Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

As permitted under Tennessee law, the Company's Charter provides that a director shall not be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that such provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (c) for unlawful corporate distributions.

Under its Bylaws, the Company may indemnify and advance expenses to its current and former directors and officers with respect to certain liabilities incurred as a result of any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal, to which such person is a party because he is or was a director or officer of the Company. The liabilities that may be indemnified against include the obligations to pay judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred with respect to a proceeding. Any such indemnification is predicated upon the proposed indemnitee having met the standard of conduct specified in the Tennessee Business Corporation Act. Determination concerning whether or not the applicable standard of conduct has been met can be made by (a) the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of disinterested directors, (b) a majority vote of a committee of disinterested directors, (c) special legal counsel, or (d) an affirmative vote of a majority of shares held by the disinterested shareholders. No indemnification shall be made to or on behalf of a director (i) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Company in which the director was adjudged liable to the Company, or (ii) in connection with any other proceeding in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him. The Company's Bylaws also permit the Company to indemnify or advance expenses to its employees and agents to the same extent as to a director or officer.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed. Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

See Exhibit Index, which is incorporated here by reference.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement) shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to Item 6 of this Part II, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
