To Be Held May 4, 2006
GENERAL INFORMATION

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors (the Board) of Cogdell Spencer Inc. (the Company), a Maryland corporation, for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the Annual Meeting), and at any adjournments or postponements thereof, to be held at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 337 Meeting Street, Charleston, SC 29403, on Thursday, May 4, 2006 at 9:00 a.m. local time. The purposes of the meeting are: (1) to elect seven members to the Board of Directors, each to serve until the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the nominees to the Board of Directors being James W. Cogdell, Frank C. Spencer, John R. Georgius, Richard B. Jennings, Christopher E. Lee, Richard C. Neugent and Randolph D. Smoak, MD; (2) to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP, as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2006; and (3) to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

This proxy statement is accompanied by a copy of the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2005.

ABOUT THE MEETING

Record Date

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on Wednesday, March 22, 2006 as the record date (the Record Date) for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Each share of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share (Common Stock), is entitled to one vote for each matter to be voted upon. As of the Record Date, there were 8,000,374 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Quorum; Voting

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock which are entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is not present or represented at the Annual Meeting, the stockholders entitled to vote, whether present in person or represented by proxy, have the power to adjourn the Annual Meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the Annual Meeting, until a quorum is present or represented. At any such adjourned Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present or represented, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the Annual Meeting as originally noticed.

Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock registered in the stockholder's name on the Record Date. A plurality vote of the outstanding Common Stock is required for the election of directors. An affirmative vote, of a majority of the votes, cast at the meeting by holders of the Company's Common Stock at which a quorum is present is required for the approval and ratification of each other matter.

If you properly execute a proxy in the accompanying form, and if we receive it prior to voting at the Annual Meeting, the shares that the proxy represents will be voted in the manner specified on the proxy. If no specification is made, abstentions will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote.

Election Inspectors

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting, who will determine whether or not a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter.

Shares Held in Street Name

Under New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) rules, if your shares are held in street name, your broker may, without instructions from you, vote your shares on all proposals set forth in this proxy statement.

If you cast a vote by proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted by:

giving written notice to the Company's Secretary at our address, expressly revoking the proxy, by signing and forwarding to us a proxy dated later, or by attending the Annual Meeting and personally voting the common stock owned of record by you.

Costs of Soliciting Proxies

The Company will bear the entire costs of soliciting proxies for the Annual Meeting. In addition to solicitation by mail, certain of the Company's directors, officers and regular employees may solicit the return of proxies by telephone, facsimile, personal interview or otherwise without being paid additional compensation. Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the transfer agent and registrar for the Company, will assist in the distribution of proxy materials and tabulation of votes. The Company will also reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing the beneficial owners of the Company's shares for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners in accordance with the proxy solicitation rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and the NYSE.

Delivery of Materials

The rules of the SEC allow for householding, which is the delivery of a single copy of an annual report and proxy statement to any address shared by two or more stockholders. This combined mailing just be addressed to the security holders as group. Duplicate mailings can be eliminated by allowing stockholders to consent to such elimination, or through implied consent if: (1) it is believed that the stockholders are members of the same family, (2) the stockholders are notified that householding is to be used and (3) the stockholders do not request continuation of duplicate mailings. If you own shares of Common Stock in your own name as a holder of record, householding will not apply to your shares. If your shares of Common Stock are held in street name, depending upon the practices of your broker, bank or other nominee, you may need to contact them directly to discontinue duplicate mailings to your address. If you wish to revoke your consent to householding, and instead want mailings made to each individual at the shared address, you must contact your broker, bank or other nominee.

If you wish to request extra copies free of charge of our annual report or proxy statement, please either send your request in writing to Cogdell Spencer Inc., 4401 Barclay Downs Drive, Suite 300, Charlotte, North Carolina 28209, Attn: Investor Relations; make your request by calling (704) 940-2900; or find our materials available by visiting our website at www.cogdellspencer.com.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

Board Meetings

The Board intends to hold at least four regularly scheduled meetings per year and additional special meetings as necessary. Each director is expected to attend scheduled and special meetings, unless unusual circumstances make attendance impractical. The Board of Directors may also take action from time to time by written consent. For the period from November 1, 2005 (the closing date of the Company's initial public offering) through Tuesday, February 21, 2006, the Board of Directors conducted a total of two meetings. Each director attended 100% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of any committees on which he served during this period. The Company expects each director to attend both regularly scheduled and special meetings, except if unusual circumstances make attendance impractical.

Executive Sessions of Non-Management Directors

It is the policy of the Board that the independent members of the Board meet separately without management (including management directors) at least twice per year during regularly scheduled Board meetings in order to discuss such matters as the independent directors consider appropriate. The lead independent director will assume the responsibility of chairing the meetings of independent directors and shall bear such further responsibilities which the independent directors as a whole or the Board might designate from time to time. The Company's independent auditors, finance staff, legal counsel, other employees and other outside advisers may be invited to attend these meetings.

The Board will periodically appoint a chair. Both independent and management directors, including the CEO, are eligible for appointment as the chair. The chair, or if the chair is not an independent director, the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall serve as the lead independent director. The lead independent director is responsible for coordinating the activities of the other independent directors, including scheduling and conducting separate meetings of the independent directors and for such other duties as are assigned from time to time by the Board.

Board Committees

The Board has three standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each of these committees have at least three directors and are composed exclusively of independent directors, by reference to the rules, regulations and listing standards of the NYSE, the national exchange on which our Common Stock is traded.

Committee Charters

The Company's Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charters meet the standards that have been established by the NYSE. Copies of these charters are available on the Company's website at www.cogdellspencer.com or will be provided to any stockholder upon request.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee helps to ensure the integrity of our financial statements, the qualifications and independence of our independent auditors and the performance of our internal audit function and independent auditors. The audit committee selects, assists and meets with the independent auditors, oversees each annual audit and quarterly review, monitors our systems of internal controls and prepares the report that U.S. federal securities laws require to be included in our annual proxy statement. John R. Georgius chairs our Audit Committee and serves as our audit committee financial expert, as that term is defined by the SEC, and Richard C. Neugent and Randolph D. Smoak, M.D. serve as members of this committee. The Audit Committee met two times in 2005.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee reviews and approves the compensation and benefits of our executive officers, administers and makes recommendations to our board of directors regarding our compensation and stock incentive plans and produce an annual report on executive compensation for inclusion in our proxy statement. Christopher E. Lee chairs our Compensation Committee and John R. Georgius and Randolph D. Smoak, M.D. serve as members of this committee. The Compensation Committee met one time in 2005.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee develops and recommends to our Board a set of corporate governance principles, adopts a code of ethics, adopts policies with respect to conflicts of interest, monitors our compliance with corporate governance requirements of state and U.S. federal law and the rules and regulations of the NYSE, establishes criteria for prospective members of our board of directors, conducts candidate searches and interviews, oversees and evaluates our board of directors and management; evaluates from time to time the appropriate size and composition of our board of directors, recommends, as appropriate, increases, decreases and changes in the composition of our board of directors and formally proposes the slate of directors to be elected at each annual meeting of our stockholders. Richard C. Neugent chairs our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Christopher E. Lee and Randolph D. Smoak, M.D. serve as members of this committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met one time in 2005.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider recommendations made by stockholders. Under the Company's By-Laws, and as SEC rules permit, stockholders must follow certain procedures to nominate a person for election as a director at an annual or special meeting, or to introduce an item of business at an annual meeting. A stockholder must notify the Secretary of the Company in writing of the director nominee or the other business. The notice must include the required information (as set forth below on page 20, Other Matters Stockholder Proposals and Nominations for the Board) and be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not earlier than the 150th day and not later than 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of mailing of the notice for the preceding year's Annual Meeting.

If the date of the Annual Meeting is advanced or delayed by more than 30 days from the first anniversary of the date of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the stockholder must be delivered as described above not earlier than the 150th day prior to the date of mailing of the notice for such annual meeting and not later than 5:00 p.m., Mountain time, on the later of the 120th day prior to the date of such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which disclosure of the date of such meeting is first made. The public announcement of a adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting does not change or create a new opportunity for notice as described above.

Director Compensation

Each non-employee member of our Board is entitled to receive annual compensation for his services as a director as follows: $25,000 per year, $1,000 per meeting attended, $500 per committee meeting attended and $500 per teleconference or committee meeting attended. The chairperson of the audit committee will be entitled to receive an additional $10,000 annually and the chairperson of each other committee will be entitled to receive an additional $2,500 annually in compensation.

Upon joining our Board, each non-employee director received 2,500 shares of restricted stock, all of which vested on the date of grant. Directors who are employees of the Company will not receive any compensation for their services as directors. Each member of our Board will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses associated with service on our behalf and associated with attendance at or participation in board meetings or committee meetings.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

The Company's Board of Directors, in its role of overseeing the conduct of the Company's business, is guided by the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Guidelines reflect the NYSE listing standards. Among other things, the Guidelines contain categorical standards for determining director independence in accordance with the NYSE listing standards. The full Guidelines are available on the Company's website at www.cogdellspencer.com.

Director Independence

The Guidelines provide that a majority of our directors serving on our Board must be independent as required by the listing standards of the NYSE and the applicable rules promulgated by the SEC. The Company's Board has affirmatively determined, based upon its review of all relevant facts and circumstances, that each of the following directors has no direct or indirect material relationship with us and is independent under the listing standards of the NYSE and the applicable rules promulgated by the SEC: Messrs. Georgius, Lee, Neugent and Dr. Smoak. The Board has determined that Mr. Cogdell, the Chairman of the Board, Mr. Spencer, the Company's CEO (the "CEO") and Mr. Jennings are not independent because they are also executive officers of the Company or have or have had direct or indirect material relationships with the Company. Pursuant to an engagement letter entered into on December 1, 2004, we engaged Realty Capital International Inc., an affiliate of Mr. Jennings, to provide advisory services to us relating to the structure and terms of the Company's formation transactions and the initial public offering. As part of this engagement, the Company paid $10,000 in cash per month in fees for Realty Capital International Inc.'s role as adviser throughout the course of the Offering. Upon the closing of the Offering, Realty Capital International Inc. also received a success fee equal to 0.5% of the gross offering proceeds, including any over-allotment proceeds.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The executive compensation philosophy, policies, plans, and programs of the Company are under the supervision of the Compensation Committee, which is composed of the Non-Management Directors named below, each of whom has been determined by the Board of Directors to be independent under the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NYSE listing standards. The Compensation Committee has furnished the following report on executive compensation.

The Company completed its initial public offering on November 1, 2005. The information regarding executive compensation as described in the Company's registration statement on Form S-11 served as the basis for the Company's executive compensation policies, practices, and programs during 2005.

Compensation Philosophy

The basic philosophy underlying the Company's executive compensation policies, plans, and programs is that executive and stockholder financial interests should be aligned as closely as possible, and that compensation should be based on delivering pay commensurate with performance. Accordingly, the executive compensation program for the Company's CEO and the other officers of the Company has been structured to:

Provide compensation that attracts, retains, and motivates key executives.

Reinforce a results-oriented management culture with executive pay that varies according to overall Company and individual performance against business goals and core behavioral standards.

Place more emphasis on variable performance-based compensation, commensurate with an executive's increasing responsibilities.

Align the interests of the Company's executives and stockholders by implementing and maintaining compensation programs that provide for the acquisition and retention of significant equity interests in the Company by senior executives.

Based on these objectives, the executive compensation program has been designed to assist the Company in attracting, motivating and retaining executives to help the Company achieve its performance goals. The program is structured to provide the Company's executives with base salaries, annual cash incentive awards, long-term incentive awards, and stock ownership opportunities.

All executive employment agreements were initiated and became effective with the closing of the Company's initial public offering. A description of these agreements is set forth under the heading "Agreements with Executive Officers" on page 12 in this Proxy Statement.

Executive Compensation

The executive compensation plan has been structured to provide short and long-term incentives that promote continuing improvements in the Company's financial results and returns to stockholders. The elements of the Company's executive compensation, as provided for in the executives' employment agreements, are primarily comprised of three elements designed to complement each other.

Base salaries. Base salaries are paid for ongoing performance throughout the year. The Company's base salaries of executive officers and guaranteed portions of annual incentive bonuses are designed to be competitive with those of executives of other equity REITs, which compete with the Company, while also taking into account the executive officers' performance;

Annual Incentive Bonus. The Company expects to provide for the payment of cash incentive bonuses based on the Company's performance in relation to predetermined objectives and individual executive performance.

Long-Term Incentives. The Company expects to provide a long-term incentive program allowing for awards of stock options, grants of restricted stock or LTIP units, the exact numbers of which vary, depending on the position and salary of the executive. These equity based awards will be designed to link executive compensation to the Company's long-term common share performance and expect to be issued in accordance with the description set forth in the Company's registration statement on Form S-11.

Chairman and CEO Compensation

James W. Cogdell served as the Company's Chairman of the Board during 2005. Mr. Cogdell's employment agreement was initiated on October 21, 2005 and sets an annual salary of $430,000 and an annual bonus award as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors.

Frank C. Spencer served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer during 2005. Mr. Spencer's employment agreement was initiated on October 21, 2005 and sets an annual salary of $430,000 and an annual bonus award as determined by Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Mr. Spencer also received $1,400,001 in LTIP units based on the initial public offering price of $17.00 per share. These LTIP units were granted concurrently and vested immediately with the closing of the offering.

Federal Tax Regulations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, limits the deductibility on the Company's income tax return to compensation of $1 million for certain executive officers unless, in general, the compensation is paid pursuant to a plan that is performance based, nondiscretionary and has been approved by the Company's shareholders. This regulation did not apply to the Company prior to the time it became a public company in October 2005. The Committee's policy with respect to Section 162(m) since the initial public offering is to make reasonable efforts to ensure that compensation is deductible to the extent permitted, while simultaneously providing the Company's executives with appropriate rewards for their performance.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Compensation Committee:

Christopher E. Lee, Chairman

John R. Georgius

Randolph D. Smoak, M.D.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

There are no Compensation Committee interlocks and none of the Company's employees participate on the Compensation Committee.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under federal securities laws, the Company's directors, executive officers and holders of 10% or more of the Company's Common Stock are required to report, within specified monthly and annual due dates, their initial ownership in the Company's Common Stock and all subsequent acquisitions, dispositions or other transfers of beneficial interests therein, if and to the extent reportable events occur which require reporting by such due dates. Based solely on representations and information provided to the Company by the persons required to make such filings, the Company believes that all filing requirements were complied with during the last fiscal year.

Agreements with Executive Officers

The Company entered into written employment agreements with its named executive officers that became effective upon the closing of the initial public offering, pursuant to which Messrs. Cogdell, Spencer and Handy are expected to agree to serve, respectively, as our Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, and Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President and Secretary. The employment agreements require the executives to devote substantially all of their business time and effort to the Company's affairs.

The employment agreements with Messrs. Cogdell and Spencer are each for a five-year term and Mr. Handy's is for a three-year term; provided, however, that the terms will be automatically extended for successive one-year periods unless, not later than three months prior to the termination of the existing term, either party provides written notice to the other party of its intent not to further extend the term. The employment agreements provide for an initial base salary of $430,000, $430,000 and $225,000 to each of Messrs. Cogdell, Spencer and Handy, respectively, and for bonus and other incentive eligibility (as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board) and participation in employee benefit plans and programs. The Company shall also make available to each of Messrs. Cogdell, Spencer and Handy, use of a Company car.

The compensation otherwise payable to Messrs. Cogdell and Spencer shall be subject to reduction as follows:

In the event that during the term of their employment agreements or any extension thereof, the average annual combined net operating income for East Jefferson Medical Office Building and East Jefferson Medical Specialty Building for any of the years ended December 31, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010 declines by more than 15% from their combined estimated 2006 net operating income, which is estimated to be $2.15 million, an amount equal to such additional decline (up to the next 15% of such shortfall) (which is referred to in the employment agreements as the "captured shortfall amount") shall off-set the compensation otherwise payable to each such executive in the next calendar year following such measurement period by an amount equal to 50% of such captured shortfall amount.

Upon the termination of an executive officer's employment either by us for "cause" or by the executive officer without "good reason" during the term of his employment agreement, such executive officer will be entitled to receive his annual base salary and other benefits accrued through the date of termination of the executive officer's employment.

The term "cause" as used in the employment agreements is generally defined to mean:

(i) conviction of, or formal admission to, a felony;

(ii) engagement in the performance of the executive's duties, or otherwise to the material and demonstrable detriment of the Company, in willful misconduct, willful or gross neglect, fraud, misappropriation or embezzlement;

(iii) repeated failure to adhere to the directions of the board of directors of the Company, or to adhere to the Company's policies and practices;

(iv) willful and continued failure to substantially perform the executive's duties properly assigned to him (other than any such failure resulting from his disability) after demand for substantial performance is delivered by the Company specifically identifying the manner in which the Company believes the executive has not substantially performed such duties;

(v) breach of any of the provisions of the covenants of the executive's employment agreement; or

(vi) breach in any material respect of the terms and provisions of the executive's employment agreement and failure to cure such breach within 90 days following written notice from the Company specifying such breach. The term "good reason" as used in the employment agreements is generally defined to mean:

(i) the material reduction of the executive's authority, duties and responsibilities, the failure to continue the executive's appointment in his given position, or the assignment to the executive of duties materially inconsistent with the executive's position or positions with the Company;

(ii) a reduction in annual salary of the executive;

(iii) the relocation of the executive's office to more than 50 miles from Charlotte, North Carolina;

(iv) the Company's material and willful breach of the executive's employment agreement; or

(v) a decision by the Company, over the reasonable objection of the executive acting in good faith, materially to change the Company's business plan so as to effect a fundamental change to the primary business purpose of the Company.

Upon the termination of an executive officer's employment either by us without cause or by the executive officer for good reason, or, in the case of Messrs. Cogdell and Spencer, any non-renewal of the executive officer's employment agreement by us, the executive officer will be entitled under his employment agreement to the following severance payments and benefits:

annual base salary, bonus and other benefits accrued through the date of termination;

a lump-sum cash payment equal to 1.99 multiplied by the sum of (1) the executive officer's then-current annual base salary and (2) the greater of (A) the average bonus paid to the executive officer over the previous two years and (B) the maximum bonus payable to the executive officer for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs;

for three years after termination of employment, continuing coverage under the group health plans the executive officer would have received under his employment agreement, as would have applied in the absence of such termination; and full vesting of all outstanding equity-based awards held by the executive officer.

Upon a change of control (as defined in the employment agreements), while the executive officer is employed, all outstanding unvested equity-based awards (including stock options and restricted stock) shall fully vest and become immediately exercisable, as applicable. In addition if, after a change of control, the executive officer terminates his employment with us within one year of the change in control, such termination shall be deemed a termination by the executive officer for good reason. The term "change of control" as used in the employment agreements is generally defined to mean:

(i) any transaction by which any person or group becomes the beneficial owner, either directly or indirectly, of our securities representing 50% or more of either (A) the combined voting power of our then outstanding securities or (B) the then outstanding shares of our common stock; or

(ii) any consolidation or merger where our stockholders, immediately prior to the consolidation or merger, would not, immediately after the consolidation or merger, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, shares representing in the aggregate 50% or more of the combined voting power of the securities of the corporation issuing cash or securities in the consolidation or merger (or of its ultimate parent corporation, if any); or

(iii) there shall occur (A) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of all or substantially all of our assets, or (B) the approval by our stockholders of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company; or

(iv) the members of our board of directors, at the beginning of any consecutive 24-calendar-month period cease for any reason other than due to death to constitute at least a majority of the members of the board.

With respect to Mr. Handy, in the event of any notice of non-renewal of the employment agreement by us, the executive officer will be entitled under his employment agreement to the same payments and benefits as if terminated other than for cause, except that the executive officer's lump-sum cash payment will equal the sum of (1) the executive officer's then-current annual base salary; and (2) the maximum bonus payable to the executive officer for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs.

Upon the termination of the executive officer's employment due to the death or disability (generally meaning a condition rendering the executive officer unable to perform substantially and continually the duties assigned to him) of the executive officer, the executive officer (or his estate) will be entitled under his employment agreement to his annual base salary, bonus and other benefits accrued through the date of termination and full vesting of all outstanding equity-based awards held by the executive officer.

In the event that any amount payable to an executive officer is determined to be an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Code, we have also agreed to make a gross-up payment to the executive equal to the excise tax imposed on the executive under Section 4999 of the Code. The amount of gross-up payment (which is also treated as an excess parachute payment) shall be equal to the sum of the excise taxes payable by the executive by reason of receiving the parachute payments plus the amount necessary to put the executive in the same after-tax position as if no excise taxes had been imposed on the executive (taking into account any and all applicable federal, state and local excise, income or other taxes at the highest applicable rates). The excise taxes shall be payable by the executive officer and we must withhold the excise tax as if the payment constituted wages to the executive officer. In addition, we are not entitled to an income tax deduction related to any excess parachute payments or related gross-up payments.

The Company has also agreed to provide Mr. Cogdell's personal accountant with an office at the Company's headquarters building provided that Mr. Cogdell shall reimburse us for the use of such office space and for any and all benefits that we provide to this person.

Upon termination of the executive officer's employment, if the Company elects to subject the executive officer to the non-competition, confidentiality and non-solicitation provisions described below, the executive officer will be entitled to a cash payment equal to the sum of (1) the executive officer's then-current annual base salary and (2) the greater of (A) the average bonus paid to the executive officer over the previous two years and (B) the maximum bonus payable to the executive officer for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs. Pursuant to the terms of the non-competition provisions, the executive is prohibited for a one-year period following termination from, directly or indirectly, whether as an owner, partner, shareholder, principal, agent, employee, consultant or in any other relationship or capacity, engaging in any element of the Company's business or otherwise competing with the Company or its affiliates, rendering any services to any person, corporation, partnership or other entity engaged in competition with the Company or its affiliates, or providing financial assistance to or otherwise obtaining an ownership interest in a competitor of the Company or its affiliates within a restricted territory encompassing several states in the Southeast.

The executive officer is required to keep secret and retain in strictest confidence, and not use for his benefit or the benefit of others, except in connection with the business and affairs of the Company and its affiliates, all confidential matters relating to the Company's business and the business of any of its affiliates and to the Company and any of its affiliates, learned by the executive officer directly or indirectly from the Company or any of its affiliates, and is not to disclose such confidential information to anyone outside of the Company except with the Company's express written consent and except for confidential information which is at the time of receipt, or thereafter becomes, publicly known through no wrongful act of the executive officer, or is received from a third party not under an obligation to keep such information confidential and without breach of the executive officer's employment agreement.

Finally, the executive officer is prohibited from, directly or indirectly, knowingly soliciting or encouraging to leave the employment or other service of the Company, or any of its affiliates, any employee or independent contractor thereof or hiring any employee or independent contractor who has left the employment or other service of the Company or any of its affiliates within the one-year period which follows the termination of such employee's or independent contractor's employment or other service with the Company and its affiliates.

Indemnification Agreements

The Company expects to enter into customary indemnification agreements with each of its executive officers and directors.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The Board of Directors (the Board) of Cogdell Spencer Inc. (the Company) has established an audit committee comprised of independent directors (the Committee) and has adopted and approved this amended and restated charter for the Committee. The Committee s primary functions are to:

1. Assist Board oversight of (i) the integrity of the Company s financial statements, (ii) the Company s compliance with legal and regulatory requirements including The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, (iii) the qualifications and independence of the registered public accounting firm employed by the Company for the audit of the Company s financial statements (the Independent Auditor), (iv) the performance of the individuals responsible for the Company s internal audit function, and (v) the performance of the Company s Independent Auditors, including any third party employed by the Company for the purpose of performing all or any portion of the Company s internal audit function (the Internal Auditor),

2. Prepare the report that rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) require be included in the Company s annual proxy statement, and

3. Provide an open avenue of communication among the Company s Independent Auditors, its Internal Auditors, its management and its Board.

Organization

1. The Committee will be comprised of at least three directors, each of whom is financially literate (i.e., able to read and understand financial statements and have knowledge of the functions of auditors for a Company) or, in the judgment of the Board, able to become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee. All members of the Committee will be, in the business judgment of the Board, independent under the independence requirements set forth, from time to time, in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and any other applicable laws, rules or regulations, including, without limitation, any rules promulgated by the SEC. The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board.

2. At least one member of the Committee will be a person who fits the qualifications of audit committee financial expert, as the SEC currently defines as a person who has the following attributes:

(b) the ability to assess the general application of such principles in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves;

(c) experience preparing, auditing, analyzing or evaluating financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of issues that can be reasonably expected to be raised by the Company s financial statements, or experience supervising one or more persons engaged in such activities;

(d) an understanding of internal controls and procedures for financial reporting; and

(e) an understanding of audit committee functions.

3. No director who serves on the audit committee of more than three other public companies may be a member of the Committee, unless the Board determines such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to effectively serve on the Committee, and discloses such determination in the Company s annual proxy statement, or in the Company s annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

4. The members of the Committee will be appointed, removed and replaced by, and in the sole discretion of, the Board.

5. The Board will designate a member of the Committee to serve as chairman of the Committee.

6. The Committee will create its own rules of procedure. Such rules will be consistent with the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the Charter), and By-laws (the By-laws) of the Company and with this charter.

11. The Committee may request members of management or others to attend meetings and provide pertinent information as necessary.

Powers

The Committee will have the authority to engage independent counsel, accounting and other advisors, as it determines necessary to carry out its duties. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for payment of compensation (a) to the Independent Auditor employed by the Company to audit the financial statements of the Company and (b) to any advisors employed by the Committee.

The Committee may require any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or Independent Auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

Responsibilities

The Committee will from time to time adopt policies or procedures it deems necessary to ensure that the accounting and reporting practices of the Company are of the highest quality.

While the Committee has the powers and responsibilities set forth in this charter, it is not the duty or responsibility of the Committee to (i) plan or conduct audits, (ii) determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate or are in accordance with GAAP or applicable rules and regulations, or (iii) monitor and control risk assessment and management. These are the responsibilities of the Company's management and the Independent Auditor.

The Committee's functions are the sole responsibility of the audit committee and may not be allocated to a different committee.

The Committee may delegate to one or more of its members who is an independent director the authority to grant preapprovals.

4. In order to evaluate the Independent Auditors' qualifications, performance and independence, at least annually obtain and review a report by the Independent Auditors describing: the firm's internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by government or professional authorities within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and all relationships between the Independent Auditors and the Company in order to assess the Independent Auditor's independence. This evaluation should include review of the partner of the Independent Auditor who has principal responsibility for its audits of the Company's financial statements and should take into account the opinions of management and the Internal Auditors (or the Company's personnel responsible for the internal audit function). In addition, the report will include a written statement of the fees billed for each of the following categories of services rendered by the Independent Auditor: (a) the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the most recent fiscal year and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for that fiscal year; (b) information technology consulting services for the most recent fiscal year; and (c) all other services rendered by the Independent Auditor for the most recent fiscal year.

The review should also include discussion of the responsibilities, budget and staffing of the Company's internal audit function.

10. Meet separately, periodically, with management, with the Internal Auditors, and with the Independent auditors and take such parties' opinions into consideration.
