REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Members of Parkdale America, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Parkdale America, LLC (the Company) as of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, and the related statements of operations, members' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Parkdale America, LLC as of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006

1 Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

On June 30, 1997, Parkdale Mills, Inc. (Parkdale) and Unifi, Inc. (Unifi) entered into a Contribution Agreement (the Agreement) that set forth the terms and conditions by which the two companies contributed all of the assets of their spun cotton yarn operations utilizing open-end and airjet spinning technologies to create Parkdale America, LLC (the Company). In exchange for their respective contributions, Parkdale and Unifi received a 66% and 34% ownership interest in the Company, respectively.

Operations

The Company is a producer of cotton and synthetic yarns for sale to the textile and apparel industries, both foreign and domestic. As of January 3, 2009, the Company has 12 manufacturing facilities located primarily in central and western North Carolina.

Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year ends the Saturday nearest to December 31. The Company's fiscal years ended January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006. Fiscal year 2008 contained 53 weeks, while fiscal years 2007 and 2006 each contained 52 weeks.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the related services are provided, the price is fixed and determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. The Company recognizes revenue when goods are shipped.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. The Company maintains cash deposits with major banks that may exceed federally insured limits. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes the risk of loss to be remote.

Available-for-sale Securities

In fiscal 2005, the Company purchased available-for-sale securities, which consist of auction-rate bonds with variable interest rates. The securities had 35-day auction periods and were designed to maintain a price of 100% of par. Interest earned on the bonds was $103,000 for the year ended December 30, 2006. The Company disposed of the bonds in 2006.

Notes to Financial Statements

Concentration of Credit Risk

Substantially all of the Company's accounts receivable are due from companies in the textile and apparel markets located primarily throughout North and South America. The Company generally does not require collateral for its accounts receivable. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial condition and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon factors surrounding the credit risk of specific customers, historical trends and other information. In the event of cash recoveries, the Company replaces the previously reserved amounts in the allowance for doubtful accounts. Write-offs of accounts receivable, net of recoveries, totaled $1,139,000, $577,000 and $733,000 for the years ended January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, respectively. Sales to two customers accounted for approximately 32% of total gross sales in fiscal 2008, sales to two customers accounted for approximately 29% of total gross sales in fiscal 2007, and sales to four customers accounted for approximately 45% of total gross sales in fiscal 2006. As of January 3, 2009, accounts receivable for two customers comprised 24% of total gross accounts receivable outstanding. As of December 29, 2007, accounts receivable for three customers comprised 41% of total gross accounts receivable outstanding. As of December 30, 2006, accounts receivable for two customers comprised 25% of total gross accounts receivable outstanding.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company currently measures and records its derivative instruments in the accompanying financial statements at fair value. SFAS 157, which the Company adopted effective December 30, 2007, establishes a fair value hierarchy for those instruments measured at fair value that distinguishes between assumptions based on market data (observable inputs) and the Company's own assumptions (unobservable inputs). The hierarchy consists of three levels:

Level 1 Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 Inputs other than Level 1 inputs that are either directly or indirectly observable; and

Level 3 Unobservable inputs developed using estimates and assumptions developed by the Company, which reflect those that a market participant would use.

SFAS 157 requires separate disclosure of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis, as documented above, from those measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis (Note 6). As of January 3, 2009, no assets or liabilities are measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis.

Table of ContentsParkdale America, LLC*Notes to Financial Statements*January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006*Property, Plant and Equipment

Additions to property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost. Provisions for repairs and maintenance, which do not extend the life of the applicable assets, are expensed. Provisions for depreciation are determined principally by an accelerated method over the estimated useful lives of the assets or the remaining capital lease term, whichever is shorter. The following is a summary:

	Useful Lives in Years	2008 $	2007 $	2006 $
Land and land improvements	15	4,946,000	4,986,000	5,178,000

Construction-in-progress		3,227,000	810,000	1,178,000
Property, plant and equipment, net		96,846,000	77,935,000	99,086,000

Depreciation expense for the years ended January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, was $17,944,000, $20,761,000 and $25,396,000, respectively.

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Company evaluates long-lived assets to determine impairment based on estimated future undiscounted cash flows attributable to the assets. In the event such cash flows are not expected to be sufficient to recover the carrying value of the assets, the assets are written down to their estimated fair values.

In fiscal 2006, the Company terminated operations at one of its Sanford, North Carolina, manufacturing facilities. The land and building of this facility were part of the Company's capital lease (Note 11). As of December 30, 2006, management believed that, based on prices for similar assets, the fair value of this facility exceeded its carrying value and no impairment charge was needed at that time. As of December 30, 2006, management continued to assess the available options for this facility. The assets related to this facility are included in property, plant and equipment, net on the balance sheet as of December 30, 2006.

In fiscal 2007, the Company made the decision to buy out the remaining portion of its capital lease for one of its Sanford locations and to sell the land and building to a third party (Note 11). In order to terminate the lease, the Company made an early buyout payment of approximately $630,000. The Company's total loss related to the early lease buyout and sale approximated $2,080,000.

In fiscal 2008, the Company made the decision to buy out the remaining portion of its capital lease for its Walnut Cove and remaining Sanford facilities. In order to terminate the lease, the Company made an early buyout payment of approximately $8,548,000. The Company recorded no gain or loss on the transaction.

In fiscal 2008, the Company recorded an additional impairment charge of approximately $100,000 related to equipment whose carrying value was greater than its calculated fair value.

Table of ContentsParkdale America, LLC*Notes to Financial Statements*January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006*Cotton Rebate Programs

During August of fiscal 2008, a new government subsidy commenced that will provide economic adjustment assistance to domestic users of upland cotton. During the period beginning on August 1, 2008, and ending on July 31, 2012, the value of the assistance will be 4 cents per pound. Effective beginning on August 1, 2012, the value of the assistance will be 3 cents per pound. The Company did not receive any payments related to this subsidy during fiscal 2008; however, the Company did accrue a receivable of $6,866,000 based on eligible cotton consumption under the subsidy from the period beginning on August 1, 2008, through year-end. This amount was recorded in other receivables and as a reduction to cost of goods sold in the accompanying statements of operations. Based on the terms of the subsidy, the funds received must be used towards future qualifying capital expenditures.

In prior years, the Company received a rebate from the U.S. Government for consuming cotton grown in the United States. The rebate was based on the pounds of cotton consumed and the difference between U.S. and foreign cotton prices. Rebate income, included as a reduction to cost of goods sold in the accompanying statements of operations, amounted to $7,233,000 for the year ended December 30, 2006. As of July 31, 2006, the agreement under which the Company was receiving the rebate was eliminated due to a change in federal legislation and is no longer available to the Company.

Shipping Costs

The costs to ship products to customers of approximately $4,400,000, $5,900,000 and $5,400,000 during the years ended January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, respectively, are included as a component of cost of goods sold in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Recent Accounting Pronouncement

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements. The Statement does not change existing accounting rules governing what can or what must be recognized and reported at fair value in the Company's financial statements, or disclosed at fair value in the Company's notes to the financial statements. Additionally, SFAS No. 157 does not eliminate practicability exceptions that exist in accounting pronouncements amended by this statement when measuring fair value. As a result, the Company will not be required to recognize any new instruments at fair value.

SFAS No. 157 creates a single definition of fair value, along with a conceptual framework to measure fair value.

SFAS No. 157 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The statement will require the Company to apply valuation techniques that (1) place greater reliance on observable inputs and less reliance on unobservable inputs and (2) are consistent with the market approach, the income approach, and/or the cost approach. The statement will also require the Company to include enhanced disclosures of fair value measurements in its financial statements. As described in Note 1, the Company adopted SFAS No. 157 effective December 30, 2007.

In February 2008, the FASB issued FSP No. SFAS 157-2, Effective Date of FASB Statement No. 157 (FSP 157-2). FSP 157-2 defers the effective date of SFAS No. 157 for nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities, except those that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring (at least annually) basis, to fiscal years and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after November 15, 2008, or the Company's fiscal 2009. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting the provisions of FSP 157-2.

Table of ContentsParkdale America, LLC*Notes to Financial Statements*January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. SFAS No. 159 would allow the Company to make an irrevocable election to measure certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses on the elected items recognized in earnings at each reporting period. The fair value option may only be elected at the time of initial recognition of a financial asset or financial liability or upon the occurrence of certain specified events. The election is applied on an instrument-by-instrument basis, with a few exceptions, and is applied only to entire instruments and not to portions of instruments. SFAS No. 159 also provides expanded disclosure requirements regarding the effects of electing the fair value option on the financial statements. SFAS No. 159 is effective prospectively for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company has decided not to elect the fair value option for eligible assets and liabilities as of January 3, 2009.

In December 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) FIN 48-3, Effective Date of FASB Interpretation No. 48 for Certain Nonpublic Enterprises. FSP FIN 48-3 permits an entity within its scope to defer the effective date of FASB Interpretation 48 (Interpretation 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, to its annual financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. The Company has elected to defer the application of Interpretation 48 for the year ending January 3, 2009. The Company evaluates its uncertain tax positions using the provisions of SFAS No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies. Accordingly, a loss contingency is recognized when it is probable that a liability has been incurred as of the date of the financial statements and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. The amount recognized is subject to estimate and management judgment with respect to the likely outcome of each uncertain tax position. The amount that is ultimately sustained for an individual uncertain tax position or for all uncertain tax positions in the aggregate could differ from the amount recognized.

In December 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) FAS 132R-1, Employers Disclosures about Postretirement Benefit Plan Assets, to require employers to provide more transparency about the assets in their postretirement benefit plans, including defined benefit pension plans. FSP FAS 132R-1 requires employers to consider the following objectives in providing more detailed disclosures about plan assets:

- How investment decisions are made, including factors necessary to understanding investment policies and strategies
- The major categories of plan assets
- The inputs and valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of plan assets
- The effect of fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements in SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements) on changes in plan assets for the period
- Significant concentrations of risk within plan assets

The disclosures relating to the above objectives are required by the FSP for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2009. The Company intends to adopt FSP FAS 132R-1 effective January 3, 2010.

In November 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ratified a consensus opinion reached by the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) on EITF Issue 08-6, Equity Method Investment Accounting Considerations, to clarify accounting and impairment considerations involving equity method investments after the effective date of both SFAS No.141 (revised 2007), Business Combinations, and FASB Statement 160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements. EITF Issue 08-6 includes the Task Force's conclusions on how an equity method investor should (1) initially measure its equity method investment, (2) account for impairment charges recorded by its investee and (3) account for shares issued by the investee.

EITF Issue 08-6 is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2008. The Company intends to adopt EITF Issue 08-6 in fiscal 2009 on a prospective basis. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact that the adoption of EITF Issue 08-6 will have on its financial statements.

Table of ContentsParkdale America, LLC*Notes to Financial Statements*January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006*2 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. During fiscal 2008, 2007 and 2006, cost was determined using the specific identification method for raw materials, yarn-in-process and finished yarn inventories. The Company performs periodic assessments to determine the existence of obsolete, slow-moving and nonsalable inventories and records necessary provisions to reduce such inventories to net realizable value. Inventories consist of the following as of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006:

Cotton and synthetics	17,012,000	16,152,000	9,532,000
Yarn in process	4,260,000	4,424,000	4,130,000
Finished yarn	16,742,000	14,220,000	14,630,000
Supplies	898,000	853,000	813,000
	38,912,000	35,649,000	29,105,000

Inventories as of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, have been reduced by a reserve of $460,000, $424,000 and $1,229,000, respectively, related to a reduction in the value of finished yarns on hand.

3 Income Taxes

The Company is a Limited Liability Company treated as a partnership for federal and state income tax reporting purposes. As a result, the Company's results of operations are included in the income tax returns of its individual members. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

4 Deferred Financing Costs

On February 1, 2005, the Company entered into a new revolving credit facility, which replaced the revolving credit facility in place at January 1, 2005 (Note 6). Financing costs consist primarily of commitment fees, legal fees and other direct costs incurred to obtain the Company's revolving line of credit. Total deferred financing costs capitalized were approximately $766,000. These costs were fully amortized over the term of the debt agreement, which matured on February 1, 2008. Amortization expense relating to this credit facility was $21,000, $256,000 and $255,000 for the years ended January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, respectively. Accumulated amortization approximated $745,000 and $489,000 for the years ended December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, respectively. The remaining $21,000 balance of deferred financing costs was fully amortized in fiscal 2008.

On April 28, 2008, the Company amended its revolving credit facility (Note 6). Financing costs consist primarily of commitment fees, legal fees and other direct costs incurred to amend the Company's revolving line of credit. Total deferred financing costs capitalized were approximately $388,000. These costs are being amortized over the term of the debt agreement, which matures on April 28, 2011. Amortization expense relating to this credit facility was $97,000 for the year ended January 3, 2009.

5 DebtLines of Credit

On April 28, 2008, the Company amended its revolving credit facility with maximum borrowings of $75,000,000. The new debt facility matures on April 28, 2011, and bears interest at either the LIBOR rate or the base rate plus the applicable margin. If liquidity falls below agreed-upon requirements, the most restrictive covenants will require the Company to limit capital expenditures, and to maintain a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio and a minimum leverage ratio. As of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, there were no outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility.

Table of ContentsParkdale America, LLC*Notes to Financial Statements*January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006*6 Derivative Instruments

The Company accounts for derivative instruments and hedging activities according to the provisions of SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 133, as amended, establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and for hedging activities. All derivatives, whether designated in hedging relationships or not, are required to be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value. If the derivative is designated as a fair-value hedge, the changes in the fair value of the derivative and the hedged item are recognized in earnings. If the derivative is designated as a cash flow hedge, the effective portions of changes in the fair value of the derivative are recorded in other comprehensive income or loss and are recognized in earnings when the hedged item affects earnings. Any material ineffective portions of changes in the fair value of cash flow hedges are recognized in earnings as they occur.

The Company is subject to price risk related to anticipated, fixed-price yarn sales. In the normal course of business, under procedures and controls established by the Company's financial risk management framework, the Company enters into cotton futures to manage changes in raw materials prices in order to protect the gross margin of fixed-price yarn sales. As of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, the Company has recorded these instruments at fair value of $2,474,000, $2,932,000 and $539,000, respectively, in the accompanying balance sheets. As discussed in Note 1, the following table summarizes the derivatives measured at fair value in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of January 3, 2009:

Fair value measurements as of January 3, 2009	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets Derivative instruments	2,474,000			2,474,000

The Company's derivative instruments are listed and traded on an exchange, and are thus valued using quoted prices classified within level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. The total fair value of the derivative instruments is classified as a current asset as of January 3, 2009.

The Company designates certain futures contracts as cash flow hedges. As of January 3, 2009, December 29, 2007, and December 30, 2006, the Company had unrealized (loss) gains on futures contracts designated as cash flow hedges of $(8,554,000), $1,341,000 and $667,000, respectively, recorded in other comprehensive income. For contracts which were not designated as hedges, or for the ineffective portions of contracts designated as hedges, the Company recorded an increase to earnings of approximately $8,166,000 for the year ended January 3, 2009, a charge to earnings of approximately $157,000 for the year ended December 29, 2007, and an increase to earnings of approximately $87,000 for the year ended December 30, 2006.

The Company has been engaged in the process of purchasing equipment from foreign vendors at prices denominated in Euros. During fiscal 2007, to hedge against changes in the fair value of such prices due to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the Company has entered into forward contracts with a bank. As of December 29, 2007, the Company recorded these instruments at fair value in the amount of $1,030,000. The Company purchased the equipment during fiscal 2008, and the forward contracts were completed and closed. The forward contracts have not been designated as a foreign currency fair value hedge by the Company, and as such, the Company has recorded an increase to earnings of approximately $1,804,000 and $1,036,000 for the years ended January 3, 2009, and December 29, 2007, respectively.

In addition, the Company enters into forward contracts for cotton purchases, which qualify as derivative instruments under SFAS No. 133. However, these contracts meet the applicable criteria to qualify for the normal purchases or normal sales exemption. Therefore, the provisions of SFAS No. 133 are not applicable to these contracts.

On June 4, 1998, Parkdale and Burlington Industries, Inc. (Burlington) entered into a Joint Venture and Contribution Agreement (the Agreement) whereby Parkdale and Burlington agreed to contribute certain assets and cash for the purpose of constructing, operating and managing a yarn manufacturing facility (the Joint Venture), which qualifies under the Maquiladora program in accordance with applicable Mexican law, and for the marketing and sale of yarn manufactured by the Joint Venture, Summit Yarn, LLC (Summit). In exchange for their respective contributions, Parkdale and Burlington each received a 50% ownership interest in Summit. Concurrent with the formation of Summit, Parkdale and Burlington formed Summit Yarn Holding I, which serves as the holding company for Parkdale and Burlington's investment in various Mexican corporations related to the Joint Venture. Parkdale and Burlington each received a 50% ownership interest in Summit Yarn Holding I. Effective January 15, 2002, Parkdale transferred its ownership in Summit to the Company. The investment was transferred at Parkdale's historical basis of $14,257,000, which included notes receivable from Summit totaling $5,227,000. The Agreement expires in 2018 and has stated renewal options. The Company accounts for its investment in Summit and Summit Yarn Holding I based on the equity method of accounting.

On November 15, 2001, Burlington declared Chapter 11 bankruptcy. On November 9, 2003, the purchase of Burlington by W.L. Ross & Co. was completed, and Burlington emerged from bankruptcy. During March 2004, W.L. Ross & Co. completed the integration of Burlington and Cone Mills into the newly formed International Textile Group. As part of the new structure, Cone Mills assumed responsibility of Burlington's Burlmex denim plant in Mexico. Cone Mills and Burlington operate under separate business units of the International Textile Group. Effective August 2, 2004, Burlington transferred its ownership in Summit to Cone Denim LLC.
