Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 21, 2008, the Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of Popular, Inc. (the Corporation) approved the key terms of the Corporation's 2008 annual short and long-term incentive awards for its named executive officers listed below (the Executive Officers), which are granted pursuant to the Corporation's 2004 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the Plan). Set forth below is a brief description of the terms of the 2008 incentive awards. Previously, the Committee had also approved revised base salaries for 2008 for the Executive Officers.

Incentive Awards

For each Executive Officer, the Corporation's incentive awards consist of the following:

- Short-term cash incentive awards;
- Long-term incentive restricted stock awards; and
- Long-term incentive performance shares awards.

Short-term Cash Incentive Awards

The short-term cash incentive award provides Executive Officers with the opportunity to earn annual cash bonuses based on the achievement of certain pre-established goals. Each Executive Officer is entitled to a cash award equal to a percentage of the executive's 2008 base salary (Eligible Earnings). The cash incentive award may vary from zero to 140% of Eligible Earnings (150% for the CEO) based on the level of achievement of targets determined by the Committee for each of the following components:

- Financial performance of the Corporation as a whole;
- Financial performance of the individual business circles to which the Executive Officer pertains (except for the CEO); and Individual performance component related to strategic and personal goals of the Executive Officer.

The financial performance components are based on actual after-tax net income for 2008 (excluding the effect of extraordinary items, unusual or nonrecurring) (Net Income) for the Corporation and the business circles compared to the budget of the Corporation and the different business circles. Under the individual performance component, the Committee may grant between zero and 20% (zero and 15% for the CEO) of the Executive Officer's Eligible Earnings based on the executive's achievement of strategic and personal goals.

Long-term Incentive Restricted Stock Awards

Each Executive Officer is entitled to receive an amount of restricted stock equal to a percentage of the executive's Eligible Earnings. The award of restricted stock award may vary from zero to 65% of Eligible Earnings (zero to 125% for the CEO) based on the level of achievement of the Corporation's Net Income for 2008 compared with the budget for the Corporation. It shall be paid in shares of the Corporation's common stock purchased on the open market. The shares of restricted stock awarded to the Executive Officer may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, hypothecated or otherwise encumbered by the Executive Officer during the restricted period, except as may be provided for by the Plan.

Long-term Incentive Performance Shares Awards

Each Executive Officer is entitled to receive a number of shares of the Corporation's common stock based on the Corporation's average return on equity for the years 2008, 2009 and 2010. The actual number of shares earned will be determined and paid at the end of the 2008-2010 performance cycle and may vary from zero to 200% of the target number of shares depending on the Corporation's average return on equity results versus a threshold return during that period.

The target long-term incentive performance shares award for Executive Officers is the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock corresponding to 50% of base pay in effect on December 31, 2007 (100% for the CEO), divided by the closing share price of $11.83 for the Corporation's common stock on the date of approval by the Committee (February 21, 2008).

The target performance shares granted to Executive Officers on February 21, 2008 for the 2008-2010 performance cycle were:

	Target Performance
	Shares
Richard L. Carrion	62,688
David H. Chafey Jr.	29,480
Roberto R. Herencia	20,710
Felix M. Villamil	12,426
Jorge A. Junquera	22,781
Amilcar L. Jordan	12,426
Brunilda Santos de Alvarez	12,426
Eduardo Negron	10,566
Tere Loubriel	13,462

Summary Table of Target Short-Term and Long-Term Incentive Awards

The following table shows the percentage of Eligible Earnings (in the case of performance shares, a percentage of base pay is converted to a target number of shares) that each Executive Officer would receive under the short and long-term incentive awards if the performance for the Corporation and each of the business circles equals 100% of the respective performance targets established by the Committee, as well as the maximum possible amount for the achievement of individual goals. As noted above, the actual percentage may vary to the extent that actual financial performance exceeds or is below the Executive Officer's performance target. If actual Net Income is 90% or less of budget, no corporate or business circle performance incentive is payable.

2008 Target Short-Term and Long-Term Incentive Awards
