PROXY STATEMENT
INTRODUCTION

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Vector Board) of Vector Group Ltd., a Delaware corporation (Vector). The proxy is solicited for use at the special meeting of stockholders to be held at the Bank of America Tower, 100 S.E. Second Street, 19th Floor Auditorium, Miami, Florida 33131 on Thursday, December 8, 2005, at 11:00 a.m. local time, and at any postponement or adjournment. Vector's principal executive offices are located at 100 S.E. Second Street, 32nd Floor, Miami, Florida 33131, and its telephone number is (305) 579-8000.

VOTING RIGHTS AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Every holder of record of common stock, par value $.10 per share, of Vector (the Vector Common Stock) at the close of business on October 25, 2005 is entitled to notice of the meeting and any adjournments or postponements and to vote, in person or by proxy, one vote for each share of Vector Common Stock held by such holder. At the record date, Vector had outstanding 44,592,890 shares of Vector Common Stock. This proxy statement, accompanying notice and proxy are first being mailed to stockholders on or about November 7, 2005.

Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke the proxy prior to its exercise. A proxy can be revoked by an instrument of revocation delivered at or prior to the special meeting to the secretary of Vector, by a duly executed proxy bearing a date or time later than the date or time of the proxy being revoked, or at the special meeting if the stockholder is present and elects to vote in person. Mere attendance at the special meeting will not serve to revoke a proxy. Abstentions and shares held of record by a broker or its nominee that are voted on any matter are included in determining the number of votes present for quorum purposes, but abstentions and broker shares not voted are disregarded and will have no effect on the proposed vote.

All proxies received and not revoked will be voted as directed. If no directions are specified, such proxies will be voted FOR the approval and authorization of the issuance of the shares of Vector Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer (as defined herein).

APPROVAL OF THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF VECTOR COMMON STOCK
PURSUANT TO THE EXCHANGE OFFER AND SUBSEQUENT MERGER

The Exchange Offer

Vector is seeking stockholder approval for the issuance of shares of Vector Common Stock to be issued pursuant to an exchange offer (the Exchange Offer) for all of the outstanding common shares, par value $.01 per share (the New Valley Stock), of New Valley Corporation, a Delaware corporation (New Valley), not currently owned by Vector and in the subsequent merger in order to combine New Valley with Vector. Vector currently owns 12,849,118 shares of New Valley Stock, representing approximately 57.7% of all of the outstanding shares of New Valley Stock. If Vector successfully completes the Exchange Offer, it will own more than 90% of the outstanding New Valley Stock, and would then effect a short form merger of one of its wholly-owned subsidiaries with New Valley. Under the subsequent merger, unless a stockholder properly perfects its appraisal rights under Delaware law, each share of New Valley Stock not acquired in the Exchange Offer would be converted into the same consideration as each share of New Valley Stock that was tendered into the Exchange Offer. In both the Exchange Offer and the subsequent merger, Vector Common Stock will be issued at an exchange ratio of 0.461 shares of Vector Common Stock for each share of New Valley Stock. The exchange ratio of

Table of Contents

0.461 shares of Vector Common Stock for each share of New Valley Stock reflects a value of approximately $9.00 per share of New Valley Stock and a 21% premium above the closing price of New Valley Stock on September 26, 2005, the last trading day before the Vector Board publicly announced its intention to commence the Exchange Offer. Successful completion of the Exchange Offer and subsequent merger would require the issuance of approximately 4,339,000 shares of Vector Common Stock, not giving effect to outstanding options to purchase shares of New Valley Stock.

The issuance of the shares of Vector Common Stock in exchange for the shares of New Valley Stock will be dilutive to the outstanding shares of Vector Common Stock. The issuance of Vector Common Stock could also depress the market price of Vector Common Stock by increasing the number of shares of Vector Common Stock that are outstanding. Prior to the issuance of Vector Common Stock in the Exchange Offer and subsequent merger, holders of Vector Common Stock, other than (i) directors and executive officers of Vector and (ii) stockholders holding more than 5% of Vector Common Stock, owned approximately 42.5%, and after the consummation of the Exchange Offer and subsequent merger will own approximately 45.2%, of the outstanding Vector Common Stock.

For information regarding the background, reasons, terms and effect of, and interests of certain persons in the Exchange Offer and subsequent merger, as well as a description of Vector Common Stock and financial statements and related information, see the Prospectus enclosed herewith. In addition, you should review the Supplement enclosed herewith which amends and supplements the Prospectus.

Reasons for Seeking Stockholder Approval

Vector's ability to issue the shares of Vector Common Stock in exchange for shares of New Valley Stock is subject to stockholder approval, as required by Section 312.03(b) of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual (the "NYSE Manual"). Section 312.03(b) requires stockholder approval of stock issuances in which a director, officer or substantial stockholder of Vector will be issued a number of shares exceeding 1% of the outstanding shares of the issuing company's common stock. The issuance of Vector Common Stock to New Valley stockholders pursuant to the Exchange Offer would result in the issuance of shares of Vector Common Stock greater than 1% of the outstanding shares of Vector Common Stock to (i) Howard M. Lorber, a director, an officer and, together with certain of his affiliated entities, a substantial stockholder of Vector, and (ii) Carl C. Icahn, together with certain of his affiliated entities, a substantial stockholder of Vector. Upon successful completion of the Exchange Offer, Messrs. Lorber and Icahn and their respective affiliates would receive approximately 444,376 and 582,098 shares of Vector Common Stock, respectively, equal to approximately 1% and 1.3% of the 44,592,890 outstanding shares of Vector Common Stock on the record date, respectively. Approval of the issuance of Vector Common Stock in the Exchange Offer, if given, will be effective for the issuance of Vector Common Stock at the 0.461 exchange ratio regardless of the other terms and conditions or the timing of the Exchange Offer or the subsequent merger or other factors that might be related thereto.

Pursuant to Section 312.07 of the NYSE Manual, an affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast (provided that the total vote cast for the proposed issuance represents over 50% in interest of all of the shares of Vector Common Stock entitled to vote thereon) regarding the proposed issuance is required for approval of the proposed issuance of Vector Common Stock. Certain directors and executive officers of Vector, who collectively own approximately 29.3% of the outstanding Vector Common Stock on the record date, have indicated that they currently intend to vote their shares of Vector Common Stock in favor of the proposed issuance.

The issuance of Vector Common Stock pursuant to the Exchange Offer is a condition to the consummation of the Exchange Offer. Therefore, if the proposed issuance of Vector Common Stock is not approved by the stockholders, the Exchange Offer will not be consummated.

Opinion of Vector's Financial Advisor

Vector engaged Jefferies & Company, Inc. (Jefferies) pursuant to an engagement letter dated as of September 27, 2005 to serve as its financial advisor in connection with the Exchange Offer. On September 27, 2005, Jefferies rendered to the Vector Board its opinion as investment bankers to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various considerations and assumptions set forth therein, the exchange ratio of 0.461 shares of Vector Common Stock to be issued in exchange for each outstanding share of New Valley Stock not owned by Vector was fair, from a financial point of view, to Vector. For a summary of the Jefferies opinion and the material financial and comparative analyses performed by Jefferies that was presented to the Vector Board on September 27, 2005 in connection with the delivery of its opinion, see BACKGROUND AND REASONS FOR THE OFFER AND SUBSEQUENT MERGER Opinion of Jefferies beginning on page 29 of the Prospectus. In addition, also see the Supplement for additional information regarding fees paid by Vector to Jefferies. The full text of the Jefferies opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Jefferies in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex D to the Prospectus.

The Jefferies opinion was provided to the Vector Board in connection with its consideration of the Exchange Offer, and therefore addresses only the fairness to Vector, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the Jefferies opinion, of the exchange ratio to be offered in the Exchange Offer. The Jefferies opinion does not address the fairness of the exchange ratio to the New Valley stockholders or any other aspect of the Exchange Offer, nor does it constitute a recommendation as to how any Vector stockholder should vote on the share issuance or any other matter relevant to the Exchange Offer or as to whether any New Valley stockholder should tender their shares of New Valley Stock in the Exchange Offer. Vector has agreed to pay Jefferies $325,000 for its services in connection with the delivery of its opinion to the Vector Board.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

In connection with Vector's convertible note offering in November 2004, the purchasers of the notes required Bennett S. LeBow, the principal stockholder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Vector, to enter into an agreement granting Jefferies, the placement agent for such offering, the right, in its sole discretion, to borrow up to 3,646,518 shares of Vector Common Stock from the principal stockholder or an entity affiliated with him during a 30-month period, subject to extension under various conditions, and that he agree not to dispose of such shares during this period, subject to limited exceptions. In consideration for the principal stockholder agreeing to lend his shares in order to facilitate Vector's offering and accepting the resulting liquidity risk, Vector agreed to pay him or an affiliate designated by him an annual fee, payable on a quarterly basis in cash or, by mutual agreement of Vector and the principal stockholder, shares of Vector Common Stock, equal to 1% of the aggregate market value of 3,646,518 shares of Vector Common Stock. In addition, Vector agreed to hold the principal stockholder harmless on an after-tax basis against any increase, if any, in the income tax rate applicable to dividends paid on the shares as a result of the share loan agreement. The principal stockholder has the right to assign to Howard M. Lorber, the President and a director of Vector, some or all of his obligation to lend the shares under such agreement. In 2004, Vector paid an entity affiliated with the principal stockholder an aggregate of $69,000 under this agreement.

In connection with Vector's convertible note offering in 2001, a similar agreement with the principal stockholder of Vector had been in place for the three-year period ended June 29, 2004. In 2004, Vector paid an entity affiliated with the principal stockholder an aggregate of $291,000 under the agreement.

In connection with Vector's convertible note offering in April 2005, Vector entered into a similar arrangement through May 2007 with Mr. Lorber, as one of Vector's principal stockholders, with respect to 315,000 shares of Vector Common Stock.

As of the record date, High River Limited Partnership, an investment entity owned by Carl C. Icahn, was the beneficial owner of 21.4% of Vector Common Stock. High River owns $20,000,000 of Vector's

Table of Contents

6.25% convertible notes due 2008, convertible into 904,159 shares of Vector Common Stock on the record date. High River received interest payments on the notes of $1,250,000 during 2004.

Various executive officers and directors of Vector and New Valley serve as members of the Board of Directors of Ladenburg Thalmann Financial Services Inc., which is indebted to New Valley. For additional information concerning these borrowings, see page 64 of the Prospectus.

Mr. Lorber was Chairman of Hallman & Lorber in 2004 and, since January 2005, has been a consultant to such company. During 2004, Mr. Lorber and Hallman & Lorber and its affiliates received ordinary and customary insurance commissions aggregating approximately $587,000 on various insurance policies issued for Vector and its subsidiaries and investees. Mr. Lorber and Hallman & Lorber and its affiliates have continued to provide services to Vector in 2005.

Mr. Eide is a stockholder, and serves as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, of Aegis Capital Corp., a registered broker-dealer, that has performed services for New Valley since before January 1, 2004. During 2004, Aegis received commissions and other income in the aggregate amount of approximately $46,000 from New Valley. Aegis has continued to provide services to New Valley in 2005.
