide a proxy or consent or enter into a voting agreement to vote such shares, in favor of any third party s Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement); and not to take any action that would prevent or otherwise adversely affect the consummation of the Merger and other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, except that a Shareholder who is a directors of the Company is not restricted or restrained from taking actions required by his or her fiduciary duties as a director if such actions are in compliance with provisions of the Merger Agreement; and subject to exception permitting a sale of up to 10% of shares of Common Stock directly owned by the Shareholder and up to 10% of the shares of Common Stock held in a trust the voting control over which is held by the Shareholder, not to, without the prior written consent of Raycom, sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of, or enter into any contract, option, commitment or other arrangement or understanding with respect the sale, transfer, pledge, assignment or disposition of, such shares of Common Stock unless the Shareholder receives an irrevocable proxy to vote such shares in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger and an agreement identical to the Shareholder Voting Agreement; and take any action that would prohibit, prevent or preclude the Shareholder from performing his or her obligations under the Shareholder Voting Agreement.

SCHEDULE 13DCUSIP NO. 530370-10-5*Page 10 of 14

The aggregate number of shares of Common Stock covered by the Shareholder Voting Agreements is 3,581,599.

The foregoing description of the Shareholder Voting Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Shareholder Voting Agreements, which are filed as Exhibits 99.1 through 99.12 hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) As a result of the Shareholder Voting Agreements Raycom and Merger Subsidiary may be deemed to have beneficial ownership of an aggregate of 3,581,599 shares of Common Stock, which constitutes approximately 19.6% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, based on the representation of the Company included in the Merger Agreement that as of August 17, 2005 18,297,938 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding. Reference is made to the information set forth in each Schedule A to each Shareholder Voting Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference. Each of Raycom and Merger Subsidiary disclaim beneficial ownership of such shares of Common Stock, and this Statement shall not be construed as an admission that either Raycom or Merger Subsidiary is, for any or all purposes, the beneficial owner of the securities covered by this Statement. Raycom and Merger Subsidiary may be deemed in certain circumstances as more fully described in Item 4 to have the shared power with the Shareholders to vote 3,581,599 shares of Common Stock and to dispose of 3,223,439 shares of Common Stock. However, neither Raycom nor Merger Subsidiary is entitled to any rights as a shareholder of the Company as to the shares of Common Stock that are subject to the Shareholder Voting Agreements, and each of Raycom and Merger Subsidiary disclaims any beneficial ownership of the shares of Common Stock that are covered by the Shareholder Voting Agreements. Mr. Sefert has sole power to vote and dispose of the 12,050 shares of Common Stock that he owns.

Certain information required by Item 2 relating to the Shareholders is, to the best of Raycom's and Merger Subsidiary's knowledge, set forth in Item 3 of this Statement. To the best of either Raycom's or Merger Subsidiary's knowledge, none of the Shareholders has during the last five years been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors), or been a party to any civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction as a result of which such person was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.
