ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with our Code of Regulations, the number of directors has been fixed at eight. The Company has classified its Board of Directors into two classes composed of four members each, both classes serving staggered two year terms. Two of our directors, Barbara P. Ruhlman and Robert G. Ruhlman, are serving a term that expires at this year's annual meeting of shareholders and have been nominated for re-election at the meeting to a term which expires in 2011. Richard R. Gascoigne has been nominated by the Board of Directors for election to the Board of Directors for a term which expires in 2011. In February 2009, Richard R. Gascoigne was elected to fill the vacancy created by the death of Frank B. Carr. Four directors, Glenn E. Corlett, Michael E. Gibbons, R. Steven Kestner and Randall M. Ruhlman, are currently serving terms that expires in 2010. There is one vacancy in the class of directors whose term will expire at the 2011 annual meeting of shareholders. The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of a majority of the Company's independent directors, proposes that the nominees described below be elected to the Board of Directors. At the annual meeting of shareholders, the shares represented by proxies, unless otherwise specified, will be voted for the three nominees hereinafter named.

The director nominees are identified in the following table. If for any reason any of the nominees are not a candidate when the election occurs (which is not expected), the Board of Directors expects that proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee designated by management. The following information is furnished with respect to each person nominated for election as a director.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the following nominees.

Randall M. Ruhlman, 50	President of Ruhlman Motorsports since 1987	1998 to date	2010

The Board has determined that Messrs. Corlett, Gibbons, Kestner and Gascoigne are independent under the NASDAQ's corporate governance rules. In the opinion of the Board, Mr. Kestner's affiliation with Baker & Hostetler LLP, a law firm that regularly provides legal services to the Company, does not interfere with Mr. Kestner's exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his duties as a director.

Barbara P. Ruhlman is the mother of Randall M. Ruhlman and Robert G. Ruhlman.

The Board does not have a Nominating Committee nor any charter with respect to nominations, however, pursuant to NASDAQ corporate governance rules, any Board nominees must be recommended for Board selection by a majority of the Company's independent directors. The independent directors are responsible for ensuring that the Board of Directors possess a variety of knowledge, experience and capabilities derived from substantial business and professional experience, based on an assessment of numerous factors such as age and understanding of and experience in manufacturing, technology, finance and marketing. Nominees for the Board of Directors should be committed to enhancing long-term shareholder value and must possess a high level of personal and professional ethics, sound business judgment and integrity. To this end, the independent directors rely on its network of contacts to compile a list of potential candidates, and may also consider qualified candidates suggested by officers, employees, shareholders and others, using the same criteria to evaluate all candidates.

The Board of Directors has appointed an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors does not have a Finance Committee. The Audit Committee is comprised of Messrs. Gibbons (chairman), Corlett and Gascoigne, each of whom qualify as independent for audit committee purposes under the NASDAQ rules. The Board of Directors has determined that Michael E. Gibbons is an audit committee financial expert. The Compensation Committee is comprised of Messrs. Corlett (chairman), Gibbons and Gascoigne.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors engages the independent registered public accountants for the Company, reviews with the independent registered public accountants the plans and results of audit engagements, preapproves all professional services provided by the independent registered public accountants including audit and non-audit-related services, reviews the independence of the independent registered public accountants, approves the range of audit and non-audit fees, reviews the independent registered public accountants' management letters and management's responses, reviews with management their conclusions about the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, and reviews significant accounting or reporting changes. Management does not approve professional services provided by the independent public accountants for audit and non-audit-related services. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter. A copy of the charter was attached as an appendix to the 2007 proxy statement.

The Compensation Committee administers the Company's executive compensation program and as such, is responsible for reviewing all aspects of the compensation program for the Company's executive officers. The Compensation Committee meets at scheduled times during the year no less than twice and has the authority to consider and take action by written consent. The Compensation Committee Chairman reports on Compensation Committee actions and recommendations at the Company's Board meetings. The Compensation Committee's Charter reflects the responsibilities of the Committee. The Compensation Committee, together with the Board, periodically reviews and revises the Charter. In order to meet its responsibilities, the Compensation Committee has the authority to delegate certain of its responsibilities to subcommittees and/or Officers where necessary, consistent with applicable law. The Compensation Committee is governed by a written charter. A copy of the charter was attached as an appendix to the 2007 proxy statement.

The Compensation Committee's primary objective with respect to executive compensation is to establish programs which attract and retain key officers and managers, and align their compensation with the Company's overall business strategies, values, and performance. To this end, the Compensation Committee has established, and the Board of Directors has endorsed, an executive compensation philosophy to compensate executive Officers based on their responsibilities and the Company's overall annual and longer-term performance, which is outlined in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis. The Committee reviews recommendations from the Company's executive officers, and utilizes compensation survey data in connection with establishing compensation.

In 2008, the Board of Directors held five meetings. No directors attended less than 75% of the total meetings of the Board of Directors and the total of meetings held by all committees on which the director served. In 2008, the Audit Committee held four formal meetings and the Compensation Committee held six meetings. Additionally, the Audit Committee chairman had numerous informal meetings with management and the independent public accountants. The Company expects its directors to attend the Company's annual meeting of shareholders. All of the directors at the time, except John O'Brien, attended last year's annual meeting of shareholders.

Audit Committee Report

In accordance with its charter, the Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the Company, and the quality and integrity of the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to NASDAQ, Securities and Exchange Commission or the public. Management is responsible for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal controls. The independent registered public accountants are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee is comprised of three directors who are not officers or employees of the Company and are independent under the current NASDAQ rules.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2008, with the Company's management. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standard No. 61, as amended, (AICPA, Professional Standards, Vol. 1, AU section 380), as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in Rule 3200T. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and letter from the independent auditors required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent auditor's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence and the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditor the independent auditor's independence. The Audit Committee also considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the independent auditor is compatible with maintaining the independent auditor's independence. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

Based on the above-referenced review and discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Role of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee (Committee) administers the Company's executive compensation programs. The role of the Committee is to oversee the Company's compensation and benefit plans and policies for its elected executive officers (Officers), including the Named Executive Officers (NEOs) who are the Company's principal executive officer (Robert G. Ruhlman, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer), principal financial officer (Eric R. Graef, Chief Financial Officer and Vice President Finance) and the three other most highly compensated executive officers. The Committee reviews and approves all executive compensation decisions relating to the Officers, including all NEOs.

In performance of its duties, the Committee has the authority to allocate all or any portion of its responsibilities and powers to any one or more of its members, and may delegate all or any portion of its responsibilities and powers to a committee formed for that purpose, subject to approval from the entire board of directors. Additionally, the Committee may select and appoint outside consultants to assist it.

Philosophy of the Compensation Program

The philosophy of the Committee is to provide a compensation program that will attract, motivate and retain key leadership in order to give the Company a competitive advantage while ensuring the success and growth of the Company. The Compensation program should ensure that a significant portion of compensation will be directly related to the Company's performance by tying annual cash bonus and long-term incentive awards to Company performance. The compensation program is intended to motivate the Officers to enable the Company to achieve its short-term and long-term business goals. The Committee has three goals to guide it in this endeavor: (a) compensation paid to Officers should be aligned with the performance of the Company on both a long- and short-term basis; (b) compensation should be competitive within the employment environment; and (c) compensation should be designed to reward Officers for meeting performance targets.

Compensation Program

The Committee strives to craft a compensation program that pays the Officers at competitive levels reflective of their individual responsibilities while maintaining consistency and pay equity among the individual Officers. The Committee conducts an annual review of the compensation program, as well as changes in the overall composition of the management team and the responsibilities of the individual Officers. This is to ensure that the compensation is competitive within the market, supports retention objectives and is internally equitable. Reliance upon various tools, and the findings from such tools, assists the Committee in its analysis, and leads to decisions regarding the mix of the various compensation elements to be included. Additionally, the cost of the compensation program is considered, in recognition that the optimal compensation program motivates employees to improve the results on a cost-effective basis. Typically, the Committee finalizes compensation elements for a year in December of the prior year.

Tools and Findings from Analysis. The Committee relies upon tools to analyze the compensation program internally and within the competitive landscape. Historically, these tools have been consideration of outside data compiled by various consultants, the use of tally sheets detailing overall compensation package to the individual Officers and discussions with the CEO regarding performance levels and goals.

External Data. In 2007, the Committee engaged Tower Perrin (TP) to evaluate the mix of elements for its compensation program, and to determine whether the compensation plan is adequately structured to meet the goals. The Committee adopted TP s recommendations with respect to base compensation and the annual cash incentive award for 2008. In 2008, the Committee also focused on TP s recommendations regarding the Company s existing long-term incentives for the Officers. TP s consulting advice was that the existing incentives did not adequately reward management for sustained shareholder value creation. Moreover, the Company s prior long-term incentive program, which was comprised of the Company s 1999 Stock Option Plan, did not adequately facilitate executive stock ownership, an important consideration for the Committee. As discussed more fully below, TP provided the Committee with a competitive picture of the long-term incentives offered at companies in the peer group, and recommended that the Committee consider a long-term incentive plan with a mix of stock options, performance-based restricted stock and service-based restricted stock. As a result, the Committee approved the Preformed Line Products Company Long Term Incentive Plan of 2008 (LTIP) which was approved by the shareholders during the April 2008 annual meeting.

Additionally, the Committee generally relies upon various independent surveys, which are matched to specific positions with similar functional descriptions as those for the Officers. In 2008, the Committee utilized the Watson-Wyatt s annual compensation level survey. Using this independent survey, the Company analyzed the compensation paid to Officers, including the CEO, to determine in which percentile of the compensation paid to executives holding equivalent positions in the peer classification group (i.e., durable goods manufacturing companies with employment levels of between 1,000 and 5,000) the Officers fell. The Officers including the CEO were near the 50th percentile, when reviewing base salary alone. The Company also reviewed total cash compensation, which included salary and the maximum available bonus, for the Officers, and compared that data with the peer group data. When comparing total cash compensation, all of the Officers except the CEO and CFO, were near the 75th percentile, while the CEO and CFO were just over the 50th percentile. Additionally, the Company reviewed the CEO s salary as a percentage of the salary of each Officer, as compared with the Watson-Wyatt data, and determined that the CEO s salary was in line with the peer group results.

Discussions with the CEO. All of the non-CEO Officers report directly to the CEO, who performs a yearly evaluation of the performance of each Officer. The CEO s assessment of the individual performance forms the basis for the proposed compensation levels of each Officer based upon the information derived from the aforementioned survey. The CEO provides a written evaluation for each Officer that includes his recommendations for salary adjustments for the subsequent year to the Committee which weighs these recommendations in determining salary levels.

Compensation Elements. The Company recognizes that its success depends, in large part, on a leadership team with the skills and commitment necessary to successfully manage a global organization. The compensation program assists in achieving this objective by relying on the elements of compensation detailed below. Certain elements are designed to enable the Company to attract and retain the Officers with the skills to anticipate and respond to the market, while other elements are intended to motivate the Officers to achieve financial results to enhance shareholder value. The Company's 2008 total compensation program for Officers consists of the following elements:

Base salaries;

Annual cash incentive awards;

Stock Options;

Long-term equity grants;

Retirement benefits; and

Health and welfare benefits.

The Company structures the total compensation program so that its reliance on any particular element of compensation is flexible. Thus, the compensation program strives to meet the goals outlined above, by balancing short-term (i.e., base salaries, annual cash incentive awards), and long-term (i.e., stock options, long-term equity grants) incentives, competitively in the market. There is no difference in the policies and their application for each of the Officers, except for the CEO.

Base Salaries. The Company's goal is to establish a salary sufficient to attract and retain talented executives. This goal is based on the Company's belief that it is important to maintain salary levels near a midpoint of comparable peer group executives to be competitive within the general market and the peer group. The base salaries of the Officers are reviewed annually. In each case, factors considered in establishing an Officer's salary level include a review of the individual's performance initiated by the CEO, an accounting of the Company's performance, the experience level for the position and the peer group executive compensation information using companies with similar revenue and employee levels, derived from independent compensation surveys and internal equity. In 2008, the Committee determined that the CEO's recommendations for Officer salaries were thorough and thoughtful, and ratified the CEO's recommendations. For the CEO's salary, the Committee considered the written recommendation on the competitive market prepared by the Vice President of Human Resources, as well as the CEO's request for no adjustment. The Committee believed that because the CEO led the management team to an outstanding year, an adjustment was warranted. As such, the Committee approved an increase to the CEO compensation in line with increases given to all Officers.

Annual Cash Incentive Awards. The annual cash incentive award is designed to motivate and reward the Officers for their contributions to the Company's performance by making a significant portion of their total compensation variable and dependent upon the Company's annual financial performance. As such, it is tied directly to the financial performance of the Company on a sliding scale of return on shareholders' equity. The Committee believes that compensating management by aligning compensation with shareholders' return on their investment is the most effective way to connect the achievement of performance goals and to encourage growth in the Company while rewarding Officers for their contributions. The calculation is based on the Company's pretax return on equity and assessed over a range of 6% to 15%. The implied target is 10.4% which assumes a linear, symmetrical bonus curve with one-half of the maximum bonus earned at the midpoint of the performance range. From this calculation, the awards are determined based on a schedule which provides certain percentages to be applied to base salaries. The maximum bonuses are 100% of salary for the CEO and 85% of salary for the other Officers. The awards are discretionary, subject to the Committee's approval. Upon approval, the cash incentive payments are granted at year end, and the cash incentive payment for each Officer except for the CEO utilizes the same percentage of each Officer's salary. The Committee has the ability to exercise discretion and make adjustments, in the event of a transformational event where circumstances beyond the control of the Officers occur during the year.

Stock Options. The Company believes that an Officer's ownership in the Company aligns the Officer's performance with the Company's performance. As such, the Company has an Employee Stock Option Plan in 1999 (Prior Plan), allowing for the awards of long-term equity grants to all employees, including Officers. Additionally, the shareholders adopted the LTIP (together with Prior Plan, Plans) which includes the ability to award up to 100,000 stock options to all employees including Officers. The purpose of these Plans is to encourage and enable employees of the Company to acquire a personal financial interest in the Company, to align the Company's success, and to promote the continued service of the employees. The Committee, with the Board's approval, has the authority to make such awards, typically based on an individual's performance after weighing factors including the employee's duration with the Company. Additionally, the Committee has made it a practice to award options to purchase 10,000 shares to each Officer upon appointment as an officer of the Company. The Company imposes no requirement that its Officers maintain a minimum ownership interest in the Company. The Committee did not award stock options to the NEOs for 2008 compensation.

Long-term equity grants. In 2008, the Committee concluded that stock options were not a desirable method of recognizing management for achieving desired objectives because, in the short term, the Company's stock price does not react in a direct relationship to the achievement of the Company's strategic objectives. The Committee believed that the Company's shareholders will be better served if a greater percentage of the long-term equity incentive program is directly related to achievement of the Company's board-approved strategic objectives. To that end As discussed above, TP provided the Committee with a competitive picture of the long-term incentives offered at the peer group, and recommended that the Committee consider a number of structures to fill the competitive void in the existing compensation program, with a mix of performance-based restricted shares and service-based restricted shares at varying scenarios.

The Committee believes that the balanced LTI program consisting of service vested restricted shares and performance vested restricted shares, is a compelling way to achieve its objectives. Generally, performance-vesting aligns executive long-term incentive rewards more directly with shareholder interests since achieving strategic objectives is a better measure of managements' performance than the vagaries of the stock market. Furthermore, the Committee believes that the shareholders are served well by decisions that further the Company's long-term strategic plan. The Committee believes that the CEO's long-term incentive should be 100% dependent on the achievement of the Company's strategic objectives. Nevertheless, the Committee believes that it is appropriate to include some service vested restricted stock in the long-term incentive of the other Officers in order to encourage retention of key executives over the duration of a business cycle.

The Committee adopted the LTIP, which was approved by the Board during its February 2008 meeting and adopted by the shareholders at the April 2008 annual meeting. In the summer of 2008, the Committee then determined the grants to be made under the LTIP which are set forth on the accompanying compensation tables. The CEO's equity compensation awards will be performance-based shares, vesting in three years based upon achieving performance standards approved at the time of the grant by the Company's Board of Directors. The equity compensation awards to the other participants will be as follows: two-thirds of the award will be performance-based shares, vesting in three years based on achieving performance standards approved at the time of the grant by the Company's Board of Directors, and one-third of the award will be service-based shares, vesting three years after the date of the grant based solely on continued employment by the Company. The Committee chose to emphasize performance over service over three years (rather than weigh these measures equally), as it believes this approach aligns the Company's performance with shareholder interests, while acknowledging the benefit from long-term service. The CEO's target award will be equal to 100% of the CEO's salary at the date of vesting, with a maximum award equal to two times the target award. The awards to the other Officers is as follows: the target award will be equal to that percentage of participant's salary at the date of vesting that is specified at the time of grant. The maximum amount of the performance portion of the award will be equal to two times the target award. The maximum award for the service vested portion of the award will be equal to the target award. Each Officer was granted the number of shares equal to the maximum level, under the performance criteria. For the performance-based shares, the number of restricted shares in which the participant becomes vested will depend upon the specific level of performance of growth in pretax income and sales growth over the three-year performance period ending December 31, 2010, with thresholds of 5% and 3% respectively, and maximum of 10% of both. Further, cash dividends will be reinvested in additional restricted shares, and held subject to the same vesting requirements as the underlying shares.

In recognition that the Officers may want to defer receipt of the restricted shares, the Committee also approved a Deferred Shares Plan, which was also approved by the Board in August 2008. The Deferred Shares Plan provides Participants who receive awards of restricted shares under the LTIP with the option to defer actual receipt of such restricted shares when such restricted shares are no longer subject to substantial risk of forfeiture. The Committee then approved grants of LTIP awards under the LTIP in August 2008 to each of the Officers, including the CEO, which were awarded August 2008.

In light of the radical shift in the economy occurring late 2008, the Committee agreed that it would be necessary to review the methodology to determine the achievement of the performance measures used in determining the number of performance based shares that vest under the 2008 grant. The Committee clarified how the achievement of the performance measures are to be determined. The first issue is whether the metrics should be adjusted for currency fluctuations. The Committee believes that the performance measures should be calculated after adjusting for currency fluctuations, recognizing that the LTIP's goal is to incent Officers to successfully manage the business rather than engage in currency hedging and derivative swapping. As such, all sales and income amounts will be computed by deducting favorable impacts of the currency and adding unfavorable impacts of the currency. The Committee then addressed whether the calculations should include non-reoccurring items. The Committee agreed that the LTIP should measure performance that management can affect, rather than permit non-reoccurring and unusual items to distort (both positively and negatively) performance. For example, the Company was billed $519,000 in 2008 by its former auditors for services rendered in 2007. These fees were considered excess fees given that the auditor did not compute them until after the audit was complete. The Committee agreed to deduct this amount from the 2007 income and add it into 2008 income which is the year it was expensed. The Committee also considered the divestiture of Superior Modular Products (SMP), which occurred in 2008, and determined that the decision to dispose of businesses which did not fit within the Company's core business should be encouraged. The Committee determined that the sale of SMP should be excluded from the performance measures by eliminating the sales, related operating profit or loss and the gain or loss on the sale of SMP from 2008 results.

Retirement Benefits. The Company views retirement benefits as an important component of total compensation. The Company's primary retirement benefit consists of the Company's 401(k) and profit sharing plan under which all salaried employees of the Company, including Officers, participate starting in their third year of employment. The amount the Company provides to the profit sharing plan is based on the recommendation of management, with the Board's approval. Typically, the Company's contribution under this plan is approximately 15% of the then-current year's cash compensation which is consistent with the amount contributed for all full-time salaried employees of the Company, including the cash incentive award, and the Company does not consider gains from prior awards. Every aspect of this plan is the same for all salaried employees, including Officers. Thus, each salaried participant elects the investment options with the same options offered to all salaried employees and Officers. The plan does not involve any guaranteed minimum return or above-market returns; rather, the investment returns are dependent upon actual investment results. To the extent an employee's award exceeds the maximum allowable contribution permitted under existing tax laws, the excess is accrued for (but not funded) under a non-qualified Supplemental Profit Sharing Plan. The return under this Supplemental Profit Sharing Plan is calculated at a weighted average of the Treasury constant maturity one-year rate plus 1%.

Executive Perquisites. Perquisites and other personal benefits do not comprise a significant aspect of the compensation program. Although Officers participate in the same benefit programs as the Company's other employees, the Company provides a few additional benefits to its Officers. These benefits are designed to enable the Officers to balance their personal, business and travel schedules. Benefits include the Company's payment of club dues, which in 2008 amounted to less than $4,000 annually per membership, for four of the NEOs as indicated in the accompanying Summary Compensation Table. The Company also pays annual dues for Robert G. Ruhlman at a club located near the Company's Rogers, Arkansas facility, which totaled approximately $3,100 in 2008. This benefit is also provided to four other employees, primarily for business entertainment purposes. Except as described here, the corporate aircraft is available to all of the employees, including the Officers, for business-related travel only. The CEO is permitted to use the Company's corporate aircraft for personal purposes, as shown on the Summary Compensation Table. The Company also makes personal financial advice available to the CEO and tax advice available to all its Officers.

Directors Compensation. The Company pays each Board member meeting fees for each meeting attended, including Compensation Committee and Audit Committee Meetings. The Committee reviewed whether this system appropriately and adequately recognized the active role in corporate governance required from the Board members on an on-going basis. A crucial driver is the need to ensure that the Company can retain and recruit Directors who are chosen for the financial and business acumen rather than prestige. The Committee agreed that elimination of meeting fees and establishment of an annual retainer was appropriate. This shift enables the Directors to focus on their role as an overseer of corporate governance on a day-to-day basis.

Tax Deductibility of Pay. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 places a limit of $1 million on the amount of compensation that a company may deduct in any one year with respect to each of its NEOs. All Officers were below this threshold in 2008, except the CEO.

Compensation Committee Report

The Committee has reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K, and based on the review and discussion, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Proxy Statement.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

All of our employees, including executive officers, are employed at will and do not have employment, severance or change-in-control agreements. However, the LTIP includes a change in control provision which provides in the event of a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), (a) any Options outstanding which are not then exercisable and vested shall become fully exercisable and vested; and (b) the restrictions applicable to any Restricted Stock shall lapse and such Restricted Stock shall become fully vested and transferable). The following details typical compensation arrangements upon retirement, resignation, death, disability or other termination for other plans.

Upon disability, the IRS allows withdrawals to be made if the employee became permanently disabled. Upon death, the vested account balance of the employee will be paid to the designated beneficiaries.

The Company's Belos operation hires temporary employees through a temporary work agency, Flex-Work Sp. Z o.o., which is 50% owned by Agnieszka Rozwadowska. Agnieszka Rozwadowska is the wife of Piotr Rozwadowski, the Managing Director of the Belos operation located in Poland. The Audit Committee ratified and approved the related party transaction on February 24, 2009. The Company believes the terms of the temporary employee arrangement with Flex-Work Sp. Under Ohio law and our Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, broker non-votes and abstaining votes will not be counted in favor of or against any nominee but will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved at the meeting. Director nominees who receive the greatest number of affirmative votes will be elected directors. All other matters to be considered at the meeting require for approval the favorable vote of a majority of the shares voted at the meeting in person or by proxy. If any other matter properly comes before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote thereon in accordance with their judgment. We do not know of any other matter that will be presented for action at the meeting and we have not received any timely notice that any of our shareholders intend to present a proposal at the meeting.
